

The Smithfield Herald

Published Every Tuesday and Friday.

WATCH YOUR LABEL.

No receipt will be sent for subscription. Each subscriber is asked to watch the little yellow label on his paper.

NOTE.—All correspondents should remember that we pay no attention to communications without the writer's name.

Writers Must Sign Name.

Communications sent to The Herald unsigned, and without writer's name enclosed, will not be published.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Postmaster Gerald, of Pine Level, was in the city Monday on business.

Mr. James A. Johnson from Camp Sevier was at home last week for a few days.

Miss Annie Myatt is spending a few days in the city with her sister Mrs. R. O. Cotter.

Mr. W. H. Sanders, Jr., who is at work in Norfolk, came home Friday night for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Borden, of Goldsboro, visited their daughter, Mrs. J. J. Broadhurst, last week.

Miss Bertie Spiers who has been teaching in Pine Level is at the home of her uncle, Mr. J. D. Spiers, for a few days' rest.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith spent Saturday night and Sunday with their uncle, Mr. Robt. A. Sanders, in the Elizabeth section.

Mrs. J. S. Taylor returned yesterday from a visit of several days to relatives and friends in Bentonville. Her home now is at Mount Olive.

Mr. S. M. Howell, of Boon Hill township, was in town yesterday. Mr. Howell has one son, Carl S. Howell, in the Navy, on the U. S. Battleship Louisiana.

We are asked to state that Rev. J. E. Dupree, of Pine Level, will fill the regular appointment at Pauline Baptist church next Saturday and Sunday, January 26th and 27th.

Mrs. Malcolm Sanders and little son, Reuben, Jr., left Saturday morning for Norfolk after spending a few weeks in the city with her father, Mr. Reuben Sanders and other relatives.

Mr. Leon W. Bailey, who is a member of the Radio Company, 105th battalion, at Camp Sevier, returned to his duties Sunday after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. J. R. Bailey.

Rev. C. E. Stevens has moved from Selma to Four Oaks. He asks us to state that he will preach at Trinity Baptist church at Peacock's Cross Roads next Sunday, January 27th, at 11 o'clock, and at Glenwood school-house that day at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

We are glad to see Mr. Jas. H. Woodall back home after spending several days in a Wilson sanatorium for treatment. He is quite improved and expects to soon have a complete recovery from the causes which have been giving him much trouble. He returned Saturday.

Sergeant Roy Johnson was in town Saturday, enroute to Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., after having spent a few days with his father, Mr. Esrom Johnson, in the Spilona section.

We had a pleasant call yesterday from one of our boyhood school-friends, Elder Xure Lee, who lives just over the line in Sampson, on Dunn, Route No. 2. Elder Lee is an ordained minister of the Primitive Baptist denomination and has been serving churches for the past three years.

Deputy Sheriff Ogburn Visits Camp Sevier.

Deputy Sheriff Hubert I. Ogburn returned yesterday morning from a trip to Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., where he had been to take Mr. T. J. Thorn who had been absent from his company for 78 days.

Sheriff Ogburn arrived at Camp Sevier Saturday and spent Saturday night and part of Sunday with the Smithfield boys who are members of the Motor Truck Company No. 1, of the 105th Supply Train.

Mrs. Cole Entertains Dinner Party. Mrs. W. W. Cole entertained at a six o'clock dinner party Friday evening at her beautiful home on 2nd St.

More Cold and Snow. Once more the Snow-King has left his lair in the icy regions of the North and paid us a rigorous visit.

Profits from Two Milch Cows. Mr. H. H. Underwood, who lives near Wilson's Mills, was here yesterday and gave us a record of what he did with two cows from October 17th to January 19th.

E. H. Moser to Speak. Superintendent E. H. Moser, of Selma, will speak to the Princeton Red Cross Auxiliary on January 25th, at 7:30 p. m., in the Methodist church.

Casey-Holley. Late Sunday about dark Mr. George D. Casey, of Selma, and Miss Lessie Myrtle Holley, from the Ivanhoe Cotton Mills at Smithfield, went to the home of Mr. D. T. Linceford, Justice of the Peace, and were married by him.

A Tacky Party. The Sanders-Holt Chapter U. D. C. will give a Tacky Party in Woman's Club room Friday evening, January 25, 1918.

Admission 10 cents, proceeds to be used toward endowment fund for bed in war hospital in France.

We hope a large crowd will attend, spend a pleasant evening, and help a worthy cause.—Reporter.

TURLINGTON GRADED SCHOOL NOTES.

The Vermont Literary Society of the Turlington Graded School has received from Chapel Hill in the past week the query for the triangular debate. The query is, "Resolved; That Congress Should Enact a Law Providing for the Compulsory Arbitration of Industrial Disputes."

A school choir has been organized through the efforts of Miss Grace Owen, the music teacher. This choir aided in the singing last year and proved to be very helpful.

The Board has given the domestic science class three sewing machines which were much needed. Since getting them the class has accomplished much in sewing.

