A large number of people have sent us pictures of soldier boys. We are having cuts made of these and as soon as we can we are returning these pictures. No one should become impatient because the pictures are not returned at once. It takes some time to get the cuts made. All pictures will be returned in due time.

Sergeant John Beveridge, of Montreal, Canada, a Canadian soldier, who has seen much service in the army "over there," and was wounded nine times in action, will arrive on the 1:30 train today, and speak tonight in the Court House on his war experiences. Every person in the community should hear this gentleman tell of the storm and stress of life in the trenches and on the firing line.

During the last part of last week Chief of Police Turner took charge of three young negroes who were stopping over at Smithfield and Saturday night had them sent to Camp Lee at Petersburg, Va., to become soldiers. One of them gave his name as Claude Blake, of Lenoir County, and another as Charley Brinson, of Duplin County. Mr. Turner took charge of them under the vagrant law.

The Executive Committee of the War Savings Campaign in Johnston County is called by Chairman Ragsdale to meet upstairs in the Court House in Smithfield next Saturday, March 9, at 11 o'clock. It is of the utmost importance that every member of the committee be here that day to help plan for the success of this great movement. It is a patriotic duty to attend and no one should permit anything of an ordinary nature to keep him from this meeting.

Enjoyable Camp Supper.

Last Friday evening some of the teachers of Turlington Graded School gave a camp supper in honor of Miss Roberta Coxie's — birthday. The teachers present were: Misses Roberta Coxie, Helen Sheppard, Stella Lee Rutherford, Lucile Spears, Edna Taylor, Virginia Puckett, Mattie Welons, Celeste McEachern, Irene Myatt and Ruth Jones. These are the first men to be sent off in sometime by Local Board No. Two. Others will be sent from time to time until all of the first quota is filled.

This is one of the finest bunches of young men sent to Camp from this county. They went off in high spirits all determined to do their part to put an end to German frightfulness.

Merchants Here Yesterday.

A great many of the merchants of Johnston County met here yesterday to go over the food situation in regard to flour, sugar and meat. Judge Brooks, the County Food Administrator, had the promise that some member of the State Food Administration would be present to discuss the questions before the merchants at this time. But at the last minute it was found that no one of them could come. Judge Brooks spoke of the problems and explained them to the people and appealed to the patriotic merchants of the county to aid in every way in carrying on the conservation work of the Food Administration.

Fifty Soldiers From One Church.

It is said that fifty young men have gone from the Raleigh Baptist Tabernacle church to the war. This is quite a large contribution and no doubt but that these young men are greatly missed from the Tabernacle congregation.

Negro Teachers to Meet Friday.

Dr. C. F. Meserve, President of Shaw University, and Mr. N. C. Newbold State Agent for the Rural Schools, will be here next Friday to attend a conference of the Negro teachers of this County which will be held at the Colored Training School. They will both deliver addresses at night. The white citizens of the town are invited to hear these distinguished educators.

Judge Brooks, County Food Administrator, will also address the negro teachers at noon on the food question. At the afternoon session Mr. T. S. Ragsdale, County Chairman will speak to the colored people on the Thrift and War Savings Stamps. Prof. Royall, County Superintendent, and Miss Anderson, Assistant Superintendent, will address the teachers on different phases of the school work.
