GREECE.

A letter from Constantinople gives the following as the fruits of the descent upon Ipsara:—110 vessels, among which were 23 ships of war, 10 Chiefs of the Ipsariots, and 500 other persons taken prisoners; above 100 cannon, 33 standards, 500 heads, and 2000 ears, were the trophies of this victory.

A letter published in the Journal of Missolonghi, received at Corfu on the 21st July, gives the following account of the subsequent Greek successes: "The Greek fleet which left Hydra the 6th July, hastened to the coasts of Ipsara, where the Captain Pacho still cruised. A battle which took place there between the two fleets was most furious. The Greeks succeeded by means of fire-ships in burning three Turkish frigates which were commanded by the Capouduna. The Captain Pacha saved himself, but his vessel was very much damaged; many other Turkish vessels of different dimensions were burnt or taken, the remainder of the Ottoman fleet fled, and took shelter in a very bad condition at Mytelene. After this decisive victory, the Greeks effected a landing on the island of Ipsara. More than 2000 Ipsariots held out in two forts of this island. They favored the descent of their co-patriots. From five to six thousand Turks who were in the island, terrified at the defeat of their fleet, took to flight, and being pursued to the utmost, were all cut to pieces."

An article dated Napoli de Romania, July 12, announces that "The island of Casso sees the standard of the Cross again afloat. The Greeks who had retired into the steepest rocks of their country, having received a reinforcement of 1500 men fell upon the barbarians, 2000 in number, whilst a division entered the port. The battle was neither long nor obstinate. The Mussulmen, who were all Egyptian troops, being surprised, were overwhelmed, shot, and not one escaped the just vengeance of the Greeks. Cannons, baggage, warlike stores, provisions, all fell into the hands of the defenders of the Cross. This news being official, has been announced by the President of the Executive Council, sitting at Nauplia.

The Turks are said to have lost, since their attack on Ipsara, 80 armed vessels and 22,000 men.

Spain.—The Paris Moniteur of the 27th August, announces the re-capture of Tariffa on the 19th of that month. It was taken by the United Spanish and French troops. Only one of the Constitutional leaders effected his escape in a boat; the rest were delivered to the Spaniards to be dealt with as traitors. Louis is said to have demanded the occupation of all the fortresses in Spain.

France.—The French funds are again rising, and there is every probability of things remaining in a settled state. Rumor states a Regency is almost immediately to be established, at the head of which will be the Count d'Artois. As the plan originated with the king himself, and is calculated to put an end to all speculations about the probable effect which his death would produce, it is likely to meet with no opposition, particularly as the power of M. de Villele is more and more confirmed. The king is not dangerously ill; but he gets daily more incapable of business.

South America.—An arrival at Philadelphia, in 22 days from Santa Martha, states that information had been received there, by letters from Bogota, of an engagement having taken place in Peru between the Colombian army under the Liberator and the royalists, in which the latter were completely defeated. The Colombian General Cordova was killed.

HALIFAX:

FRIDAY, OCT. 15, 1824.

To Correspondents.—"Z," is received. An interview with the writer is necessary, previous to its insertion.

"Philo" in our next.

People's Ticket.—We are authorized to state, says the last Raleigh Star, that Augustin H. Shepherd, Esq. of Stokes, and John M. Morehead, of Guilford, candidates on the People's Ticket for Electors of President and Vice-President, have declared that if elected they will vote for Gen. JACKSON. M. Stokes, of Wilkes, and P. Forney, of Lincoln, have also declared their preference for Gen. J.

Presidential.—The Grand Jury attending the Superior Court for the county of Hertford, on the 30th ult. took a vote among themselves on the presidential question, which stood as follows: for Jackson 16, for Adams 2....[Communicated.]

[COMMUNICATED.]

Divine Service.—There is a meeting appointed to be held in this town on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the 22d, 23d, and 24th instant—several ministers are expected to attend.

Dr. HARDY expects to preach at Conocony church on the fifth Sunday in this month, which is the 31st day. He hopes he may not be called on professional business on that day to prevent his attending, as he was on the 10th inst. It is expected the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered after sermon; all religious persons, within reach of the church, who may wish to commune are requested to attend.

