PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Miss Bettie Lee Sanders spent Wednesday in Raleigh.

Mrs. C. B. Williamson and Mrs. T. W. LeMay are attending the Richmond Fair this week.

Mrs. W. H. Byrd left this week to visit her daughter in Petersburg, Va., for several days.

Mrs. J. J. Young arrived from Clayton Thursday to visit her daughter, Mrs. S. T. Honeycutt.

Mr. H. B. Eason left Tuesday for Wake Forest College where he went to resume his college work.

Mr. W. M. Sanders attended the monthly meeting of the State Prison Board in Raleigh Wednesday.

The vegetarian is the only fellow who doesn't have a fit when he reads the quotations in the meat market.

Mrs. Lee E. Sanders and children left Tuesday for Richmond to visit Mrs. Sanders' mother for some time.

The attractions at the Johnston County Fair this year will far surpass anything ever seen in Smithfield.

Mr. William Wellons, who is in school at the University, is here for a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Wellons.

The Fair management is building this week a place for the aeroplane to start and alight. Come and see this wonderful human air-bird.

Mr. Gilbert White, of Durham, consulting engineer for the town of Smithfield, was here Wednesday looking after the progress of the street paving.

Mr. Leon Ellis, who has been here for several weeks as bookkeeper for the Robert G. Lassiter Company, has been transferred to the office at Oxford.

Messrs. Paul Johnson and O. E. Bain attended a District Meeting of the Woodmen of the World at Rosemary yesterday as delegates from Smithfield Camp No. 543.

Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Brinson and Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Lanier went to Raleigh yesterday afternoon to hear Dr. W. J. McGlothlin, of Louisville, lecture at Meredith College.

Work is moving right along on the street and side-walk paving in Smithfield and in a few more weeks this town will have completed some of the prettiest streets to be found in any town of the same size.

Mr. A. D. Murchison, of Fayetteville, manager Electrical Department of the Smithfield Garage and Machine Works, has moved his family here and is occupying the residence opposite the Garage Building, known as the Hood residence.

Hundreds of Johnston County people will have the opportunity to see something at the Johnston County Fair this year that they never saw before—a real aeroplane operated by an expert aviator. Come the first day and see the wonders he will perform.

It is estimated that a larger number of people will attend the County Fair on the first day, November 7th, this year than ever attended the Fair on the first day before. The parade by the school children and the arrival of the aeroplanes will be largely responsible for the unusual crowd.

Mr. D. H. Winslow, the "Good Roads Man," of Raleigh, passed through Smithfield Wednesday. He informs us that Mr. Victor Von Samming has been made District Maintenance Supervisor, with headquarters at Goldsboro. Mr. M. E. Miller has been put in charge of Division No. 6, with headquarters at Fayetteville.

Mrs. Julia Sasser, of Durham, is spending sometime here with relatives and friends.

Miss Elizabeth Kelly, of the State Department of Education, of Raleigh, is in town today.

Messrs. Ryal Woodall and Edward S. Abell, Jr., who are in school at the University, are at home for a few days.

Mrs. H. G. Hedrick has returned to her home in Durham, after spending several days here, the guest of Mrs. J. H. Abell.

The people of Smithfield, many of them, are much interested in "The Garden of Allah" which will be presented at the Academy of Music in Raleigh next Tuesday and Wednesday.

A covey of birds came to town late yesterday afternoon and were seen on Fourth street. Evidently they had been disturbed by some early hunters and fled to town so that they could be near the game warden for protection.

Mr. G. E. Thornton, of the Thornton Music House, returned Thursday morning from a business trip to Chicago, Ill., La Porte, Indiana, and Washington, D. C. While away he bought another big lot of pianos to supply the large and growing demand.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Jones, of Fair Bluff, are in town to-day on their way home from a visit to Mr. Jones' father, Elder J. A. T. Jones. Mr. Jones is in the drug business at Fair Bluff. He is a good friend of The Herald and appreciates his county paper very much.

Among the number of Smithfield people who attended the marriage of Miss Lizzie Winston to Mr. William Broadfoot Thursday evening were: Hon. and Mrs. F. H. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Green, Mr. W. M. Sanders, Misses Annie Irie Pou, Bettie Lee Sanders and Mr. Robert Wellons.

Mr. A. M. Johnson, County Farm Demonstrator, Prof. L. T. Royall, County Superintendent of Schools, Miss Nell Pickens, Home Demonstration Agent, Sheriff W. F. Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wellons, and Misses Ava Myatt and Emma Wellons attended the Pleasant Grove Fair yesterday.

