

PRESCRIPTION

For a Long Life.

This is the prescription for a long life given by an old gentleman in Connecticut, who is ninety-nine years old and still well and cheerful, "Live temperately, be slow to anger, don't worry, take plenty of exercise in the fresh air, and, above all, keep cheerful."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish, take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicine—body-building properties of cods' livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body-builders and strength-creators in the world for aged people.

Mrs. Mary Ivey, of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, you would be unable to supply the demand; it is the finest tonic and strength-creator I ever used."

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. Hood Bros., Smithfield, N. C.

NOTICE.

This is to advise the general public that I have decided to offer for sale my farm situated about one and one-half miles from Kenly, N. C.

The tract contains about sixty-five (65) acres, more or less, with about one half cleared and in fine state of cultivation; good wire fence around same. A six room dwelling, ceiled and plastered, good barn and stables.

Would expect one-fourth to one-third cash and the balance in one and two years.

Anyone interested in above, and will call to see me, I will take pleasure in showing them all over the place.

Reason for selling, have bought in Virginia and expect to move there.

This the 18th day of April, 1913.

Signed, WILBY G. WATKINS,
R. F. D. No. 1, Kenly, N. C.

WOODARD SCHOOL HOUSE DOTS.

Mess. Willie Howell and Frank Konegay went to Goldsboro on business Saturday.

Mr. D. A. Rhodes, of near Ebenezer church visited at Mr. Jas B. Howell's Saturday night and Sunday.

Messrs Joe Ingram and Paul Hines, of near Oakland, spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. S. A. Pittman's.

Misses Elsie and Lida Holt of near Princeton, visited Miss Carrie Pittman Sunday, of Piney Grove.

A large crowd of young people from this section attended the commencement at Princeton school Thursday night and Friday.

We wish to announce that Mrs. Starling, of Massey's Chapel, will preach at Piney Grove school house the second Sunday in May at 3 P. M. and at Woodard school house the fourth Sunday at 3:30, P. M.

The most interesting musical entertainment of the season was given at Mr. S. A. Pittman's by Misses Carrie and Dixie in honor of their friends, Misses Elsie and Lida Holt last Saturday night. Piano and violin music was furnished by Mr. Lon Sulivant and Miss Elsie Holt. A large crowd was present and all seemed to enjoy the occasion. May 6, 1913.

ENTERTAINMENT.

We are requested to state that there will be an entertainment at Nahunta church on May the Seventeenth for the benefit of the Sunday school. It will consist of plays, recitations and pantomimes.

Admission fifteen cents. Ice cream served on the lawn.

DEATH OF J. W. M. STANLEY

On April 23, the gentle spirit of J. W. M. Stanley took its flight to a home whence no traveler has ever returned. He was 73 years, 9 months and 2 days old. The funeral services were held at Bethel Free Will Baptist church Friday afternoon by his pastor, Rev. Ruffin Coats, where he has been a faithful and consecrated member for many years. His place is vacant in our church which will never be filled, because if Grand-pa wasn't there we all knew that there was something like sickness that kept him away. He was married twice, the first time to Miss Nannie Stanley and the second time to Miss Ednie Lee, which he leaves behind and six children two sons and four daughters—R. D. and W. W. Stanley, and Mrs. D. E. Massengill, Mrs. J. R. Massengill, and Mrs. G. H. Temple and Mrs. E. M. Temple and 32 grand children and six great grand children. All that a loving wife and children and kind friends could do could not stay the icy hand of death. The good Lord's will be done, not ours. While we are grieved to give up our loved ones, we can look back on such a life as grand-pa lived and think that our loss is his eternal gain. We remember well that He said in His word that Thou hast been faithful over a few things and I will make thee ruler over many things. We weep not as those that have no hope, for we believe with out one fear that he is resting at the feet of Jesus and let's strive to meet him some day where we can shake hands. He was laid to rest in the family burying ground to await the Resurrection morn, when we will all be caught up in the cloud to meet the Lord. To know grand-pa was to like him best for he was a good neighbor and a kind friend always ready to lend a helping hand in any thing that was for a benefit.

God in his wisdom has recalled. The boon his love had given. And though the body moulders here.

The soul is safe in heaven. His grand-daughter. HATTIE MASENGILL.

DEATH OF RUFFIN BIGGS.

Little Boy Killed by Norfolk and Southern train at Wendell.

Wendell, May 6.—The saddest accident that ever occurred in Wendell happened late Saturday evening when the Norfolk Southern train ran down little Ruffin H. Biggs, the son of Deputy Sheriff R. H. Biggs, in Wendell. Mr. Biggs lives near the Norfolk and Southern railroad. His little son, his only child, was in the yard with his mother when Mr. Biggs came through the yard on his way to the barn lot to feed. He stopped, kissed his little boy and was talking to him when his wife's attention was called to the house. Mr. Biggs went on to the lot thinking his little son would go into the house. Mrs. Biggs thought the child was with its father. The little boy walked out to the railroad and was just attempting to cross the track when the train came speeding by, which struck the little boy and knocked him several feet before the engineer could stop. The blow was fatal as he breathed only two or three times after he was picked up by two gentlemen who got off at the rear end of the train, knowing some accident had happened by the danger signal and the sudden stop of the train. The funeral procession was the largest ever seen here and the greatest sympathy of all the people of Wendell is manifested for Mr. and Mrs. Biggs.

The Low Cost Paint

The final cost of the paint needed for your property is a great deal more important than the price of it. You may pay more than usual for paint and still have it cost you less than usual. But if you get the kind of paint for less money than usual the final cost is just that much less.

Devoe's Lead and Zinc PAINT

Always costs less in the end. Because it takes Fewer Gallons, Costs Less for the labor to put on and Gives Longer Service. So use DEVOE'S PURE PAINT and brighten up your home.