Revival of Religion.—We have been favored (says the Norfolk Beacon) with the following extract of a letter from a Minister of the Gospel, belonging to the Baptist persuasion, dated in Bertie County, (N. C.) on the 10th inst.

"Since I saw you I have travelled and preached much, and have some days Baptized 20 a day. The revival of Religion in this County is much greater than any we ever witnessed. Nearly 500 have been Baptized this year; some days 44 in a day, and some months more than a hundred in the County. Among the number are several Professional gentlemen, and others in elevated situations in life; indeed, all classes and ages are enlisting under the banner of the King of Saints."

North-Carolina Notes.—The New-York Evening Post states that counterfeit bills of the denomination of $20, on the State Bank of North-Carolina, are in circulation. The general appearance of the engraving is well calculated to deceive, but the filling up is not so well executed.

Internal Improvements.—The Board for Internal Improvements met in this city on Monday last, present D. Cameron, John D. Hawkins, Thomas Turner and John Owen, Esqrs. It appeared from the reports of Mr. Fulton, that the work carrying on below Wilmington, will be completed in a few weeks, and if he can obtain the use of one of the river steamboats to work the Roller, (which he has been prevented from doing since the last meeting owing to one of them being under repairs) it is expected the ship channel will be rendered sufficient for the passage of sea-vessels up to the town. The river between Wilmington and Fayetteville, has been already much improved, by the removal of logs and other obstructions, and every exertion will be made to complete the work as soon as possible.

A Report was received from the Commissioners appointed to lay off the Hickory Nut Road, in Rutherford county, informing the Board, that they had accomplished their work, and contracted for making the most difficult parts of the road, which contracts are to be completed by April next.

The Stock having been fully subscribed for erecting a bridge over the Dan at Milton, and the services of Mr. Fulton being requested to lay off the road, and assist in forming contracts for the work, he is directed by the Board to attend when required.

The Board has not yet made the Subscription, authorized by the act of last session, to the Roanoke Company, of $25,000, the Directors having declined receiving the subscription with the condition annexed of locking down from the Basin at Weldon's. The question will be laid before the meeting of the Stockholders next month, and there decided whether the proposed subscription shall be accepted or not.

The Board adjourned on Tuesday to meet agreeably to the provisions of their charter, on the 3d Monday of November next.

Despondency.—We are concerned to state that Col. W. L. Hays, of Chatham county, a few days ago, in a fit of despondency, terminated his existence! He had lately lost his wife, and it would seem was not possessed of sufficient christian fortitude to bear the bereavement.

La Fayette.—Such was the demand for Poulson's Philadelphia Gazette, containing the account of the entrance of La Fayette into that city, that about 1500 copies were called for, in addition to 20 extra quires which had been struck off. Mr. Poulson stated that in the whole course of his editorial career, he never saw such a rush for papers.

Breach of promise.—At the September term of the Westchester Court of Common Pleas, held at Bedford, N. Y. came on the trial of Matilda Holmes against Reuben Green, for a breach of promise of marriage.

The cause was ably managed by the eminent counsel on both sides. The jury rendered a verdict for the injured girl of $500.

UNION RACES.

New-York, Oct. 1.—The sports on this course commence on Tuesday next, when, from the number and character of the horses that have arrived, much amusement may be anticipated. —General Wynn arrived this morning from Virginia, with his two mares; Flirtilla and Vanity; and it is probable that another stable will reach here before the races commence. Besides these, we have Mr. Lard's two horses, Modesty, and Count Piper; Mr. Colden's Daphne, and two colts; Mr. Jackson's Slow-and-Easy, and Jane-on-the-Green—Mr. B. Coles' two Arabian colts, with many other horses of good speed and known bottom.—The Association have advanced the races to as early a period as they are allowed by the law, for the comfort and convenience of those who may be inclined to partake of the sports offered; and we have reason to presume that the attendance will be numerous and respectable.