The open season for bird hunting is not yet here and will not be, according to law, until November 1st. Meanwhile there are those who are not willing to wait for that day. Yesterday afternoon, a man who is very fond of hunting, said that the true sportsman always obeys the law. He was surprised that there are those who are violating the law by hunting this early in the season.

In this issue of The Herald is a communication from one of our former boys who has been living in Montana for the past two or three years, but is now at Camp Lewis, American Lake, Washington. We refer to Mr. E. P. Ruckman who was a telegraph operator here a few years ago. He has been called into the service of Uncle Sam and is in training in one of the biggest camps in the country. Read his letter.

The high prices of tobacco and cotton have brought hundreds of people to Smithfield to do their fall trading. The dry goods and clothing people here have been exceedingly busy for the past few weeks. They say that last week was the biggest business in their line of any week in the history of the town. With such a tobacco and cotton market people are coming to Smithfield who have not always been in the habit of coming here to trade. Our merchants keep up with the times and carry stocks of goods that would do credit to the larger places. The trading public know this and that is why they keep the merchants in Smithfield busy from morning until night waiting on them.

A SOLDIER BOY'S LIFE SAVED

You Farmers can do it. When you take your cotton to the gins operated by Mr. W. M. Sanders and Mr. J. W. Stephenson you will find a great big Box on which is the Red Cross sign. Throw in a armful or a bale-full! Even one armful may bring the bandage that will save the life.

MISS WINSTON HONOREE.

Mr. Ransom Sanders Gives Delightful Dance at the Municipal Building.

The fall social season opened most brilliantly Wednesday evening when Mr. W. Ransom Sanders gave an elaborate dance, in honor of Miss Lizzie Winston, of Selma, and Mr. W. G. Broadfoot, of Connelly Springs, whose marriage took place last night.

The hall of the municipal building was tastefully decorated for the occasion in pine and goldenrod, with the national colors lending a touch of brightness as well as of patriotism.

Punch and sandwiches were served between the dances.

Exquisite music was furnished by the Myer-Davis Orchestra of Washington, D. C.

Miss Winston, the lovely honoree, was charmingly gowned in yellow brocade satin.

Those dancing were: Misses Lizzie Winston, Selma; Lanie Hales, Wilson; Pat Walsh, Lexington; Sheppie Branch, Wilson; Mary Michaux, Goldsboro; Charlotte Howard, New Bern; Elizabeth Beck, Charlotte; Margaret Jennings, Fayetteville; Louise Gwathney, Richmond, Va.; Mary B. Griswold, Durham; Stella Etheridge, Selma; Julia Manning, Raleigh; Annie Bridgers, Raleigh; Eliza Leach, Raleigh; Katharine Grove, Wilson; Dorothy Whitehead, Wilson; Battie Boykin, Wilson; Harriet Tilghman, Wilson; Lucile Anderson, Wilson; Minerva Stockton, Wilson; Sarah Rawlings, Wilson; Blair Rawlings, Wilson; Mrs. Gladys Dance, Miss Sewain, Chicago, Ill.; Miss Edna Taylor, Miss Rutherford, Ione Abell, Annette Lawrence, Margaret Wellons, Frances Sanders, Mrs. Ball; Messrs. Ball, Robert Dalton, Charlotte; Frank Armfield, Statesville; William C. Broadfoot, Connelly Springs; M. C. Tuck, Selma; Ransom Sanders, Smithfield; Charles Marsh, Fayetteville; Robert Wellons, Smithfield; E. C. Smith, Raleigh; Rout Riddick, Raleigh; Cleo Yelverton, Raleigh; Jerome Shepard, Raleigh; Carver Smith, Raleigh; Walter Cook, Raleigh; Hubert Cooley, Raleigh; C. F. Young, A. T. Harper, Tom Gooding, Harvey M. Jette, Carl Sutton, H. B. Wallace, Lee Hayes, Jno. Boatwright, Will Fleming, Tite Harper, Robert Scott, R. E. Crawford, John Avera, John White Ives, Troy Myatt, William Wellons, Charles Spriggins, Edward Woodall, Edward Abell, Jr., Ryal Woodall, Richard Holt, Walter Parrish, Bruce Sanderford, Dixon Wallace, J. McRobert Boothe, Cornelius Ward.

