When he gets through the town will have a festive appearance and take on the spirit of the occasion. Everybody is getting ready for the Fair which promises to be the best we have yet held. If you, dear reader, are not planning to be here, change your mind and get ready to come to the greatest Fair ever held in the County.

Three Cents to Mail a Letter.

Beginning today the Government requires three cents on every letter mailed which required two cents heretofore. All postal cards will require two cents instead of one cent. There are some exceptions to the general rule. Drop letters, those for people at the same post office at which they are mailed, can be mailed for two cents. All letters mailed in Smithfield for people who get their mail at Smithfield and all letters for people living on rural routes one and two, from this post office, can be mailed for two cents.

If you put only a two cent stamp on your letter and drop it in the mail box it may wait awhile before it is mailed. We are now going back to the same postage we paid thirty-six years ago. Germany is responsible for this and it is our duty to lick her and do it quick.

FOR CHRYSANTHEMUMS—SEE Mrs. C. V. Johnson—prices right.

MAD DOG BITES TWO CHILDREN.

Dog Killed and Head Taken to Raleigh Where An Examination Shows a Genuine Case of Hydrophobia.

We regret to learn that a mad dog has been in our midst. One day this week a dog belonging to Mr. J. C. Stancil went mad and bit two of his children, Norwood, age nine, and Joseph, age six. The dog was killed and his head taken to Raleigh where it was examined by Dr. Shore. The examination disclosed a case of hydrophobia.

Mr. Stancil took his children to Raleigh to have the Pasteur treatment given them, but because the serum was out he brought the children home and will carry them back today if the serum is obtainable.

Mr. Stancil asks us to state that the people of the town and community should be very careful in looking after their dogs at this time. His dog is known to have been with other dogs just before he was killed and no one knows how many were bitten by him while he was mad.

To the Patrons of the Turlington Graded School.

The Trustees of the Turlington Graded School have decided to give only one day holiday for the Johnston County Fair this year. This day is Wednesday, and on that day the school wishes every pupil to attend the Fair. Special rates are offered to all pupils who go to the Fair in line with their teacher. On Thursday and Friday, by giving no noon recess, we hope to get all of the regular school work through by one or one-thirty o'clock. This will enable every pupil who has his work up to attend the Fair every day if he wishes.

The school is making a very earnest effort to see that every day of its term is profitably spent. It costs the citizens of the town about $60.00 a day to operate the school, and a day of poor attendance greatly demoralizes the organization and hinders the regular work. Therefore, when your child is out of school he is losing something himself and at the same time is delaying the progress of his classmates.

When the patrons of the school have considered the fact that it is possible for their children to see practically all of the Fair and at the same time be faithful in the performance of their school duties, we sincerely hope and believe that they will cooperate with us in our efforts to have a full attendance at school during Fair Week as well as all the time. See to it that your child does not shirk his school duties and thereby lose himself and cause his neighbor to lose.

H. B. MARROW.

SELMA'S NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Selma, Nov. 1.—Miss Anne Noble attended the Halloween party at Meredith College last night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Wiggs went to Wayne County Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. Wiggs' nephew.

Dr. I. W. Mayerberg, who is in the service of the government in the base hospital at Augusta, Ga., spent the week-end here with his family. Dr. Mayerberg is looking fine and says that he is enjoying the work.

Among those who attended the sessions of the Primitive Baptist Association at Beulah church last week, we note Mayor and Mrs. J. P. Temple, Mrs. G. H. Morgan, and Mrs. J. N. Wiggs. Quite a number of others attended on different days, and on Sunday quite a large crowd attended.

Elder Isaac Jones preached to a large congregation at the Primitive Baptist church here Sunday night. He was enroute home from the association at Beulah.

Mrs. G. H. Morgan spent Tuesday with relatives in Smithfield, returning in the afternoon.

Mrs. Alf Jones, of Raleigh, is visiting Mrs. R. J. Noble this week. Mrs. Jones was Miss Lizzie Cook before her marriage, and her father was of the family of Cook and Wiggins. Mrs. Jones was one of Selma's most popular young ladies years ago. This is her first trip back here since she left thirty-nine years ago, and she says that in this time the town has grown so that she would not have known it.

