

ers, than the citizens of our neighboring states? I hesitate not for a reply, for I feel well assured that on this as on all previous occasions, North Carolina will not have to blush for the conduct of her sons—the same generous glow of feeling which is evidenced on the arrival of Gen. Lafayette elsewhere, in our country, will be felt here—the ready hand and the willing heart, to honor our country's champion. We can repeat, in the fulness and joy of our souls, as has already been said:—

"We bow not the neck,
"And we bend not the knee—
"But our hearts, La Fayette,
"We surrender to thee."

I will close by suggesting to you fellow citizens, that it is high time that we should arouse from our slumbers—that we were in action, or else we may find our Guest arrived, before the feast is prepared.

I would recommend an early and complete equipment of an uniform troop of Cavalry, in each of our counties; those from the three first named to meet him on his approach to the frontiers of our state, together with a deputation from the seat of government to welcome him on his arrival. The Franklin troop to meet him at their county line, and the Orange and Wake troops, associated with the fine troop which I understand will march from Fayetteville, to meet him on his entrance into our county, and escort him to the seat of Government, where the whole will be joined by the light infantry company of that place, citizens, ladies, &c. &c. with the fine band of music, which they are now raising.

I would further recommend a Corps of Horse, to be formed of the whole of the uniformed Militia Officers of the different Counties, to be under the command of the senior Colonel Commandant of the several regiments, to rendezvous at Louisburg and organize themselves; and the more readily and easily to carry this measure into operation advise all such as are willing to volunteer for the purpose, to inform Benj. B. Smith, Esq. Postmaster of this place, immediately, by letter, of their willingness, that the practicability of the measure may be ascertained at as early a period as possible. If this plan meets with the approbation of as many as fifty of the officers, so soon as it is known when the General will visit us, notice thereof will be given through the medium of our public journals, and a day appointed for the meeting in Louisburg, taking care to call the officers together at that place, a day or two before the time of the arrival of our guest, so as to give them an opportunity to organize.

Notwithstanding this appeal is made to the citizens of our more immediate neighborhood, still it would afford much pleasure to be associated, on this great occasion, with our fellow citizens of Johnston, Nash, Edgecombe, Northampton, person, Caswell, Chatham, &c. nay with our brethren from every section of the State—and may we not look forward, with a pleasing anticipation, that such will be the case? CURTIUS.

A CAMP-MEETING will commence at Pierce's Camp-ground, four miles above the town of Halifax, on Friday, the 1st day of October. And, on Thursday, 14th October, a Camp-meeting will commence at Barret's Campground, in Northampton, eight miles from Halifax.

In Chatham county, on the 9th inst. Mr. George Moore to Miss Mary Moore; also, at the same place and time, Mr. Hugh Y. Waddell to Miss Rebecca Moore, sister of the above mentioned lady.

In Burke county, on the 3d ult. Mr. Daniel Bedell to Miss Fanny Spencer, daughter of the Rev. Wm. Spencer.

In Iredell county, on the 20th ult. Mr. Wm. W. Sothers to Miss Christian Reamor.

At Panther Creek, Duplin county, on the 2d inst. Dr. John Wright to Miss Sarah Dunn, daughter of Mr. James Dunn.

DIED,

In Northampton county, on Wednesday, the 15th inst. Mrs. Dolly R. G. Crump, consort of Dr. James R. Crump, in the 18th year of her age, after a long and tedious attack of that destructive disease so fatal in our climate at this season, the billious, which, after assuming a more imposing shape, baffled the unremitting attention and eminent skill of the visiting physician. In the death of this truly amiable and accomplished woman, society has lost one of its brightest ornaments, her husband an endearing companion, her tender infant an affectionate mother, and her relatives and friends one endeared to them by every private and social virtue: none can tell the agonising pangs of them that loved her, but those who have cherished with zeal and affection such a friend, and have been called to perform the last solemn and sad obsequies to her ashes and moister with tears her untimely grave. Through every stage of her illness, she unceasingly evinced the power and efficacy of Divine Grace, by her steadfast patience under bodily pain. She died possessing all the fortitude of a christian, manifesting a sanguine anticipation of future blessings; that there was for her "a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."—[Communicated.]

On Tuesday, 13th inst. after a lingering illness, which he bore with becoming resignation to the Divine will, Mr. Wm. Bradford, of this county. Mr. Bradford was in his fortieth year, and was beloved and respected by a large circle of relations and friends, having fulfilled the duties appertaining to these important connexions with society in the most exemplary manner. As a neighbor his loss is irreparable, and the Methodist church loses in the death of this worthy gentleman one of its most pious members.—[Communicated.]

At Raleigh, on the 11th inst. Mr. Stephen Haywood; and, on the 15th, his son, Benj. F. Haywood, in the 25d year of his age.

At the Sweet Springs, in Virginia, on the 1st inst. Moses Mordecai, of Raleigh.

At Edenton, on the 1st inst. Capt. Joel Thorp, master of the schooner Blakely, of that port.

In Chowan county, on the 1st instant, Mr. John Middleton, aged 20 years.

At Chapel-Hill, on the 21st ult. in the 19th year of his age, Mr. Zeas Johnston, of Rowan county.

In Hancock county, Georgia, where he had gone on a visit from his residence in Chatham county, in this state, on the 24th ult. Capt. Britain Matthews, a patriot of the revolution.

At Wilmington, on the 1st inst. Ms. Benjamin Hildreth, and on the 8th, in the 2d year of his age, Mr. Donald M'Rac.

At Masonborough, suddenly, on the 30th ult. in the 46th year of her age, Mrs. Anna Maria Campbell, consort of Mr. Marsden Campbell, of Brunswick county.