There are now fourteen typewriting students in our class and all are taking a great interest. There are three new students who have started typewriting since Christmas.

The boys are taking a great interest in basket ball this year. An athletic society has been formed and there are twenty-five members in the society at present.

One of the most important notes of T. G. S. is that a special business course has been offered to the teachers. Miss Grace Owen the music teacher, and Miss Roberta Cox, fifth grade teacher, have already accepted the offer.

Miss Jean Abell, one of the high school students of T. G. S., has returned to her studies after a few days' visit in Florida.

Mr. George Brady, one of the former students of T. G. S., who has been in school at Concord, N. C., for the past two years, has returned home.

We are glad to see Miss Ethel Coats of the ninth grade back in school after a long absence on account of sickness in the home.

On account of Mr. Marrow's absence in Chapel last Tuesday morning, Mr. Whitley conducted the exercises.

Miss Alice Gordon, one of the former high school students left for Raleigh last Monday where she goes to take a course at King's Business College.

We are very sorry to note that one of our teachers, Miss Celeste McEachern, has mumps. We hope that she will soon recover.

school on December 21, was postponed on account of bad weather, and will be observed two weeks after examinations. T. G. S. is preparing a program suitable for this occasion, and will take a part of a day to carry it out.—R. T.

There is a contest on between the different grades to see which can purchase the largest number of war savings stamps.

The Nation needs the boys and girls of today who have the spirit of '76, not to beat drums, nor to load muskets, but to start a great work which must be done.

Mission Society Pledge Meeting.

The annual Pledge meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church in Smithfield was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. D. Spiers from three until five o'clock.

Two new members, Mrs. J. W. Keen and Mrs. W. S. Ragsdale were gladly welcomed to the society.

The Scripture lesson—Christian Stewardship, was given by Mrs. T. R. Hood.

Prayer offered by Mrs. S. A. Cotton. The installing of the officers which were elected at the December business meeting was conducted by Mrs. L. G. Patterson.

A duet by Mrs. N. T. Holland and Miss Irene Myatt, and a solo by Mrs. Holland; also a story "How Miss Malvina, Became a Tither," told by Mrs. L. T. Royall, added much to the enjoyment of those present.

The plans for 1918 were outlined by the President, Mrs. T. J. Lassiter, stressing the importance of every member doing her part.

The pledge cards were then distributed followed by a prayer by Mrs. J. D. Spiers, then signed and collected by the Treasurer, Mrs. C. V. Johnson.

A social half hour was then spent and tea and wafers served by Mesdames W. W. Cole, H. C. Woodall and others.—Reporter.

Mason's' Invital.

The Smithfield Eastern Star Chapter invites all Masons, their wife or friend to a reception at the Masonic Hall Thursday Evening, January 24th, 1918—Eight to Ten o'clock.

MRS. D. H. CREECH, Secretary.

Wanted Him to Go.

A South Dakota woman has asked the War Department to draft her husband into the army. She wrote that probably he claimed exemption because of a wife.

"He's no good and doesn't support me," wrote the woman. "Get him. The army will make a man or a corpse of him."—Ex.

FARM FOR RENT—ONE OF MY men will have to go to the war which leaves me with a good one or two horse farm for rent.

SEE US FOR ASPHALT ROOFING and proslate shingles. Cotter Hardware Co.

TWO CAR LOADS BUGGIES JUST unloaded. Cotter-Underwood Company, Smithfield, N. C.

SHINGLES AND LATHS: FOR sale. I have a car of each. W. M. Sanders, Smithfield, N. C.

IF YOU WANT CEMENT SEE THE Smithfield Hardware Company.

THE SMITHFIELD MARKET.

Table listing market prices for various goods including Cotton, Wool, Eggs, Fat Cattle, Corn, C. R. Sides, Feed Oats, Fresh Pork, Hams, Lard, Timothy Hay, Cheese, Butter, Meal, Flour, Coffee, Cotton Seed Meal, Cotton seed hulls, Shipstuf, Molasses Feed, Hides, Green, Hides, Dry.

Bank with US MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM OF BANKS THE CHARACTER OF THE MEN AS WELL AS THEIR FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY HAD TO BE FOUND O. K. BEFORE WE COULD BECOME A MEMBER OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM OF BANKS.

Just One More Each The Christmas Holidays are over and we have a few books, only one copy of each title, which we want to sell now. Read over the list and order at once.

Herald Book Store Smithfield, N. C.

W. L. Woodall & Sons SMITHFIELD'S SHOPPING CENTER Friday Specials Best Quality Poplins, 35c value - 29c New Spring line Voiles, 30c value - 25c Dress Gingham - 18c Apron Checks - 15c Fancy Silks, $1.98 value - $1.49 25c Boys and Girls Hose, 5 pr. for - $1.00 Five 25c Towels - $1.00 10c Embroidery - 7c 5c Embroidery - 3 1-2c 15 per cent Off on all Laces. 15 per cent Off on all Shoes. 15 per cent Off on all Underwear.