

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE
The Week's Happenings Told by The Herald's Regular Correspondents

POLENTA NEWS.

Rev. Mr. Townsend writes that he will assist Rev. Mr. Horrell in the meeting at Shiloh, to begin the second Sunday in August. 1870, Townsend was once pastor of this church and our people will be delighted to have him with them again.

Mr. G. B. Smith has put in a cannery and is ready to accommodate the people in canning up their fruit, etc. It is a large one and Mr. Smith will be able to can all the fruit in the neighborhood. He cans for half, you preparing the fruit and he furnishing the cans and doing the canning. It will prove a good thing for the neighborhood.

There will be preaching at Shiloh the coming Sunday by the pastor, Rev. R. W. Horrell. A full attendance of the membership is desired by him.

The Shiloh and Swift Creek base ball teams crossed bats on the former's ground last Saturday afternoon resulting in a score of 23 to 11 in favor of Shiloh. They will play again at an early day.

Most of our farmers have fine crops of corn. Some of them have nice crops of cotton. In the past few days cotton has fallen no little, and since the recent rains it seems will continue its downward tendency.

Mr. Percy Wood carried a load of water melons to Clayton last Saturday and got a fancy price for them.

The ladies of Shiloh church will give an entertainment at the residence of Mr. J. W. Green's on Saturday night before the third Sunday in this month for the purpose of raising funds to paint the church with. Let all help them out in this laudable object. Ice-cream and other delicacies will be served.

Talk about fine crops, Mr. Claud Stephenson has a ten acre field of the finest cotton we have seen this year. Ten days ago it was knee-high, a fine stand and had a healthy, green appearance and had not then had its top-dressing of soda. If nothing happens to it, it is good for 600 pounds of lint cotton per acre. The rest of his cotton is nearly as good. His corn is also fine.

Mr. G. B. Smith has a magnificent crop of corn. It is expected to make not less than ten or twelve barrels to the acre.

A large crowd greeted Rev. Mr. Starling at Mt. Zion last Sunday, and as usual, he preached them a fine sermon.

Messrs. Hugh Page, Exum Hall and Otha Guiley, three of Clayton's bright young men, were in the neighborhood visiting Sunday.

N. M. EASOM, Teacher.

A Little Child Dead.

On the morning of June 29, 1909, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Boyett and took a little sufferer to a brighter world. Little Raymond lived only 2 months, but he had entwined himself around the hearts of father, mother, brothers and sisters. Weep not, for he is now waiting for you in the world above where all is peace and love, and you can go and be with him forever. May God bless and fill the hearts of the bereaved ones with joy that passeth understanding.

Virtues Twisted Into Vices.

It is possible to be proud of our humility! The very best of the virtues may be twisted into a vice. You can invite men to Christ with the clinched fist; strange that men will not come! You can do your good works in such a way that they shall be evil spoken of. Keep the man of knowledge in the cab of your engine of zeal.—Selected.

While it is good to be content in whatsoever state we may find ourselves in this world, it can never be wholesome to be content with one's character, or spiritual attainment.—Selected.
