PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Miss Clara Young visited her sister in Dunn last Sunday.

Remember that next Wednesday is "Dollar Day" in Smithfield.

Miss Erma Stevens has returned from a visit to friends in Roxboro.

Mr. J. H. Wiggs spent Tuesday in Raleigh attending the Federal Court.

Mr. L. H. House, of Richmond, Va., spent a few days in the city this week.

Mr. N. L. Perkins spent a few days in Barnwell, S. C., this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Woodall and Mrs. E. O. Aycock spent Wednesday in Raleigh.

Mrs. C. E. Bingham and son, James, are visiting Mrs. Bingham's sister, Mrs. E. O. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Broadhurst, Mesdames Swift and Zachary spent Tuesday in Raleigh.

Mr. L. Z. Woodard, of Kenly, and Mr. John T. Revell, from near Kenly, were here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graves, Jr., spent a day or two in Benson this week with relatives.

Mrs. G. W. Thomas, of Roxboro, is spending a short while here with Miss Erma Stevens.

Mrs. A. S. Johnson and children returned this week from a short visit to her mother at Sanford.

Mrs. Lee Sanders and Mrs. Henry Graves went to Raleigh today to witness the "Birth of the Nation."

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hunter, of Aynor, S. C., passed through the city Wednesday on their way to Stewart, Va.

Thursday of next week is Thanksgiving Day, and as usual most of the business houses of Smithfield will be closed.

Miss Augusta Evans, of Greensboro, is spending sometime here, the guest of her brother, Mr. T. C. Evans, on Hancock Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade H. Royal and Mrs. J. H. Rose and Mrs. W. D. Boon, of Benson, were here Wednesday. The Ladies came to meet with the Smithfield Red Cross Chapter.

The Selma merchants will observe December 10th to 15th as "Pay-Up-Week." They will offer special inducements to all customers who settle their bills during this week.

People who have Thanksgiving turkeys for sale this year are getting nice prices for them. In many places they are selling for 25 cents per pound, while in larger towns and cities they are bringing 30 cents and more.

We are asked to state that Elder J. Ruffin Johnson will preach at T Chapel Free-Will Baptist church Saturday night before and the first Sunday in December. He has accepted the pastoral charge of this church for next year.

Mr. G. T. Boyett, who lives near Princeton, was in town yesterday and renewed his subscription for another year. He informs us that the farmers in his section are planning to plant quite a lot of wheat. Some have planted and others will plant next week.

Mrs. O. P. Dickerson was called to Greensboro Tuesday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. S. N. Melvin, who died there Tuesday morning. Mrs. Dickerson and her son, Carl Dickerson, who is now in training at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., will return to Smithfield Saturday. Mr. Fitz Dickerson, who has a position at Fremont, also went to Greensboro to attend the funeral of his grandmother.

MR. POU TO SPEAK AT BENSON.

He Will Talk on the War Situation And Red Cross Work Next Sunday.

Congressman E. W. Pou has accepted an invitation to deliver an address on the war situation and the Red Cross at the Benson School Auditorium next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. On account of his position as Chairman of the Rules Committee of the House, he has been brought in close touch with many of the great problems of the war. He is prepared to tell the people many things about which they have seen very little in the public prints. As every one knows, Mr. Pou is a very fine speaker and when he comes to talk on the War Situation he grows eloquent. Everybody in Benson and community should hear him. They will be able to get a clearer conception of our position in the great war and learn some of the needs which are before us at this time. Let a great crowd be present to hear him.

The Red Cross workers of Smithfield are specially invited to attend the speaking and are requested to wear their arm bands. It is expected that a large attendance will be present from Smithfield.

Japanese Bazaar in Smithfield.

A Japanese Bazaar will be conducted by the young ladies of the Baptist church in the old theatre building next to the City Cafe, Saturday, November 24, beginning at 12 o'clock. Beautiful Japanese pictures and an assortment of real Japanese articles will be for sale. A chance to buy your Christmas gifts.

Notice to Correspondents.

On account of the lateness of the mails we shall have to ask our correspondents to send in their items a little sooner. Articles mailed on Thursday often do not reach us until Friday morning when too late for that issue. No news item or advertisement will be accepted on Tuesday and Friday mornings for publication on those days. Correspondents and advertisers will please take notice.

Preachers Exchange Pulpits.

Rev. J. E. Lanier and Rev. R. M. Von Miller will exchange pulpits and each will fill the other's appointments the first Sunday and Saturday before in December.

