

(brother of Lemuel) and Elizabeth Scott, charged with being accomplices in said crime, was, on motion of their counsel, ordered to be removed to the Superior Court of Franklin county.—Raleigh Star.

The notorious Willis Edg, whom we noticed in our last as having been shot, was not killed, but severely wounded, taken, and committed to Winton jail; there to wait his trial, for stealing and carrying off, with intent to sell, a negro girl slave, the property of a Mr. Riddick, of Gates county.—Edenton Gaz.

Frankfort, Ky. March 17. A man and woman were sentenced to be hanged, at the late Montgomery Circuit Court.—We understand the woman had been kept as the mistress of the man, and that their crime was the murder of his wife!

Philadelphia, March 29.—This morning a fire broke out in the bake house of Mr. Watson, situated in Front above Arch-street. It was found impossible to save the house in which the fire originated; the adjoining buildings were very slightly injured. We regret exceedingly, that in his extreme anxiety to save the goods, Mr. Gilbert Gaw remained so long in the house as to be suffocated to death.

On the 15th ult. at a late hour, the large dwelling house of Mr. Alexander Baldrige, of Romulus, N. Y. was consumed by fire, which originated from some ashes taken up and deposited outside the house. So short a notice had Mr. B. and family of their awful situation, having retired to bed, that in their struggle to rescue two females from the flames, who slept in the chamber, his two youngest children, (twins) aged 2 years, who were reposing in the lower part of the house, were consumed by the flames.

The Navy.—The very tedious and expensive court-martial convened at Norfolk, for the trial of Sidney Smith, master commandant, and Beverly Kennon, lieutenant in the navy, closed its session the 25th ult. Captain Smith was found guilty of the charge of receiving a quantity of cochineal on freight—and the court adjudged that he should be cashiered; but they recommended him to mercy, in consideration of his long services. The President has approved the sentence, but yielded to the recommendation of the court, and retained Captain S. in his rank and station.

We do not distinctly understand what was the charge against Lieut. Kennon, preferred by Com. Porter, but the court says the charge was not proved, and Lieut. K. was fully acquitted of the same. The case of Lieut. Kennon appears to excite considerable feeling. His trial will not be published, and Com. Porter will not be arrested on charges preferred against him by Lieut. K.

Capt. Bradford, of the brig Sicily, arrived at Boston from Messina, makes the following amusing report:—Feb. 7, off Carthage, fell in with two frigates, one of which hoisted American colors, and ordered us to back the main topsail and send our boat alongside; did so. On getting on board, found by their turbans and wide trowsers that they were not Americans, or if so, all dandies; but whatever they were, they were very polite. Capt. B. was ushered from the gangway through a file of servants, white and black, into the after cabin, to the presence of an old, venerable looking man, with a long beard, loling on a cushioned sofa, looking more like a Greek priest than captain of a ship of war. While asking the common place questions in such cases, was served with coffee, pipes, &c. by the numerous servants or slaves in attendance. Was asked if we had plenty of provisions for so long a voyage to Boston; if not, would with pleasure supply us with any thing on board—and wishing us a good passage, we took our leave and made sail. Capt. B. supposed them to be Algerines.

Petersburg, April 2.—We regret to state, that Mr. John Randolph, M. C. lately sustained considerable loss in consequence of about 40 hhd. of prime Tobacco, of his last crop, being swamped on its way by water from this place to Richmond. Mr. R.'s price for his Tobacco was $10—he received for it, in its damaged state, $8:50.—Int.

It is said that John Taliaferro is elected to Congress, in the place of Mr. Ball, deceased, by a majority of about 100 votes over Gen. Hungerford, and that he has gone on to take his seat.—ib.

The reader probably recollects that John Tinsley was found guilty of exhibiting Faro—that the jury, while bringing in their verdict protested against that part of its punishment which consisted in the infliction of stripes—and that the Judge addressed an application to the Executive Council, to excuse him from the stripes. We have now the satisfaction to state that the Council have remitted this part of his punishment.—ib.

Snowhill, Md. March 23.—A most shocking circumstance occurred near this place last week. An attempt was made by three ruffian slaves to kidnap one of their own color; which slaves, it appears, were concerned with one Jacob Purnell, a colored man, of a most infamous character, notorious for every vice which man can be guilty of, and who had been a long time engaged in the nefarious business of kidnapping. By some means the object of their pursuit, aware of the intention of his pursuers, was attempting his escape, when he was inhumanly murdered by repeated blows while running. The villains were immediately arrested and confessed the whole circumstance. A warrant was immediately issued for Purnell's arrest; after attempting in vain to conceal himself, he cut his throat from ear to ear, and after attempting to utter something which could not be understood, he instantly expired.

Three rogues were apprehended in Philadelphia, for having committed sundry larcenies on the morning of Friday week. They were indicted, tried, convicted, and sent to the penitentiary before 12 o'clock at noon of the same day.

THE MIRACLE.

