Shoofly does not run on Sunday.
Train from Goldsboro, known as Capt. Collier's Train, is due to arrive each day except Sunday at 5:40 p. m. Due to leave for Goldsboro at 6:00 p. m.

Girls May Attend.

The authorities in charge of the Boys' Short Course to be held at A. & E. College August 21-24 have asked that all the girls who are interested in work of this kind to attend. The rooms are furnished free of cost and meals will be served at twenty-five cents per meal. Chaperones will be with the girls and they will be well taken care of. We hope that a number of girls in Johnston County will take advantage of the opportunity, as well as the boys and if it is impossible to spend the entire week to go for the day.

Life Insurance Paid.

Mr. N. L. Perkins, agent of the Aetna Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., has just delivered to Mrs. J. G. Greenlea a check for $2,300.99 payment on policy held in this company by the late J. G. Greenlea who was killed by a train near the Smithfield Cotton Mill on July 17th.

Motor Truck Company Coming.

The Smithfield boys who recently enlisted in the Motor Truck Company, spent Sunday here. They are all in uniform now and are a manly looking set of boys. They are getting down to their work and are getting familiar with their duties.

The entire company is coming to Smithfield Wednesday, arriving here sometime just before noon and will be here for two or three hours. There are about sixty men in the company. Of this number seven are from Smithfield, as follows: Daniel Jones, Joe Johnson, Bernice Jones, George White, Isham Holland, Luther Pierce and Hunter Woodall.

An Important Meeting.

The Boy Scouts will hold a meeting tonight at 8:15 in the office of Mr. T. S. Ragsdale.

Deposits Reach $329,463.27.

In our issue last Friday an error in the ad of The First National Bank of Smithfield occurred and was printed in the first few hundred papers. In the ad the figures showing the amount of deposits and the amount of loans were reversed. This was corrected in the last papers printed. The amount of deposits at the close of business on August 8, was $329,463.27. The ad appears again today.

Second Officers' Training Camp.

The list of the men selected for the Second Officers' Training Camp at Fort Oglethorpe was published in Sunday's dailies. We note the following Johnston County men in the list: Kenneth R. Ellington, Clayton. Hugh A. Page, Clayton. Joseph L. Cockerham, Selma. Douglas D. Ellington, Clayton. Jesse B. Adams, Four Oaks.

Special Sale at Clayton.

The well-known firm of Ashley Horne & Son, of Clayton, has planned a special summer sale to begin next week. See ad on page two.

TO ENTERTAIN SOLDIER BOYS.

When They Visit Smithfield Tomorrow Mr. W. M. Sanders Will Give Them a Barbecue Dinner in Sanders Hall.

Motor Truck Company, No. 1, recently organized in Raleigh with William Boylan Captain, will come to Smithfield tomorrow in a body. They are expected to arrive just before noon. After a little parade around town they will go to the court house where patriotic exercises will be held. Notice of this will be given by ringing the court house bell.

Following this the soldier boys will be given a barbecue dinner by Mr. W. M. Sanders in Sanders Hall.

Let the people turn out en masse to welcome and honor the young men who volunteered their services for the country. In the company are several Johnston County young men and seven who enlisted from Smithfield.

Superior Court In Session.

Johnston County Superior Court convened here yesterday morning with Judge Oliver H. Allen, of Kinston, presiding. Solicitor W. D. Siler, of Siler City, was on hand to represent the State.

The following grand jury was drawn and sworn in:

Claude Stephenson, foreman; Jesse A. Brown, G. W. Byrd, J. Clarence Hardee, J. S. Murphy, S. A. Boyett, Cullen Creech, R. H. Richardson, J. L. Godwin, D. S. Langston, A. L. Batten, Henry J. Daughtery, E. S. Lassiter, J. H. Kirkman, Jas. L. Hall, F. H. Parrish, H. T. Smith and Pias Hudson.

In charging the grand jury Judge Allen called attention to the fact that this was war times and that the farmers were busy and advised that every case which could be continued without hardship on any one be put off until another term.

James Raynor, a colored youth 18 years of age, was convicted of a secret assault and given a sentence of two years on the roads.

A number of other cases were taken up and disposed of.

The grand jury completed their labors yesterday and were excused.

Court convened this morning at 9:30 and will complete its work for the term today.

Parker-Staples.

The following invitations have been received:

Mr. and Mrs. Junius Clay Staples announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Katherine, to Mr. Roscoe Edward Parker, on Wednesday, the twenty-ninth of August, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Miss Staples taught school in Hickory last session. Mr. Parker resigned his position as secretary of the North Carolina Audubon Society to go to Fort Oglethorpe where he has recently received a commission. Mr. Parker is a native of Johnston County.