Mr. John W. Fitzgerald, of Dunn, was before U. S. Commissioner, R. J. Noble, Wednesday for failure to register for the draft in June. He did not know his exact age, as his family records had been lost, but upon reference to the record of births in Dr. Noble's office it was found that he was born July 19th, 1884, and he was discharged.

Mr. L. D. Debnam is in Richmond buying a car of mules and horses which will arrive the latter part of this week.

Messrs. M. R. Wall, Geo. Evans, J. L. Cockham, and W. C. P. Bethel went to Wilson Monday night to the Barnum & Bailey Shows.

A coal and sugar panic in Selma, is the town talk these days. Local coal dealers are unable to get coal for domestic purposes, and we understand that the manufacturing enterprises are being handicapped by a shortage of coal. Sugar: Well, there is none in town. Bitter coffee and teas, and sugarless pies, will be the order for awhile at least, and dealers do not know when a supply can be had.

"Idlement Concert," will be the second entertainment of the Lyceum attractions being given in Selma during this season. This entertainment will be held in auditorium of the Graded School building Monday night, November 5th, and promises to be a real attractive entertainment.

The Musical Entertainment given in the City Auditorium last night, for the purpose of raising funds for a Thanksgiving dinner for the soldier boys from Selma, was a decided success. It consisted of vocal and instrumental solos. It was under the management of Mr. Eric Massey, and quite a large crowd was in attendance. Those taking part were the Teacher of Expression from Peace Institute, Miss Wolfe of the Atlantic Christian College at Wilson, Mr. Kenney, Violinist, of Selma, Mrs. Charles G. Gulley, of Clayton, and Miss Folger, of Selma.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Selma Charge will be held in the M. E. Church here, Friday evening at 2:00 o'clock. Presiding Elder J. E. Underwood, of Raleigh, will preside. The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Johnston District will be held at the same place at 3:00 o'clock. Several out-of-town laymen will be present to attend these meetings.

Several of the ladies of town are attending the sessions of the State Red Cross which will be in session in Raleigh today and tomorrow.

Rev. C. K. Proctor has resigned as President of the Local Red Cross chapter, and Mr. C. W. Stallings has been elected to succeed him. The ladies are entering into the work enthusiastically. Rooms have been opened at the Graded School building and the chapter is now permanently established in comfortable quarters.

Among those attending the house party given by Mr. M. C. Winston and Mr. and Mrs. Avora Winston, we note the following: Misses Katie Graham and Sara Fenner, of Raleigh; Elizabeth and Lucile Bolk, of Charlotte; Katherine Hinton, of Four Oaks; Mead Shamburger, of Wilson; Mary Shaw and Florence Martin, of Greenville, and Sophronia Cooper, of Wilson.

AT THE CAPITAL OF BOON HILL.

Princeton, Oct. 31.—Miss Eunice Peele is visiting in town this week. Mrs. Walter V. Woodard has returned home, after spending a few days with her parents at Gibsonville. Through an oversight, Miss Sallie Wright's name was omitted in the list of the teachers of the Graded School in last week's Herald. Miss Sallie is an excellent young lady and a model teacher.

Miss Lucile Strickland and Miss Fannie Covington, of Falcon, are visiting Miss Helen Grantham.

Miss Rachel Edwards was married to Mr. E. A. Arment, of Goldsboro, last Sunday evening, the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. A. Jones, pastor of the Methodist church.

An immense number of people from this section attended the Association at Old Beulah last Sunday. There was about twenty-five automobiles which passed over Baker's Mill bridge Sunday evening between three and four o'clock, and it was almost the same until nearly night. Some drivers were running at the rate of thirty to fifty miles per hour on the road between Princeton and Little River. One automobile passed with four young men in it, and they must have been going at something like a mile a minute clip. One of them lost his cap, which was a very nice one. They did not stop or return after the cap. This car was going north towards Kenly.
