

THE NEWS IN PRINCETON.

Princeton, Nov. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Raiford, from Durham, are visiting friends and relatives in town. The many relatives and friends of Mrs. Frank Wells will regret to learn that she is confined at her home very sick, but not considered dangerously ill at present.

Miss Eveyln Humble, of Elon College, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Will Eason.

Caspian S. Holt, from the battleship Oklahoma, is at home on a short furlough visiting his parents and friends.

Miss Lucinda Edwards was bitten by a dog about three weeks ago. The wound had almost healed, and she had not suffered much from its effects until one day last week, she was taken seriously, and was a raving maniac until her death Saturday. She was buried Sunday near Princeton. Another proof why the dogs should be killed out.

Since the good road was completed from Princeton to Beulah township a great many farmers from the north side of Johnston come to town to trade, and dozens of wagons have hauled their cotton here to our eight-minute gin—men who a year ago never came to town, and a large number of them are here every Saturday.

Grantham-McBryde.

Red Springs, Nov. 28.—A wedding of much interest throughout this section of the State was solemnized at the home of Mr. Thomas McBryde on Tuesday, November 27, at 3:30 o'clock, when his daughter, Jane Brown, became the bride of Mr. Lewis Irvin Grantham, of Lumberton. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and yellow chrysanthemums.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Annie McBryde, sister of the bride, sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." Mrs. W. C. Brown presided at the piano. To the strains of Lohengrin's "Wedding March" the groom entered with the best man, his brother, Mr. Walter Grantham, of Smithfield. Then came the bride with her sister, Mrs. Bert Nisbet. During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" was softly played. Rev. Eugene Alexander, pastor of the bride, officiated, assisted by Rev. W. C. Brown. The bride wore a handsome blue suit with gray hat and gloves, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and valley lilies. Mrs. Nisbet wore a blue satin gown and carried yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Annie McBryde wore taupe satin and Mrs. Brown grey crepe de chine with rose trimmings.

A reception followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Grantham left for a trip to Florida and Cuba. They will be at home after December 10 at Lumberton.
