

Washington, Feb. 23.

Presentations of the Medals.—Agreeably to appointment, and in obedience to the resolutions of Congress, the PRESIDENT of the United States, on Saturday last, presented to the General Officers named below, the gold Medals voted to them by Resolutions to Congress, passed in the years 1814 and 1818, for gallantry and good conduct, in the battles of Chippewa, Niagara, Erie, Plattsburg, and the Thames, in Upper Canada, during the late war with Great Britain. The delivery of the Medals took place, at the Mansion of the President, in the presence of the Secretary of State, of War, and of the Navy, several Members of Congress, Military officers, and many citizens, who attended to witness the ceremony.

The following are the officers to whom medals were delivered: Major General Brown, Major General Scott, Major General Macomb, Major General Harrison, Major General Gaines, (thro' Hon. M. Houston.) Major General P. B. Porter, (thro' Hon. Mr. Marvin.) Brig. General Miller, (thro' Hon. Mr. Webster.)

The President accompanied the delivery of each medal with an appropriate address, which, with the respective replies, we expect, to be enabled to publish in our next paper. The ceremony was full of interest, as it was associated with the recollection of some of the most brilliant events of the late war.

It is a matter of regret that Gen. Gaines, who is in the city, was prevented by indisposition from attending and receiving his medal in person.—Nat. Intel.

New Senators.—The Senate of the United States is summoned to meet on the 4th March to ratify or reject the appointments to be made by the new President. Ten new Senators, who it is thought bring an accession of talents to that eminent body, will take their seats at that time to wit:

Gen. Wm. Marks, from Pennsylvania, vice Walter Lowrie. Judge Ambrose Spencer, from New York, vice Rufus King. John Rowan, from Kentucky, vice Isham Talbot. Wm. H. Harrison, from Ohio, vice Ethan A. Brown. Wm. Hendricks, from Indiana, vice Walter Taylor. Judge Berrien, from Georgia, vice Mr. Elliott. Jeremiah Mason, from New Hampshire, vice Mr. Parrott. Dr. Henry Chambers, from Alabama, vice Mr. Kelly. [The other two not recollected.]

The appointment of Governor Barbour to the Department of War, which seems to be a fact certain, leaves a vacancy in the Virginia Representatives. It is to be regretted that there should be a vacancy at such a time.

At no period perhaps, has the Senate been so powerful in talents. Berrien, Rowan, Spencer, Mason, are men celebrated for intellect, and great Debaters. It is remarkable, that like our Senator, Mr. Tazewell, they have all at some time, been suspected of federalism. Things have certainly turned round strangely. We are either just getting drunk, or just getting sober. We wish the first may not be the case. Whig.

Exhibition of Manufactures.—The Rotunda of the Capitol yesterday presented a very interesting subject of examination and reflection to the Members of Congress, and all others in the samples of the Manufactures of the United States, which were presented there for exhibition. It is not our intention, at present, to attempt to give an account of the articles exhibited. That shall be done hereafter. It is sufficient, for the present, to say that the manufactured articles exhibit a state of perfection far beyond the general knowledge or belief, and worthy of all praise. The articles were all so excellent, that it would be difficult to say which were most admired: the woollen cloths, flannels, blankets, and iron-works, such as coal grates, &c. seemed to attract the most general attention.

At a future day, we have said we shall give the particulars of the exhibition. Our present object is, to invite all those who are within reach of the invitation, to inspect these fruits of domestic skill and industry.

To afford an opportunity to all persons to see them, we understand that the goods will remain open until the evening of Friday. If it should be determined to have a public sale of the articles exhibited, it will be announced in the newspapers. N. Int. Feb. 23.

Kremer vs. Clay.—It appears that Mr. KREMER has published an address to his constituents in justification of his conduct towards Mr. CLAY. We have not seen this production; but presume, from the circumstance of its being refused a place in the columns of the National Intelligencer, that it is not marked by the most patient spirit even if characterised by truth and candor. The National Journal intimates that Mr. K. is not the writer of the address, but merely an instrument in the hands of others. He is then to be pitied.

