 Cecil Stallings, 17 year old, died in Baltimore last week of meningitis. He was a son of Mr. Ed. Stallings, now a resident of Garner, N. C., but formerly of Princeton. This young man was brought here and buried in the Woodmen Cemetery, on the 8th instant.
 Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Stallings were here at the burial of their son Monday.
 Two Princeton boys are in the U. S. Navy—Logan Hastings, member of the Band on Battleship Maine; Caspian Holt, third-class electrician on Battleship Oklahoma. Both vessels are somewhere on the Atlantic Ocean.

Death of Mr. W. B. Godwin.

We have just heard of the death of Mr. W. B. Godwin which occurred at his home in Cleveland township on Thursday, September 27th. He was born September 27th, 1842, and was seventy-five years old the day he died. He had been in feeble health for some time with heart dropsy, but held up remarkably well and did not surrender to the disease entirely until a few days before his death. He was a faithful soldier through the Civil War. He had lived in Cleveland township for forty years. He was a member of Middle Creek Primitive Baptist church and had the respect and confidence of all who knew him. He was an influential man in his community. He was twice married. His first wife was Miss Bettie Stevens, who died leaving no children. His second marriage was to Miss Emma Jones who survives him with five children.