Races.—The races on Long-Island, N. Y. commenced last week. On Monday, a match race, $1000 a side, 4 mile heats, was run for by two three year old colts, one sired by Eclipse the other a Duroc colt. Two heats only were run, both of which were closely contested, the Eclipse colt winning the second heat by only half a neck. On Tuesday, the purse of $500, was won by Mr. Wynn's mare Flirtilla, nothing having entered the lists against her. On Wednesday there was an elegant race; three horses entered, Wynn's Vanity and two others. Vanity was decidedly the favorite, but after leading for three quarters of a mile in elegant style, from some cause or other she gave up, leaving the other two nags Slow-and-Easy and Modesty to compete for the heat, which was taken by the latter by nearly a neck. The second heat was a dead heat; the third heat was also taken by her, after contending for it every inch of the way. Each heat was run in less than six minutes.

On Monday, the 27th ult. a sweepstake for $300, run for at Baltimore, was won by Mr. Sleeper's horse La Fayette, in two heats, with ease; beating Bay Bolton and Jim Crack. On Tuesday the four mile heats were run, for a purse of $150, which was won by Mr. Sleeper's horse Sir Harry, beating Mr. Shiply's horse Peace Maker.

Riot in Pittsburg.—Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Westmoreland county, Pa. to his friend in Carlisle, dated "Greensburg, 20th Sept. 1824. "No doubt you will have heard through the medium of the public prints before you receive this, of the great mob that lately arose in Pittsburg. There are, however, circumstances connected with it, which I presume will not be made public, at least in that quarter, of which, according to my information, I will give you a bird's eye view.

"The object of the Mob was to tear down the Circus, on account of the alleged seduction of a respectable young lady, by Mr. Pepin, the master of the Circus: who, some time since, opened a riding school in that city, to teach young ladies, &c. to ride gracefully. The alleged victim was one of his pupils, and had the misfortune to entertain the most violent passion for him, which she discovered to him as follows:

"One evening when riding out with other young ladies, accompanied by Mr. Pepin, she pretended that her horse was frightened, & caught Mr. Pepin by the hand for protection, but in such a way that he understood her at once. He afterwards received several letters from her, one of which, being first intercepted went to disclose * * * between them, which he positively denies. The thing became known to her friends, who sent her into the country. 'Tis strange that a young girl, worth from 10 to 15 thousand dollars, and perhaps not more than 16 years of age, should fall in love with an old man, with a wife and family, but so appears this fact. Now to the mob—

"The evening the attack was made by a mob, the circus was crowded with ladies and gentlemen. The mob was so large that the building was completely surrounded—they commenced by throwing stones, and endeavouring to tear down the circus, and became so outrageous, that the company had to stop the performance, and call upon the people within to assist them; they then endeavoured to appease the mob, but in vain. At length, some one more eloquent than the rest, prevailed with those turbulent beings to desist until the ladies and the children could get home. Ten or fifteen minutes were allowed them for that purpose. Here then was crying, bustle and confusion. After the ladies had withdrawn, hostilities recommenced between the mob and circus men, the latter of whom were all well armed, and drove the mob every direction; but they still returned, which created a spirit of desperation in the circus men, one of whom fired into the crowd, and killed a man. This, for a moment roused a spirit of vengeance in the mob, some of whom proposed arming themselves with muskets, &c. But they soon began to think seriously of the consequences, and dispersed. The circus man who shot the citizen, was admitted to bail—But the whole circus company had to seek protection in the common jail, for two or three days. If this was not "witching the world with horemanship," I don't know what it was."

[Those concerned in the killing of Mr. Hartzell, mentioned above, were subsequently tried and acquitted.]

Singular Births.—A negro in the possession of a gentleman of this city, has brought forth within thirteen months, five children. This is no prodigy too prodigious to be asserted; as was the late case of the French female, who was stated to have brought forth seven children at a birth—but the present is plain matter of fact. During the last year, this negro woman had twins—both boys, now living and in fine health. Within thirteen months after, (that is, in July last,) she had three fine infants at one birth...and what is curious enough, they are of different sexes and colors; one girl two boys. The girl is of the mulatto color...one of the boys has the yellow tinge and the glossy hair of the Indian...the other has the jet black and wollen hair. The children are all living, all well and hearty, and nursed by the mother: who herself enjoys excellent health....She and her husband are blacks....Richmond Compiler.