Murder.—A report has reached us, (says the Richmond Compiler) that Mr. THOMAS EDWARDS, of King William county, has been murdered by two of his slaves.—It is said that Mr. E. went into his woods to see how two of his sawyers went on. He had previously complained of their being lazy, and threatened some punishment upon them, if they continued to neglect their duty.—He did not return that night to his house, and his absence excited some alarm. The next morning one of his family (perhaps his son) repaired to the spot where the sawyers were at work; and seeing the traces of blood, he became still more uneasy and offered a considerable reward to one of them, if he would inform him what had become of his master. The slave finally confessed, on the preceding day, Mr. E. had been knocked down by one of them with an axe, and horrible to relate! his body had been cut into two, and the pieces secreted in different places; one part was found in the hollow trunk of a tree! It is not yet said, whether all the limbs had been found. His watch, pocket book, &c. &c. had been stolen by his murderers!—The slaves were immediately arrested—and thrown into prison.

Royal Notion.—A writer in a Boston paper suggests the propriety of having our national coin to bear the stamp of the President's face. This is no new thing (remarks the Baltimore American)—it was attempted in the days of Washington, who immediately ordered the die to be broken. The arms of the U. States are substituted for the face of the President, because it is desirable that the image of our country should take precedence of every thing else—because the face of the President might substitute party feeling for national—because it is desirable that our reverence should be paid not to individuals but to laws. A more fatal mode to perpetuate and prolong party animosities, could not be adopted, than the proposed alteration in our national coins.

Very Bad Roads!—The Boston stage coach due at New-York on Friday morning at 8 o'clock, did not arrive till half past 3 p. m. and came in drawn by eight horses.

The full bred Horse

ATLANTIC,

WILL STAND at my Stable, near Vine-Hill Academy, and will be let to Mares at the moderate price of Five Dollars the single leap, (which must be paid down,) Twelve the Season, and Twenty to insure a Mare to be in Foal, with twenty-five cents to the Groom, to be paid soon after service. The insurance money will be claimed in every instance where the owner of the Mare parts with her before it can be ascertained to a certainty that she is not in Foal. Good pasturage gratis, and Mares will be fed if required with grain at twenty-five cents per day.

The greatest care will be taken to prevent accidents and escapes, but no liability for either.

The Season will commence the 1st of March and end the 1st of August.

ATLANTIC,

IS a beautiful chesnut sorrel, full five feet four inches in height, and eight years old the ensuing spring: For elegance of form, as well as activity and spirit, not surpassed by any horse in the United States. His reputation as a sure foal getter being now fully established, and his Colts remarkable for their health and elegance of form, those who are desirous of raising horses for the Turf, or for any other purpose that requires activity or durability, would do well to embrace this opportunity.

PEDIGREE.

ATLANTIC was got by the great horse Sir Archie, his dam, Miss Halifax, by the imported horse Phoenix, his grand dam Miss Jefferson, by the imported horse Diomed, out of Mr. Marmaduke Johnson's Medley and Sentinel Mare, so remarkable for producing racers. Miss Halifax was raised by Mr. Thomas B. Hill, and distanced the field at Halifax in a race when three years old. The imported horse Phoenix was gotten by the imported horse Dragon, in England, his dam Portia by Volunteer, he by Eclipse, out of the old Tartar Mare, which produced sixteen colts after she was fourteen years old; her dam, sister to Sting and Bordeaux, by Cygnet, and also dam of the imported horse Flimnap; her dam by Cortouch, out of the famous mare Ebony, by Basto. ATLANTIC was, no doubt, one among the first rate race horses, as was manifested by his beating Mr. Wynn's famous mare Beggar Girl, two mile heats, for the Jockey Club purse at Tarborough, in 1819, with great ease; after which, in training, he unfortunately got lame, and trained off the turf. Atlantic is now in full health and vigor.
