

New North Carolina Search and Seizure Law

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, association, or company, by whatever name called, other than druggists, medical and depositories duly licensed thereto, to engage in the business of selling, exchanging, bartering, giving away for the purpose of direct or indirect gain, or otherwise handling spirituous, vinous or malt liquors in the State of North Carolina. Any person, firm or corporation or association violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 2: That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation by whatever name called, other than druggists and medical depositories duly licensed thereto, to have or keep in his, their or its possession for the purpose of sale, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors; and proof of any one of the following facts shall constitute prima facie evidence of the violation of this section.

Prima Facie Evidence.

First. The possession a license from the government of the United States to sell or manufacture intoxicating liquors, or.

Second; The possession of more than one gallon of spirituous liquors at any one time; whether in one or more places; or.

Third; The possession of more than three gallons of vinous liquors at any one time, whether in one or more places; or.

Fourth; The possession of more than five gallons of malt liquors at any one time, whether in one or more places; or.

Fifth; The delivery to such person, firm, association or corporation of more than five gallons of spirituous or vinous liquors, or more than twenty gallons of malt liquors within any four successive weeks, whether in one or more places; or.

Sixth; The possession of intoxicating liquors as samples to obtain orders thereon: Provided, That this section shall not prohibit any person from keeping in his possession wines and ciders in any quantity where such wines and ciders have been manufactured from grapes or fruit grown on the premises of the person in whose possession said wines and ciders may be.

"Search and Seizure" Section.

Sec. 3. Upon the filing of the complaint, under oath, by a reputable citizen or information furnished under oath by an officer charged with the execution of the law, before a justice of the peace, recorder, mayor, or other officer authorized by law to issue warrant, charging that any person, firm, corporation, association, or company, by whatever name called, has in his, their or its possession, at a place or places specified, more than one gallon of spirituous or vinous liquors or more than five gallons of malt liquors for the purpose of sale, a warrant shall be issued commanding the officer to whom it is directed to search the place or places described in such complaint or information and if more than one gallon of spirituous or vinous liquors or more than five gallons of malt liquors be found in any such place or places, to seize and take into his custody all such intoxicating liquors described in said complaint or information, and seize and take into his custody all glasses, bottles, kegs, pumps, bars or other equipment used in the business of selling intoxicating liquors which may be found at such place or places and safely keep the same subject to the orders of the court. The complaint or information shall describe the place or places to be searched with sufficient particularity to identify the same, and shall describe the intoxicating liquor or other property alleged to be used in carrying on the business of selling intoxicating liquors as particularly as practicable, and any description, however general that will enable the officer executing the warrant to identify the property seized shall be deemed sufficient. All spirituous vinous or malt liquors seized under this section shall be held and upon acquittal of the person so charged, shall be returned to such person and, upon conviction, or upon default of appearance, shall be destroyed.

Sec. 4. It shall be unlawful for any bank incorporated under the laws of the state, or national bank, or any individual, firm or association to present, collect, or in anywise handle any draft, bill of exchange or order to pay money, to which draft, bill of exchange, or order to pay money is attached to bill of lading, or order, or receipt for intoxicating liquors, or which draft is enclosed with, connected with, or is in any way related to, directly or indirectly, any bill of lading, order, or receipt for intoxicating liquors. Any person, firm, corporation, association, or bank violating the provision of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 5. All express companies, railroad companies, or other transportation companies doing business in this state are required hereby to keep a separate book in which shall be entered immediately upon receipt thereof the name of the person to whom the liquor is shipped, the amount and kind received, and the date when received, the date when delivered and by whom delivered and to whom delivered, after which the consignee shall be required to sign his name, or, if he cannot write shall make his mark in the presence of a witness, before such liquor is delivered to such consignee, and which said book shall be open for inspection to any officer or citizen of the state, county, or municipality at any time during business hours of the company, and said book shall constitute prima facie evidence of the facts therein and will be admissible in any of the courts in this state. Any express company, railroad company or other transportation company violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Provided, upon the filing of a certificate signed by a reputable physician or two reputable citizens that the consignee is unable, by reason of sickness or infirmities of age, to appear in person, then the said company is authorized to deliver any package to the agent of said consignee and the agent shall sign the name of the consignee and his own name, and the certificate shall be filed of record.

Sec. 6. That in indictments for violating section one of this act it shall not be necessary to allege a sale to a particular person, and the violation of the law may be proven by circumstantial evidence.

None Excused from Testifying.

Sec. 7. That no person shall be excused from testifying on any prosecution for violating this act or any law against the sale or manufacture of intoxicating liquors, but no discovery made by such person shall be used against him in any penal or criminal prosecution, and he shall be altogether pardoned for the offence done or participated in by him.

Sec. 8. That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby to the extent of such conflict repealed. Provided however, that nothing in this act shall operate to repeal any of the local or special acts of the general assembly of North Carolina prohibiting the manufacture or sale or other disposition of any of the liquors mentioned in this act, or any laws for the enforcement of the same, but all such acts shall continue in full force and effect and in concurrence herewith, and indictment or possession may be had either under this act or any special or local act relating to the same. Provided further, that this act shall not be in any way repeal or modify chapter 71 of the public laws of North Carolina of the extra session of 1908.

Sec. 9. That this act shall not apply to any act committed prior to its ratification.

Sec. 10. That this act shall be in force from and after the first day of April, 1913.
