The Biggest Man Ever.

"I'll bet none of you like know that the biggest man that ever lived was born and raised in North Carolina," said a fat head at the Hoffman House the other night. "His existence and dimensions are touched for in the American Encyclopedia," says the New York Press.

"His name was Miles Darlen. He was seven feet, six inches high and in 1845 weighed 871 pounds. He was born in North Carolina in 1798 and died in Tennessee, January 23, 1859. Until 1853 he was able to go about his work in active manner, but his weight increased so fast that year when he wanted to move about he had to be hauled in a two-horse wagon. In 1839 it was chronicled that his coat was buttoned around three men each weighing more than 200 pounds, who walked together down the streets of Lexington, N. C. At his death he is said to have weighed not less than 1,000 pounds. His coffin was 8 feet long, 35 inches deep, 32 inches across the breast, 18 across the head, and 14 across the feet. These measurements were taken at the time and are matters of historical record."—Washington Herald.