We publish the following letter, for the gratification of a number of our readers, to whom we believe the account it contains of a recent extraordinary event, will be highly interesting. The reverend author is a Professor in the Catholic College at Georgetown, in the District of Columbia; whatever difference of opinion, therefore, may exist as to the cause which has produced so wonderful an effect, the source of the information is too respectable to admit any reasonable doubt of the truth of the facts related.

Extract of a letter from the Rev. Mr. Kahlmann, to Lewis Wilcocks, Esq. of New-York, dated White Marsh, Prince George's county, Md. 16th March, 1824.

"The metropolis of America is moved, as Jerusalem formerly was, at the arrival of three wise men. It is in a transport of admiration, and religious awe, and nothing can be thought or spoken of, but the astonishing and splendid prodigy, which JESUS CHRIST, the Eternal Son of God, and most amiable Saviour of mankind, has been pleased to work in the capital of America, and in sight of our national councils.

The fact is this:—conformably to the directions of Alexander, Prince of Hohenlohe, Priest of the Catholic church at Bamberg, in Germany, a nine days' devotion to the sacred name of Jesus, was performed by several persons—the devotion consisted in reciting the litany of the same name. On the 19th inst. at half past three o'clock in the morning (the day and hour appointed by the Prince for all those who are out of Europe and who wish to unite with him in spirit, in holy prayer, that is to say, in the holy sacrifice of mass, which he celebrates at that precise hour, for obtaining the restoration of his health,) mass was celebrated by several priests, at the above hour, and amongst others, by your humble servant in Georgetown College.

The mass ended about 4 o'clock, at which time holy communion was administered to the sick persons, whose cure was the sole object of the said devotion, and who had prepared themselves for a worthy participation of it by a sorrowful confession of their sins.

Mrs. Anne Mattingly, the sister of Capt. Thomas Carberry, the present mayor of the City of Washington, a sister of the Rev. Joseph Carberry, a priest of the Society of Jesus, and of a nun at Mount Carmel, of the order of Theresa, in Charles county, Maryland, and of two other single sisters, at present residing with her at the Mayor's house.

Mrs. Mattingly, at the very precise moment of swallowing the adorable sacrament at the above hour, four minutes after 4 o'clock, was, from the point of death, at which she then was, restored to a most perfect state of health.

At the moment of swallowing the blessed sacrament, (which, her tongue being quite parched and dead-like, she could scarcely effect) she rises up in her bed, and lifting up her two arms, one of which she had not been able for a long time even to move, she exclaims: "Lord Jesus! what have I done to obtain so great a favor? what shall I do to acknowledge so great a benefit?" asked for her clothes, dresses herself, sits up, throws herself down on her knees, with the priest, the Rev. Stephen Dabrierson, who had given her the holy communion, and who was prostrate on the ground, lost in a transport of admiration and gratitude; then rises, walks through the room, and on that same morning, took as much food as she had taken for the space of six months previous, viz. two cups of coffee, a biscuit and an egg, with drink; received in that day perhaps a thousand visitors, and on the following day more than two thousand; shaking hands with every body, smiling, laughing, conversing the whole day, and from the ghastly, emaciated, livid countenance of a dying person, in which state I saw her at about 6 o'clock of the day before her miraculous cure, restored to an angelical countenance, which circumstance alone delights every body.

All the physicians who attended her, solemnly declared, that the nature of her distemper was entirely out of the reach of medical assistance.

During the above nine days' devotion, she became worse and worse every day—was considered on two different days as having expired: was at the point of death when I saw her at about 6 o'clock in the evening, prior to the sudden restoration in the morning, and even worse at 10 o'clock the same night, when visited by the Rev. Mr. Matthews, rector of St. Patrick's Church, at Washington City, and was literally at the point of death, of expiring in the opinion of more than 10 respectable persons, when at the moment of receiving the adorable sacrament, she was restored to as perfect a state of health, as I, who am writing, or any one who may read this letter.

I was prevailed upon to spend the night subsequent to her miraculous cure, at the Mayor's house. I saw Mrs. Mattingly in the morning, and she declared that she never spent a better night in her life.

At about half past 6 o'clock the intelligence of Mrs. Mattingly's having been perfectly restored to health, at the precise moment of the holy communion, was brought to the College of Georgetown. The bell was rung; a solemn Te Deum, with the exposition of the blessed sacrament, was sung by the whole house, after which I hastened to the city to view the grand vision which the Lord had shown unto us. When upon entering the room Mrs. Mattingly met me with a smiling countenance; I was so transported that, I threw myself on the floor, she did the same, both bursting into tears of admiration and gratitude; and the whole company, composed of about twelve or fifteen most respectable persons, did the same. All those that were present at the moment of her receiving the holy communion, and those that were acquainted with the horrid martyrdom which she suffered during six years, solemnly declare, that they consider her miraculous restoration like unto, and equal to the resuscitation of Lazarus from the grave, and that to restore such a diseased, corrupted, and corroded frame to a perfect state of health, required nothing less than the same creative power which had made her at first."

Most Judges contrive to get plenty of land,
For one, we may instance Judge Toland;
But plump lawyer Cupid has trick'd the whole band,
And shown us a Judge that has No land.
