Monday afternoon, some of the music class of Miss Owen and the pupils of Miss Spurgeon's room gave a most enjoyable entertainment at the Graded School Auditorium. A short Thanksgiving play was a feature of the program enjoyed by all. The programs with covers made by Miss Spurgeon's pupils, were especially attractive.

Several of the lady teachers in the Turlington Graded School are spending the Thanksgiving holidays out of town, as follows: Miss McEachern at Wilmington; Miss Edna Taylor at Goldsboro; Miss Helen Sheppard at Chadbourne; Miss Lucie Spears at Lillington; Miss Pattie Spurgeon at Hillsboro; Misses Roberta Cox and Stella Rutherford at Red Springs; Miss Grace Owen at her home in Sampson County.

Dr. Thel Hooks, who has been in the second officers training camp at Fort Oglethorpe for the past three months, came home yesterday morning. He won his commission in the service and has been assigned to Camp Sevier at Greenville, S. C., as a First Lieutenant in the Medical Corps. He left last night for his new post of duty.

Smithfield's Dollar Day here Wednesday was a great success. Some of our merchants say that it was one of the best days they have ever had. A representative of the firm of W. L. Woodall & Sons told The Herald man that they had the biggest cash sales of any day in the history of their business. Other merchants did a splendid business. Not only did those who had special advertising for the day reap a good harvest, but those who did not advertise at all had a fine trade. They reaped the harvest of the seed sowing of others. It pays to advertise, and especially so if you are able to offer some good bargains. The folks are

In Honor of Mrs. Tomlinson.

Last Tuesday afternoon from three thirty until five thirty, Mrs. F. H. Brooks and Mrs. C. I. Pierce were at home in honor of their sister, Mrs. R. L. Tomlinson, a bride of the month.

The home of Mrs. Brooks tasteful in its usual appointments, was especially attractive for the occasion. Chrysanthemums were used in every room. Receiving at the front door was Miss Annie Ibrie Pou. In the parlor, Mrs. E. S. Abell introduced the guests to the receiving line, composed of Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Tomlinson and Mrs. Pierce.

At the drawing room door Mrs. N. M. Lawrence and Mrs. L. T. Royall greeted the guests. In this room, Misses Ava and Irene Myatt and Ione Abell served delicious refreshments in keeping, however, with Mr. Hoover's conservation plan. In the gift room, Mrs. H. G. Gray and Mrs. J. W. Keene received. The lovely display of silver, cut glass and other gifts evidenced the esteem in which the bride and groom are held.

A large number of ladies called during the afternoon and the occasion will be remembered as one of the most pleasant of the season.

Fire in Home of Mr. J. A. Wellons.

Last Saturday about one o'clock the home of Mr. James A. Wellons, who lives in Brooklyn, was discovered to be on fire. The fire alarm was turned in and the people rushed to the scene to lend their assistance. The fire company was soon there and with quick work they subdued the flames and put out the fire. However, considerable damage to the roof over two or three rooms was done. The building was flooded with water and much damage was done in this way. The furniture was most all removed and suffered little damage.
