

THE SMITHFIELD HERALD

Published Every Tuesday and Friday.

WATCH YOUR LABEL.

No receipt will be sent for subscription. Each subscriber is asked to watch the little yellow label on his paper.

NOTE.—All correspondents should remember that we pay no attention to communications without the writer's name.

TOWN AND COUNTY TOPICS.

Mr. H. B. Easom spent Sunday night in Dunn.

Master Thomas LeMay returned from Princeton Monday afternoon.

Mr. John Council was the guest of Mr. Ransom Sanders for a few days last week.

Mr. W. M. Ives spent Sunday in Raleigh with his daughter, Mrs. E. O. Edgerton.

Watch Friday's Herald for an announcement concerning the vaccination campaign against typhoid fever.

Miss Dora Coats has returned from Reidsville where she has been teaching in the Graded Schools for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Broadhurst moved into their home on Oakland Heights Monday, which has been remodeled.

Miss Marie Long has returned to her home in Morhead City, after visiting Miss Corinna Sanders for a few days.

Miss Louise Alford has returned from Red Springs where she spent the past session as a student at Flora McDonald College.

Messrs. J. D. Dickens, H. I. Ogburn, Roy Keene and Emmett Johnson went to Ayden Sunday, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. John Ives and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Wallace and children spent Sunday in the country with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Ives.

One of Smithfield's leading citizens announced yesterday that he was going to take one thousand dollars worth of Liberty Bonds.

Dr. Lea G. Broughton, the great orator and preacher, will deliver an address in Kenly under the auspices of the Red Cross Society.

Miss Vara Herring, District Secretary of the Raleigh District, Woman's Missionary Society, is the guest of Miss Mildred Sanders.

Mrs. T. L. Ginn, of Goldsboro, spent Monday night in the city with her mother, Mrs. W. S. Stevens. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Castex.

Miss Walter Patten, of Chapel Hill, is the guest of Mrs. A. M. Sanders while in the city attending the Council meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society.

Mr. C. J. Turnage, of Duke, is here today with his brother, Mr. S. C. Turnage, having been to Clayton to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Dodd.

Next Tuesday, June 5th, is America's great day. The strength of the Nation is in its citizenship and the enrollment next Tuesday will show the people's patriotism.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson, who lives near here, returned home Sunday from Fayetteville where she has been for a week's treatment in a hospital at that place.

The commencement of Flora McDonald College at Red Springs took place last week. Among the "sweet girl graduates" we note the name of Miss Gladys Kirby, of Kenly.

Dr. T. M. Jordan, of the State Health Department, of Raleigh, was here yesterday in consultation with the County Health Officer in regard to an anti-typhoid campaign in this county.

Last Friday a traveling man was in to see us and said he was going to buy four Liberty Bonds, one for each of his two children, one for himself and one for his wife.

Help your Country by buying a Liberty Bond.

Mr. Floyd C. Price, of Pine Level, was in town yesterday on business.

Mr. Z. Grady, of Selma, R. F. D. No. 3, was in town Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Holland and Mr. Isham Holland visited relatives in Beulah Sunday.

Governor Bickett will deliver the address at the Selma School close tomorrow (Wednesday) night.

Little Miss Ellen Borden Broadhurst spent the week-end with her grandparents in Goldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Massey arrived Sunday from a bridal trip to Baltimore and other northern points.

Every man may be able to help his country in some way. Now is a good time to help by buying a Liberty Bond.

Messrs. Stewart Turlington and Monroe Avera, of Coats, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bain Sunday.

Sergt. Chester L. Stephenson, of the Second Regiment, now at Goldsboro, spent yesterday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Stephenson.

We heard a man say yesterday that he was going to buy a Liberty Bond for each of his two children and one for himself.

Every man needs a little recreation along with his work and his patriotism. By coming to Smithfield during the Johnston County Community Chautauqua June 9-13, you will get the recreation and have your patriotism encouraged.

Among the graduates of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro last week was Miss Eula Gardner Parrish who received the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

On Saturday, June 9, at night, former Governor Shallenberger, of Nebraska, and a member of Congress, will be the leading speaker at the Johnston Community Chautauqua in Smithfield.

Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woodall a very informal reception was tendered the members of the Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Society of the North Carolina Conference, which is in session here.

Miss May Edla Smith, of Gatesville, Recording Secretary. Miss Sallie Lou McKinnon, of Maxton, who has been accepted as a missionary to China, and will soon leave for that faraway country.

Mr. S. C. Turnage, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Talton and Miss Maria Stephenson went to Clayton yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Dodd, a sister of Mr. Turnage, who died Sunday morning about four o'clock.

Mr. H. D. Ellington, of the firm of Ellington Bros., went to Petersburg, Va., Friday, returning Saturday night. Mr. Ellington went on a business trip to see the Atlantic Coast Realty Company and while there made a deal with them to sell real estate in Johnston County.

Missionary Meeting This Afternoon.

This afternoon at 3:30 the first section of the Raleigh District Conference of the Woman's Missionary Society will be held in the Methodist church here.