Lewis Brown, one of the oldest colored men in Smithfield died Tuesday of this week. He was father of Bud Brown the barber.

Mr. J. G. Flowers, of the Kenly section, was in town yesterday and gave us a call. He reports that the people in his section are increasing their acreage in wheat almost 100 per cent. This is a fine plan and if the farmers all over Johnston County will do likewise they will find they have made a paying investment.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the big pouping they gave us a few evenings ago. We cannot find words to express our gratitude, but amid our afflictions and helplessness and poverty God's children bring the light of the Christ-like spirit that is in them and turn darkness and sorrow into sunshine and joy. What a comfort to know that for every heartache there is somewhere in the universe a heaven-inspired soul to comfort those cast down. God bless each of you.

MR. and MRS. A. B. SASSER, Smithfield, N. C., Nov 20th.

Money Growing Tobacco.

Many Johnston County farmers have made fine records in growing tobacco. J. G. Flowers, who lives near Kenly, had four acres in tobacco this year and realized $1,470.60 clear check. This is an average of $367.65 per acre.

Compulsory Attendance.

The Superintendent of the Smithfield schools and the principal of the colored school have decided that the compulsory attendance period for the colored school shall go into effect next Monday, the 26th. The parents should see that all children between the ages of 8 and 14 are in school before the next week closes. This applies to the colored school of Smithfield.

The Turlington Graded school will put the compulsory attendance period into effect on Wednesday, January 2, 1918.

THE NEWS IN CLAYTON.

Clayton, N. C., Nov. 21.—Mrs. Julian Starling, of Goldsboro, is visiting her mother.

Miss Blanche Ellis left Tuesday for Littleton, where she will enter college. Misses Cleo Ellis and Thelma Yelverton, who are in school at Meredith, spent the week-end here with parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Austin and children, of Four Oaks, spent last Sunday here.

Miss Zenobia Bagwell, of Raleigh, spent the week-end here with friends. Miss Pearl Harris spent last Sunday in Durham.

Mr. Rudolph Barnes, a member of Coast Artillery, stationed at Fort Caswell, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barnes. Miss Lina White, of Concord, visited relatives here this week.

Mr. Lumas Hales, a member of Aivation Corps, stationed at Long Island, N. Y., spent several days this week with his sister, Mrs. C. B. Turley. He returned today to his post of duty. Mr. Carl Parrish, of Wilson's Mills, was in town Sunday.

Mr. Doane Spence, of Greenville, S. C., arrived Sunday to attend his father's funeral. He will spend all this week here.

Mr. Westrope and Miss Christine Gower went to Raleigh Sunday to render piano and violin music at First Baptist church that night.

Mrs. J. D. Gully visited in Selma and Smithfield a few days this week. Mrs. Joe Pittman and children, of Oxford, are spending this week here with her sister, Mrs. C. B. Turley.

Mr. J. D. Smith is attending Federal Court at Raleigh this week.

Mr. Paul C. Duncan returned from a visit to Princeton today.

Mr. J. W. Talton, of Coats, was here Sunday visiting his son, Mr. J. T. Talton.

Mr. N. B. Hales, of Pine Level, was here Sunday visiting relatives.

Mr. C. R. Boone, of Raleigh, was in town Sunday.

Messrs Jesse Austin and Howard Gully returned Monday night from Baltimore where they spent the past week.

Lieut. Bennett Nooe, of Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C., spent Sunday night and Monday here with his family. He says our soldiers are faring fine down there.

"Speeding up" business is not so much a matter of doing things hurriedly as of doing them in order.

RED CROSS NOTES.

The linotype made a slight error in our notice of Red Cross knitting in Tuesday's paper, which entirely reversed the original meaning. The sentence should have been, "The Chapter will be glad to furnish wool free of cost to all wishing to knit for the Red Cross." The knitters will not be asked to bear any expense at all, except the price of the needles, which is very small.

Moving Back to the Farm.

Mr. M. L. Stencil and family moved from Smithfield yesterday to their farm near McCullers in Wake County. They have been residents of Smithfield for several years and have many friends here who will miss them. Mr. Stencil had been with The Herald for the past four years as linotype operator and has proven himself to be a very efficient and dependable man. We shall greatly miss him in our print-shop, but wish for him much success as he goes to the farm.

Music is the manifestation of the inner essential nature of all that is. —Beethoven.
