Tuesday evening was a period of rare delight for the guests of Mrs. Zeb Snipes, whom she delightfully entertained in honor of Miss Mary Card, of Richmond. Each guest was met at the steps of the brilliant porch in a very gracious manner by Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Snipes and Mr. and Mrs. J. Sauls. Everywhere there was a scene of merry-making and great fun. Various games were in progress during the evening. Miss Leone Edgerton and Mr. George Dowell very charmingly presided over the punch bowl. Partners for a lively guessing contest were found by matching numbers. There was a collection of four couples who tied for the prize—Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick and Miss Gladys Kirby, Rev. Mr. Johnson and Miss Lillian Edgerton, Mr. Archie McNeill and Miss Emma Matthews, and Mr. Jesse Sauls and Miss Allie Bailey. To break this tie each one was allowed to draw, and as Mr. Jesse Sauls drew the lucky number Mr. J. R. Sauls presented to him and Miss Bailey a handsome box of candy; Miss Bailey received it in a graceful manner. Mr. H. M. Grizzard and Miss Annie Aycock received the dear little booby, a large stick of red candy. Later on delicious cream and cake was served in abundance. About eleven thirty the guests departed, voting Mrs. Snipes a most charming hostess, and the evening the crowning event of the season's social affairs.

A Welcome Change

Smoke curling up from the farmhouse chimney as the men are coming in from the fields, gives a pretty suggestion of a good supper and a comfortable home. But it also means a hot, tired woman, working hard over a blazing fire.

Your wife can escape this with a New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

A New Perfection keeps a kitchen many degrees cooler than any other range, yet it does all a coal or wood range can do. It saves time, labor and fuel. No wood to cut; no coal to carry; no ashes; no soot. With the New Perfection oven it is the best cooking device you can find anywhere.

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with long, turquoise blue enameled chimneys. Handsomely finished throughout. The 2- and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with drop shelves, towel racks, etc.
