Lieutenant Oliver Rand Here.

Smithfield had a short visit yesterday from one of its boys who holds a high place in the town's estimation—Lieutenant Oliver G. Rand, who has just returned from the Officers Training Camp at Fort Oglethorpe. Lieutenant Rand graduated at the State University in June, but was not there to get his diploma. He had heard the call of his country and had enlisted in the first officers training camp at Fort Oglethorpe and was there preparing himself to serve in the army of his country. He made good and is now an officer in the United States Army, having been commissioned Second Lieutenant of Infantry. He is ordered to report at Columbia, S. C., for duty on August 29th. Lieutenant Rand, who is a son of our former townsman, Mr. O. R. Rand, Jr., is one of Smithfield's brightest boys. He made good in the Turlington Graded School. At the University he stood in the front ranks and took many high honors. He has made good at Fort Oglethorpe and his friends are expecting to hear of his success as an officer in the army. He will spend a few days with his father near Garner before going to Columbia.

LOCAL BOARD NUMBER TWO.

Important Work of Women.

All ladies not members of the Smithfield Woman's Club and girls fourteen years and older, I appeal to you in this great national crisis to join the Red Cross Chapter, the permanent organization of which we are planning to perfect next Monday afternoon. Let us get together and each "do our bit," as best we can. Women all over the State are doing this work, so let our town be right in the procession and aid in this great work.

MRS. H. L. SKINNER,
President Smithfield Woman's Club.

READY FOR MAIL DELIVERY?

Smithfield People Will Have Their Mail Carried to Their Doors Beginning September First, Provided They Are Ready For It.

Postmaster A. M. Sanders informs us that the carriers have been appointed and that everything is getting in readiness for instituting village mail delivery in Smithfield on September first. All persons, outside the business houses, must provide some kind of receptacle for their mail. Any kind of box will do, or if the people prefer they may cut a hole through the door. But we won't get it if we are not ready.

Messrs. W. L. Ellis and J. W. Setzer have been appointed as carriers.

Help the Red Cross.

The work of the Red Cross at this time is too important to neglect. Be sure to attend Monday's meeting.