The chaperones were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Honeycutt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. S. Abell, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lawrence, Mayor and Mrs. H. L. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Brooks, Mrs. J. S. Manning, of Raleigh; Mrs. John Broadfoot, of Black Mountain, mother of the groom-elect; Mrs. H. P. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Abell, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Ellington, Mrs. Mary Blandy, Mr. T. C. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Winston and others.

Entertain Bridal Party. Mr. Robert Wellons, of Smithfield, entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Lizzie Winston, of Selma, and her bridal party Tuesday night at the Country Club.

Those who were present were Mrs. John B. Broadfoot, Black Mountain; Miss Lanie Hales, of Wilson; Miss Margaret Jennings, of Fayetteville; Miss Mary Michaux, of Goldsboro; Miss Sheppie Branch, of Wilson; Miss Mary Bryan Griswold, of Durham; Miss Elizabeth Belk, of Hendersonville; Miss Charlotte Howard, of New Bern; Messrs. William G. Broadfoot, of Connelly Springs; Frank Armfield, of Statesville; E. C. Griffith, of Charlotte; R. P. Gibson, of Concord; Chas. W. Broadfoot, of Fayetteville; Robert Dalton, of Charlotte; Robert Wellons, of Smithfield; Ransom Sanders, of Smithfield.

This is one of the number of entertainments given Miss Winston, prior to her marriage Thursday, October 11, to Mr. William G. Broadfoot.—Yesterday's News and Observer.

The Smithfield Cotton Market.

It is interesting to note how the Smithfield cotton market gets ahead of the bigger towns. Last Tuesday, for instance, the fleecy staple was quoted in Raleigh at 26 3/4 cents a pound. At Norfolk it was 27 1/2; New York 27.29; Galveston, Texas, 26.75; Charleston, 26.75. On the Wilmington market the price was 26 3/4 cents. Receipts 1,063 bales. Price on same day last year 16 1/2 cents. Receipts 717 bales. The price at Smithfield on the same day was 27 to 27 1-2. When in doubt about what market to sell cotton on, always try Smithfield.

British Casualties. The British casualties as reported for the week ending Tuesday, total 17,505. Officers killed, 311; men, 2,965; wounded or missing, 14,229.

The Woman's Club Meets.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the club room. After the regular routine of business several important undertakings were discussed. In the first place, it was decided to devote a part of the November meeting to the study of Tuberculosis. A helpful and instructive program will be arranged, and it is hoped that much interest will be taken in the study.

Among the other things discussed was the District Meeting of the Sixth District of the North Carolina Woman's Clubs. Mrs. H. L. Skinner is chairman of the Sixth District and the Smithfield Club has invited this meeting to be held in Smithfield, on October 24th. The Sixth District is composed of twelve clubs and an interesting session may be looked for.

Another thing which should be of interest to the public at large which was undertaken was the raising of a fund to provide the North Carolina soldiers at Camp Jackson with books, magazines and newspapers. Boxes have been placed at Hood Bros. and at the D. H. Creech Drug Company and any contribution which any one may wish to give to this need will be promptly forwarded.

Getting Money for the Red Cross.

The Red Cross Chapter of Smithfield has adopted various methods of getting funds for their work. They have gone on the warehouse floors and appealed to the farmers who had tobacco to sell to give a handful or a stick of tobacco to the cause. Very few who had tobacco on the floors have turned a deaf ear to their appeal. In this manner they have raised more than $125. They have placed a big box at the gins of Mr. J. W. Stephenson and Mr. W. M. Sanders at Smithfield, and are asking those who bring cotton to these gins to help a little by putting cotton in the box as a donation to the Red Cross work. No doubt the appeal will reach many and much money will be realized in this way.

Tuesday morning Turlington Graded School responded to the call which the Governor made recently in "observing Fire Prevention Day." Appropriate exercises were carried out. Papers were read by Misses Margaret Pou and Carrie Brodie Sanders. Mr. John White Ives read the Governor's Proclamation. Mr. W. W. Cole made a short talk on Fire Prevention. Patriotic songs interspersed the program.

Great Demand for Fords.

Mr. Ransom Sanders, Ford representative, finds the demand for Ford cars greater than the supply at his command. He can easily sell three or four times as many as he can get. The unprecedented prices the farmers have been getting for tobacco and cotton have placed many of them on Easy street. They are paying off debts, buying all their needs and then having the ready cash to buy an automobile.
