PROPOSALS,

For publishing a new periodical work, to be edited by a Committee of Ministers and Laymen, entitled the

MUTUAL RIGHTS,

Of the ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

It is a well known fact, that the Methodist community is greatly agitated, upon questions of vital importance to the peace and prosperity of their church. Such a state of things call loudly upon every friend of religion, to enquire into the causes which produce this excitement, and to labour for the restoration of harmony, and the preservation of brotherly love. To be prepared, however, to perform a becoming part in this important work, it is necessary to enter upon a clam and dispassionate consideration of the subjects in dispute. Men who do not think more highly of themselves than they ought to think, will feel no difficulty in admitting the truth of this position; for it is impossible for any man wisely to estimate his own opinions, when they differ from those of other men, until he shall have first subjected them to a respectful and scrupulous comparison with the opinions of those who are opposed to him. With a hope that this highly important undertaking will be more generally attempted, the committee chosen by a respectable number of ministers and members in the Methodist Episcopal Church, assembled from different parts of the United States, in the city of Baltimore, offer proposals for publishing a new periodical work, entitled "The Mutual Rights of the Preachers and Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church."

In performing the duty thus assigned them, they feel no motive abstract from a deep concern for the preservation of the unity of Methodism in the bonds of peace; and they entertain an unshaken confidence, that if the Methodist people have a suitable opportunity to compare the arguments that are adduced on both sides of the great question of reform, that permanent harmony may be established among them.— Without this, they are equally confident that the difference of sentiment which now so extensively prevails, will accelerate an equally extensive alienation of affection, and ultimately terminate in great and ruinous secessions from the church.

The publication which they contemplate, is specially intended to realize to the church, a practical understanding of the title which it assumes. This can be done only through the medium of a free press; and it is hoped that those who are unfriendly to the above named object, will, nevertheless, for the sake of their own respectability, perceive the propriety of promoting its circulation; especially when we hereby give notice, that any paper which is intended, dispassionately, to set forth the arguments on their side of the question, shall be inserted. Indeed, a friendly attitude towards this attempt, and the preservation of brotherly love towards those engaged in it, we consider our privilege to claim at their hands, as a duty which they, as Christians and men, owe to the community.

To remove every reasonable difficulty out of the way, we promise to exclude from the pages of the "Mutual Rights," every thing calculated to give personal offence. Nay, more, we shall take pleasure in acknowledging the personal virtues of our opponents; shall gladly sit at their feet while they give us instruction in righteousness; and shall be careful to maintain all due deference for their opinions; whilst, with firmness and impartiality, we shall expose the defects and excesses which unavoidably grow out of the polity of our church.

It is intended to make the periodical paper now proposed, embrace, not only those subjects of investigation alluded to above, but also a variety of other matter, both amusing and instructive. A compendious narrative of the proceedings of the General Conference of 1824, will also be found in its pages.

TERMS.

"The Mutual Rights of the ministers and members of the Methodist Episcopal Church," will be published in Numbers of forty 8vo. pages each, and will be issued on the first day of each succeeding month. Price TWO DOLLARS per annum—payable in advance, or at the expiration of six months from the commencement of the volume—at the option of the subscribers. No subscriptions taken for less than a volume.

Dr. H. HARDY, of Halifax, will receive Subscriptions at any time to this very important work, and have it sent to Halifax, or elsewhere, for the convenience of Subscribers. He will take the names of Subscribers at the pending Camp-meetings. Every preacher and member of the Methodist Church ought to read it.