At Wilmington, on the 3d inst. in the 29th year of his age, Joseph Ripley, jr. formerly of Boston.

The increasing demand for
Dr. ADAM CLARKE'S
COMMENTARY ON THE
HOLY SCRIPTURES,
Has taken up the first and second editions of this Great Work, as far as it has been published, so as to induce the publishers in New York to issue their prospectus for a third edition, that the three may be brought up equal and finished together. The text is taken from the correct copies of the present authorized version—with all the marginal readings; an ample collection of parallel texts; and copious summaries to each chapter. The date of every transaction, through the whole of the OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS, as far as it has been ascertained by the best chronologers, will be marked in the A. M. collated throughout with the Julian Period; and in the A. B. C. and A. D. In this work, the whole of the text has been collated with the Hebrew and Greek originals, and all the ancient versions.—The most difficult words analyzed and explained.—The most important readings in the Hebrew collections of Kinnicott and De Rossi, and in the Greek collections of Mill, Weistein and Griesback, noticed.—The particular customs of the Jews and neighboring nations, so frequently alluded to by the Prophets, Evangelists and Apostles, explained from the best Asiatic Authorities.—The great doctrines of the Law and Gospel of God defined, illustrated and defended; and the whole applied to practical Christianity and vital Godliness. The Doctor's BIBLIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY will forever remain a monument of his vast and varied acquisitions in literature; in the work now offered to the public he has outshone, but not obscured his former exertions in favour of piety and learning.—In his general preface and comments on the text, he has bro't together a great body of facts, gathered from the numerous sources of ancient and modern literature, so that the most learned and scientific reader may reap both instruction and delight, and the most simple and uninformed may acquire a fund of useful knowledge, hitherto concealed, in various volumes of foreign, and consequently to many of all nations, unknown languages.—The work will be printed uniformly with the first and second editions: and will be illustrated with the most correct Maps; and every requisite Plan and Table.

The quarto edition is now reduced to one dollar and twenty-five cents per number. The great demand for the work, and to accommodate Subscribers of limited means, the publishers have also commenced the publication of a royal octavo edition, which will come at the reduced price of five Dollars per volume, bound and lettered, or fifty cents a number, if preferred in numbers. Civilians, as well as divines, and others, have read the Doctor's lucid expositions of the Jewish polity, and the moral principles of christianity, which no small advantage in the practice of their professions. We believe this is the greatest and best work in our language. The epistle to the Romans can be had separately, either in octavo or duodecimo form, bound and lettered.

Dr. H. HARDY, of Halifax, will receive Subscriptions to either of the editions, and order them to Halifax for Subscribers. He will also receive Subscriptions to the duodecimo edition of Dr. Clarke's translation of Strum's reflections on the Works of God in creation, for every day in the year—it is an entertaining work. Sept. 17, 1824.

One Hundred Dollars REWARD.

RUNAWAY, or was stolen from the Subscriber, on the night of the 8th instant, a bright mulatto woman (slave) and her child, a girl of about four years old. This woman ran away from the Subscriber, executor of John Hunt, deceased, in the summer of 1808, and passed as a free woman, by the name of PATSEY YOUNG, until about the first of June last, when she was apprehended as a runaway. On the sixth of the same month I obtained possession of her in the town of Halifax, since which time she and her child ELIZA have, in compliance with an order of the county court of Franklin, been sold, when the Subscriber became the purchaser. She spent the greater part of the time she was runaway (say about sixteen years) in the neighborhood of, and in the town of Halifax, one or two summers at Rockland, where I am informed she cooked for the hands employed to work on the canal; she also spent some of her time in Plymouth, her occupation while there not known. At the above named places she has many acquaintances and friends. She is a tall, spare woman, thin face and lips, long sharp nose, her fore teeth in a state of decay. She is an excellent seamstress, can make gentlemen's and ladies' dresses, is a good cook and weaver, and I am informed is a good cake baker and brewer, &c. by which occupations she principally gained her living. Some time during last summer she married a free man of color, named Achrael Johnson, who had been living in and about Plymouth, and followed boating on the Roanoke. Since his marriage he leased a farm of Mr. James Cotton, of Scotland Neck, (Halifax county) where he was living, together with this woman, when she was taken up as a runaway slave in June last. I have but little doubt that Johnson has contrived to seduce or steal her and child out of my possession, and will attempt to get them out of the state and pass as free persons. Should this be the case, I will give Sixty Five Dollars for his detection and conviction before the proper tribunal in any part of this state. I will give for the apprehension of the woman and child, on their delivery to me, or so secured in jail or otherwise that I get them, Thirty Five Dollars. Or, I will give Twenty Five Dollars for the woman alone, and Ten Dollars for the child alone. The proper name of the woman is Piety, but she will no doubt change it as she did before. I forewarn all owners of boats, captains and owners of vessels from taking on board or carrying away this woman and her child Eliza, under the penalty of the law.

NAT. HUNT.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from me in August last, 1823; he is twenty-six years old, five feet six or seven inches high, dark complexion, and has a sulky appearance. He was raised by Mathew C. Whitaker, Esq. deceased, of Halifax county; his parents belong to Henry Mason, Esq. and his wife belongs to the heirs of Benjamin Harris, deceased, and at this time lives with a free colored woman, one mile and a half from Halifax town, on the main road leading from thence to Enfield. I will give the above reward for him delivered to me in Warren county, three miles south of Warren, on the stage-road, or confined in Halifax jail so that I get him. All persons are forewarned from hiring or harboring said boy.

Rob. Ransom.