Services will open tonight at 8:15, at which Miss Lamb will make the principal address.

Wednesday morning the reports of the delegates will be read and other routine business of the Conference will be transacted.

Reception at Baptist Parsonage.

A most delightful informal reception was given Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Brinson at the Baptist Parsonage last Friday evening by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Union.

The home was tastefully decorated with cut flowers, Easter lilies being used in the parlor, while a profusion of pink roses made fragrant the air of the dining-room.

Quite a number of the people of the town called during the evening to meet Mr. and Mrs. Brinson and shower best wishes and congratulations, and to give to Mrs. Brinson a most hearty welcome into the social and religious circle of the town and community.

Mr. and Mrs. Brinson were married at Memphis, Tenn., on Tuesday, May 15, at the home of Mrs. De Haven, sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Brinson were married at Memphis, Tenn., on Tuesday, May 15, at the home of Mrs. De Haven, sister of the bride. They then went to New Orleans to attend the Southern Baptist Convention.

New Presbyterian Minister Coming.

Rev. Alden S. Anderson, the pastor-elect of the Presbyterian church, will begin his work in this field by preaching next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock at the Presbyterian church here and in the afternoon at four o'clock at Lassiter's school house.

Preaching at the Smithfield church, until further notice, the first, third and fourth Sunday mornings and the second Sunday night. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Conference Officers Meet.

The Conference officers of the Woman's Missionary Society, North Carolina Conference, are holding an executive meeting here at the Methodist church. The first session was held yesterday afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Lamb, of Fayetteville, President.

Mrs. N. H. D. Wilson, of Louisville, Second Vice-President.

Mrs. Harvey Boney, of Greenville, Superintendent of Mission Study and Publicity.

Mrs. Walter Patton, of Chapel Hill, Superintendent Social Service.

Mrs. May Edla Smith, of Gatesville, Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Sallie Lou McKinnon, of Maxton, who has been accepted as a missionary to China, and will soon leave for that faraway country.

Mrs. W. W. Peele, of Durham, Durham District.

Mrs. Fred R. Mintz, of Mount Olive, New Bern District.

Mrs. Wiley Brown, of Greenville, Washington District.

Mrs. J. C. Whedbee, of Burgaw, Wilmington District.

Good Sermon at Baptist Church.

Rev. H. F. Brinson who arrived Friday from New Orleans and Atlanta, preached at both services at the Baptist church Sunday. At the morning service he gave a short talk on the work of the Convention and then preached one of his very best sermons on the subject: "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult."

A feature of the morning service was the beautiful song by one of our own boys, Mr. Horace Easom, who has just returned from Wake Forest College.

At the evening service the minister delivered another good sermon on the subject: "The Loss of A Soul."

Your Automobile on Sunday.

Does your automobile take you to church on Sunday, or does it take you on a long trip where you have no opportunity to take part in any religious services? Every person owes it to himself, to his neighbors and to his Maker to attend divine service on Sundays and it is to be feared that automobiles are keeping many people away from church and away from where duty would call them.

Canners, Take Notice.

We want to urge every one who has spoken for tin cans to come for them on Saturday, June 2nd. We haven't enough cans to supply the demand until another order arrives and if you who have spoken for cans want them at once, please come on Saturday or it may be necessary for you to wait until the next order arrives.

THE SMITHFIELD MARKET.

Table listing market prices for various goods including Cotton, Wool, Fat Cattle, Eggs, Fat Cattle, dressed, Granulated Sugar, Corn, C. R. Sides, Feed oats, Fresh Pork, Hams, Lard, Timothy Hay, Cheese, Butter, Meal, Flour, Coffee, Cotton seed meal, Cotton seed hulls, Ship Stuff, Molasses Feed, Hides, Sweet potatoes, Stock peas, Black-eye peas, Beef Pulp, and Soup peas.

W. L. Woodall & Sons

Advertisement for W. L. Woodall & Sons, Smithfield's Shopping Center, featuring 'Pretty New Spring Goods Arriving Daily' and a list of items like New Voiles and Organdies, 27-Inch Lawns and Tissues, and 32-Inch Lawns and Voiles.

Advertisement for W. L. Woodall & Sons, Smithfield, N. C., with contact information: Shop With Us By Mail, Write For Samples, We Pay the Postage.

The Cash Store

Advertisement for The Cash Store, 'It Pays to Trade for Cash', listing various goods and their prices such as Good Dress Gingham, Better Dress Gingham, Fine Bleaching, etc.

Advertisement for SPIERS BROS., Smithfield, N. C.

Large advertisement for 'Automobiles For Sale At a Bargain' by WOODALL BROS., Smithfield, N. C., listing various car models like Country Club Overland, Seven Passenger Six Cylinder 40 Horse Power Overland, etc.

Advertisement for 'The First National Bank Will Take Applications For "Liberty Bonds"', featuring 'Liberty Bonds' and 'Are You Patriotic? Buy a Bond'.