Mr. Eric F. Massey returned last week to his home in Selma from a trip to Danville, Va., and Greenville, S. C.

While in Greenville Mr. Massey gave two voice recitations to the officers and soldiers who are in camp service. His recitals were given in the presence of large audiences.

Misses Ella Mial and Myrtle King, of Raleigh, spent the week-end with Miss Corinna Sanders, returning to Raleigh Monday morning.

Rev. J. M. Duncan, of Mount Olive, and Mr. J. H. Jones, of Chicago, Ill., were in the city yesterday on their way to Live Oak Baptist church where they will carry on a series of meetings this week.

The Woman's Club gave a very delightful informal reception to the teachers and patrons of the school Friday night in the Club rooms on North Second Street.

Meeting at Baptist Church.

A series of meetings began at the Baptist church Sunday morning with an excellent sermon by the pastor, Rev. H. F. Brinson, on "The Universal Call."

In the absence of Rev. John A. Wray, of Monroe, who was expected to arrive yesterday, Rev. G. W. Rollins, of Benson, preached last night, using as a text: "And the disciples were called Christians first at Antioch."

The singing was led by Mr. Furman Betts, of Raleigh, a man who is well known as a gospel singer.

Mr. Wray wired that he would not be able to get here until today. He is expected this afternoon in time for the afternoon service.

Services will be held twice daily—at 3:30 in the afternoon, and at 7:45 at night. The people of the town are given a cordial invitation to attend all these services.

A special invitation is given to all the singers of the several congregations to join the choir and help Mr. Betts to make the singing a strong feature of the meeting.

Red Cross Notes.

The Red Cross chapter will meet as usual, next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the Woman's Club rooms.

The Smithfield Chapter has now exactly 200 members, thus our charter is secure.

In addition to this large membership of the parent chapter, the Benson Branch has enrolled 32 members, the Four Oaks Branch has 44 members, and the Lincoln Branch numbers 14.

The Chapter and Branches are now busily making hospital garments and surgical dressings. An entire room is given up to a group of workers from the Chapter, who are making bandages and surgical dressings exclusively.

The officers of the Chapter were sorely grieved that some of the drafted men left Saturday for Camp Jackson, without receiving their comfort bags. Heretofore, Judge Brooks, of the Council of Defense, has told us when the boys were leaving; but he was out of town last week, and so the error occurred.

To the Members of W. M. S. of the M. E. Church.

This is the close of the third quarter and it is earnestly desired that each member send in all dues and pledge money by the 27th instant, that we may have a full report.

MRS. T. J. LASSITER, Pres. MRS. C. V. JOHNSON, Treas.

Primitive Baptist Association.

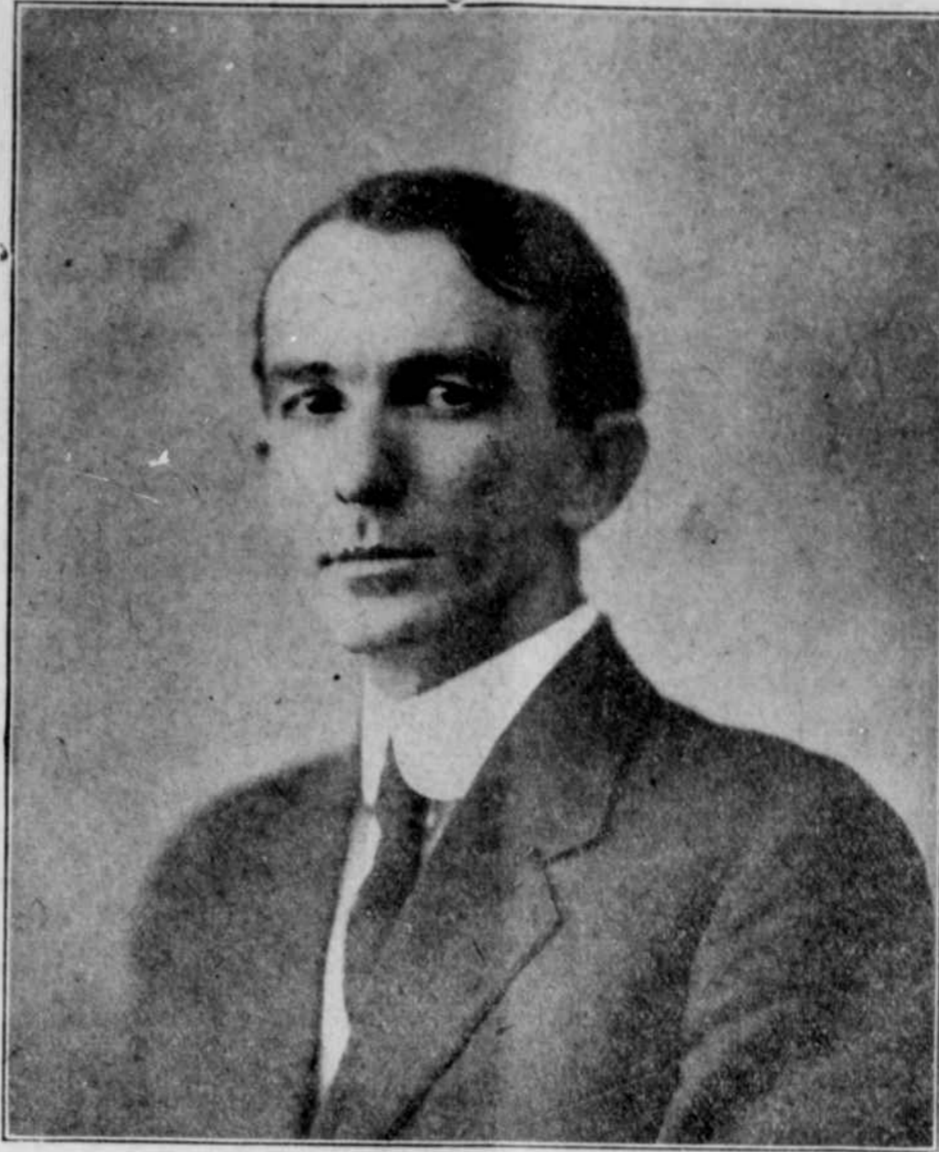

Next Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 28th, 29th and 30th, the Little River Primitive Baptist Association will convene with Old Union Church in Boon Hill township, about ten miles southeast of Smithfield.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The impression appears to have been made that because of my membership of the Local Exemption Board I was not in a position to attend to my practice.

Special Meetings at Baptist Church.

Conducted by Rev. John A. Wray of Monroe.

The Child's Education THE opening of a new school term naturally directs attention to education. WE take pride—and justly so—in our public school system; but the lessons of life are not all learned in the schoolroom. HOME influence plays a mighty part in shaping the child's character and destiny. THE thrift habit, once firmly instilled by the parent's example, stands throughout the years as a guide-post on the highway to success. First National Bank Smithfield, N. C.
