

Take Notice: This Means Money to You

If you believe that "A Dollar Saved is a Dollar Made" you cannot afford, in justice to yourself, to buy anything in the dry goods line until you have examined our stock and learned our prices. We have just opened our dry goods store and are now ready to show you through one of the best selected stocks of Ladies Furnishing Goods ever shown in the County. Our Mr. C. Davis has just visited the Northern markets, where he selected a stock second to none. These goods are arriving daily and we will make it to your interest to come to see us.

We bought our goods direct from the best mills in the United States, in large quantities and will endeavor at all times to supply our customers with the very best goods at the very lowest prices for which honest merchandise can be sold.

We fully appreciate the liberal patronage given us in the Clothing business, and trust that our relations have been such as to warrant a continuance of the same in both stores. Our stores join in the rear, opening on both Market and Third Streets.

Clayton News.

Mr Miller White is taking his vacation in Concord.

Farm lands near Clayton seem to be in great demand.

Crops are in fine condition. The watermelon market is still active.

Mr. D. W. Barbour, who has been quite sick, is rapidly improving.

Mr. A. Sam White and bride have returned from a trip in the western part of the State.

The friends of Mr. Donald Gulley will be glad to know he is doing well at his new home in Reidsville, N. C.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church has closed. The church has been greatly renewed and about thirty added to its number.

Clayton defeated the three B's in a very fine game of ball here Wednesday by a score 4 to 1 in favor of Clayton. Atkinson and Cable did fine work for the home team.

Nine years ago a certain young man of Clayton, then 14 years of age, took a position with a certain firm here at $3.00 per month as office boy. It seemed a small bit of a salary and for three years he worked in this capacity, but at the end of the third year he was shown by the proprietor, the combination of the money drawer in the store and for six years he has served his employers faithfully and diligently in this clerkship. On the 17th of August, next Monday, this young man will take charge as secretary-treasurer and general manager of an enterprising corporation in Clayton in which his present employers are largely interested. We merely speak of this in passing and hope that it may show to some young men what character, ambition, integrity and faithfulness to business may win for you even in a small town. Many of our boys today are having better advantages than this young man had.

Notable Family Reunion.

An annual occurrence and perhaps one never before duplicated was the grouping together of five sisters, whose ages aggregate over 375 years, on the streets of Pittsboro this evening. Mrs. J. J. Jackson, Mrs. Roxanna McNeil, Mrs. Addie Bagwell, Mrs. Corrina Jackson and Mrs. Elvira Moffit, daughters of the late Governor Worth, composed the party. This is the first time in years that the reunion has taken place. A photographer from Raleigh came up to Pittsboro to photograph the group.

Three of the sisters married brothers, Miss Lucy Worth having married Mr. J. J. Jackson, Miss Elvira Worth married Samuel L. Jackson, and Mrs. Corinna Roberts' second marriage was to Dr. H. C. Jackson. The sisters compose a delightful house party at the home of Mrs. J. J. Jackson.—Pittsboro Special, re Charlotte Observer.

State-wide Prohibition.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 12.—The Democratic State convention, after a day devoted to debate, at times quite spirited, over a majority and minority report of the committee on resolutions adopted the report of the majority tonight in which is incorporated a plank demanding that the next Legislature submit to a vote of the people a constitutional amendment providing for State-wide prohibition.

Mr. Editor: It is reported I have committed Suicide. I have not, neither am I demented. I bled myself in my left arm because the doctors would not bleed me. I am improving now.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

Life is more than the thinking of something else after death.—Rev. Carter H. Jones, Baptist, Louisville, Ky.

Robbing God.

A man cannot rob God of that which rightly belongs to him and expect lasting blessings upon either himself or his children.—Rev. L. M. Zimmerman, Lutheran, Baltimore.

Within the Christian's Power.

The Christian ought to be a better business man, a mighty factor in politics, able by example and mighty in his words of experience and wisdom.—Bishop J. H. Vincent, Methodist, Indianapolis.

Need of Gentleness.

In the culture of the heart we must lead on softly. I can no more believe that hard and cruel thought of God will be good for my children than I can believe in hard and cruel words and blows, and I have no doubt there are more so called infidels made and confirmed to that end by fathers who thought they were doing God's service than there are of any other type. Such thought may be but theology to the father, but they are very often grim, hard, real biting torment to the tender child.—Rev. Robert Collyer, Unitarian, New York.

Inking of God's Love.

Men would rather live a life of tears and pain and have love than to live a painless and tearless existence without love. Human love is stronger than hate, than avarice, than ambition. Human love can make a feast in the hovel or a paradise out of a wilderness. If this be the power of human love, what must be that of God? A father's love is great, a mother's love is greater, but God's love is the greatest of all. All the love of this world, without which duty would become irksome, the truth unpleasant—all the love of this world is but a symbol of that of the next. It is just an inking of the affection that God has for us.—Rev. Dr. Samuel J. Nicholls, Presbyterian, St. Louis.

For Over Sixty Years a Standard Family Medicine.

Hon. J. A. Oates, Mayor of Dunn, N. C., says: "I am sure Dr. Worthington's Remedy saved my life. It was prescribed for me in a very severe case of cramp colic by Dr. Armstrong of the Confederate Army, in 1863, and it gave me instantaneous relief. Since that day I have used it continuously, and I think it the greatest remedy on earth and should be kept in every home."

Price 25c. Guaranteed by all dealers.
