

The Chautauqua Folks at Princeton.

Princeton, Oct. 15.—This town and community is to have a three-days Chautauqua—October 18, 19, and 20. Cap's Orchestra will appear the first day. The really great musicians are not city-born or city-bred. They come from the hills and the valleys of the country-side—from farms and villages. This is notably true in Europe and mainly true in America. The personnel of Cap's Orchestra is composed of many fellows who, through long association professionally, faultlessly blend their genius as they do their personalities. Theirs is the music of the plain people artistically classic, yet brought forth in a way to delight the ear to which the high sounding terms of music are but empty phrases. Helen B. Paulsen, Lecturer, Educator, had her technical training at Columbia University, New York. She has been a teacher and Kindergartener. Lecture Subject, in the afternoon, "Thumbs." Every town is made up of all kinds of people: Some are always light-hearted, happy and healthy; some are always sad, moody and dyspeptic, with no apparent reason for the difference. Neighborly folks; and those who never visit. Some always good; some just naturally mean. Some open-hearted and public-spirited, some always looking for something for nothing.

Evening Lecture Subjects.
"The Court of Last Resort"—A Community Awakener.

"Find Your Key"—Methods to use in teaching people right living.

There is no lack of action when Mrs. Paulsen lectures. Her style is direct and energetic. Her ability as a speaker is enhanced by her intense belief in what she is saying. Her lectures are delivered in a rapid-fire manner, and the interest and enthusiasm of her audiences testify to her ability to make life lessons interesting.

Chautauqua Enthusiasm.

This charming group of girls comes on the second day and brings to the platform a unique program with many interesting features. The (Soprano, Miss Edmonia Petty, bids fair to make a distinct place for herself in the Chautauqua—she sings, reads, plays the banjo and last but not least, the Irish harp. With Miss Wenger, the Mezzo Soprano and pianist, she will present a group of old Irish folk songs while the entire Company will participate in the old country games and quaint dances (these to be given only upon request.)

Dr. Hutchins has a real message for the work. His virile lectures are drawn from the rich varied experience of one who has touched life at all points, and who has the ability and power to make others see and feel what he has seen and felt.

The Gypsy Marionettes and Lloyd H. Taylor will appear on this day. Appearing in conjunction with each other, the Gypsy Marionettes and Mr. Taylor, furnish delightful programs. Misses Margaret Bard, Rebecca Brown, Theodosia Dwiggin and Mary Hunt are the Gypsy Girls and with them Mr. Taylor. Their program is particularly unique. Costume, personality, charm and artistic ability all contribute to their successful ensemble.

The Closing Out Sale.

The largest crowds ever witnessed at a special sale in this section of the State was witnessed Saturday at the great closing out sale at R. Lewis' old stand, now occupied by Abdalla.

BARFIELD BROS., the South's famous Special Sales Conductors and Auctioneers, have in charge this $15,000.00 consignee stock. This stock consists of the season's most desirable and fashionable merchandise.
