Published Every Tuesday and Friday.

WATCH YOUR LABEL.

No receipt will be sent for subscription. Each subscriber is asked to watch the little yellow label on his paper. If the label is not changed within three weeks after remittance is made, the subscriber should notify us. Watch your label.

NOTE.—All correspondents should remember that we pay no attention to communications without the writer's name. If you write every day be sure to enclose your name each time. Address all matters for publication to The Smithfield Herald, Smithfield, N. C.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Remember the Red Cross Wednesday.

Mr. Wm. D. Avera went to Raleigh yesterday afternoon.

Misses Stella Rutherford and Berta Coxie spent Saturday in Raleigh.

Mr. C. Davis leaves tonight for the northern markets to buy goods.

Mr. H. B. Easom, of Wake Forest, was here yesterday with the home folks.

Supt. H. B. Marrow, of the Smithfield Graded Schools, spent Saturday and Sunday in Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Abell and little son, Guy, returned Saturday from a visit to relatives in Richmond, Va.

Mr. Arthur Edwards, Route No. 3, was in to see us Saturday and renewed his subscription, for another year.

Miss Flora Taylor, of Goldsboro, spent the week-end here with her sister, Miss Edna Taylor, a member of the Graded School faculty.

The Red Cross meeting in Smithfield Wednesday is very important. Besides the Christmas packages, a box of hospital supplies will be packed for France.

Congressman E. W. Pou, Mrs. Pou and Misses Annie Irie and Margaret Pou and Mr. Albert M. Noble went to Benson Sunday afternoon, where Mr. Pou delivered an able address on the war situation and the Red Cross.

Mr. Walter Grantham leaves today to be the best man at the marriage of his brother, Mr. Irving Grantham, to Miss Janie McBryde, of Raeford, which takes place tomorrow. Mr. Grantham is in the drug business at Lumberton.

We regret to learn that Norman Parrish, a young man who went from Wilson's Mills township to Camp Jackson a few weeks ago, is very sick. He had the measles and complications followed. His condition is regarded as serious.

Mr. Ira W. Medlin, who has been engaged in the Y. M. C. A. Army work at Jackson and Vicksburg, Miss., for several weeks, was at home Saturday for a short while. He spent part of the two weeks canvassing northern Mississippi in the interest of the work.

Sergeant Carl Dickerson returned to Camp Sevier at Greenville, S. C., yesterday after spending a few days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Dickerson. He is member of Co. C, 119th Infantry, and saw service on the Mexican border last year. He says that the members of his company have escaped any serious sickness and that there has been no death in the company since they went to border last year.

To Attend Teachers Assembly.

Supt. L. T. Royall left yesterday to attend the meeting of the Teachers Assembly in Charlotte. He went by way of Danville to spend a day with his brother who is pastor of one of the Baptist churches of that place.

Lieut. Pou Coming Home.

We learn that his parents, Congressman and Mrs. E. W. Pou, are expecting Lieut. Edwin Smith Pou, an aviator in the United States Army at Mount Clemens, Mich., to spend Thanksgiving here with them.

Cotton Ginned in Johnston.

Mr. D. M. Hall, of Clayton, special agent of the Department of Agriculture, reports as follows on the cotton ginned in Johnston: "There were 23,449 bales of cotton ginned in Johnston County from the crop of 1917 prior to November 14, as compared with 27,110 bales ginned to November 14, 1916."

Special Thanksgiving Service.

A special Thanksgiving service will be held Thursday morning at eleven o'clock in the Smithfield Presbyterian church, with sermon by the pastor, Rev. A. S. Anderson. At this service a Thanksgiving offering will be made for the Presbyterian Orphanage at Barium Springs. The public is given a cordial invitation to attend.

More Men to Go Friday.

Johnston County Exemption Board, No. 1, will send five more white men to Camp Jackson Friday. These will make the full quota of white men from this district. The remainder of the quota for the first call will be filled with colored men.

Many Articles Crowded Out.

The Herald is going to reach many of its subscribers a little late this week because of unavoidable circumstances. Several important articles came in our mail this morning which will have to wait for Friday's paper. We can set only so much type in a given period of time. If we could have these articles all along we should be able to get them in, but we can do only so much on Tuesday and Friday mornings, therefore they are left over until the next issue. A suggestion: Mail your articles earlier.

Arm Broke Cranking a Car.

Sunday Mr. D. T. Stephenson's sons, Howard, Raymond and Clarence, went to visit one of their relatives out twelve miles in the country. Yesterday morning they were ready to start back home and Raymond, the thirteen-year old boy of Mr. Stephenson, tried to crank the car. It kicked back and Raymond had the misfortune to get both bones of his right arm broken just above the wrist. Howard, the older boy, put the hurt boy in the car and drove rapidly to Smithfield where the bones were set by a physician. We regret to learn of the boy's accident.

Lynwood Peterson, son of Mr. Junius Peterson, happened to the misfortune to get his arm broken while trying to crank a car Friday afternoon. Both these boys were in the fifth grade at school. Both are getting along as well as could be expected.

Judge F. H. Brooks to Speak.

Judge F. H. Brooks, of Smithfield, will speak at Sardis Baptist church, Sunday afternoon, December 2, at three o'clock. The people of the community are given a cordial invitation to hear him.

White Oak Gives $100.

Mr. N. E. Edgerton, Chairman of the Y. M. C. A. Committee, phoned us this morning that he had just received a check for one hundred dollars from White Oak Baptist church for the Y. M. C. A. army work. This brings Johnston's contribution to $4,100.

Good Tenant Farming.

Mr. Joseph E. Lassiter, one of the best farmers of the county, was here yesterday for a few hours. He told us about the crop of Mr. F. H. Reardon who lives on his place. Mr. Reardon had this year four and a half acres in tobacco and six acres in cotton, and has sold $1,690 worth of cotton and tobacco. The last bale of cotton with the seed brought $202.02. In addition to his cotton and tobacco Mr. Reardon made plenty of corn and other supplies.

RED CROSS NOTES.

The Red Cross Chapter at Smithfield has sent seven knitted helmets to the seven Smithfield boys in the North Carolina Motor Truck Company at Camp Sevier.

The Red Cross Chapter will meet Wednesday at two P. M. A large attendance is earnestly desired, as besides the Christmas packages, a box will be packed with hospital supplies for France.

The Christmas packages for the men in the camps will be made next Wednesday. On that day seventy of these will be sent off. Any one desiring to contribute may bring candies, nuts, tobacco in any form, games or new magazines to the club rooms.

The Smithfield Chapter will gladly furnish wool for the knitting of the sweaters, entirely free of cost, and will give all necessary instructions. Mrs. E. W. Pou has charge of the knitting and will furnish materials, printed directions and individual advice. Any one may make an appointment with Mrs. Pou, at her home, by phoning her in advance.

The Smithfield Chapter has secured an urgent request from the wife of an officer in Camp Jackson, at Columbia, S. C., that we send as soon as possible 70 sweaters for the 70 drafted men from Johnston County now in that Camp. This Chapter is doing its utmost to meet the request, but the work is unexpected and the garments should be sent very soon for delay is dangerous. Already a number of cases of pneumonia have resulted fatally in some of the Camps. We trust that the other Red Cross Chapters in the County, as well as persons who are not Red Cross members, will come to our help.

THE SELMA MERCHANTS WILL observe December 10th to the 15th as "Pay-Up-Week." They will offer special inducements to all customers who settle their bills during this week.
