BRUNSWICK

Mineral Springs.

IT is with much pleasure the Proprietors of the Brunswick Mineral Springs inform the public, that they are now ready for the reception of company. Considerable additions have been made for the comfortable accommodation of visitors. The Stage from Petersburg, Va. and Raleigh, N. C. will convey passengers to our doors. Three large and airy rooms will be exclusively at the disposal of our guests. Guns, Musical Instruments, Chess-men, a selection of Books, Baths, (warm and cold) an assortment of wines, &c. and every desirable article for the table, are provided. So that these Springs will be as desirable a retreat for the invalid, and for those who desire to escape disease, and to enjoy pleasure, as can be found in our State. The Mineral qualities of the waters have not been analysed; but their beneficial effects on those who have used them, in restoring lost health and in giving freshness and bloom to the complexion, are not doubted; and speak more than any analysis could possibly do, in their favor. Grateful for the encouragement received the past season, when they labored under all the disadvantages incident to new undertakings; and convinced by experiment that they can come up to what they promise, the Proprietors will continue to exert themselves to secure the confidence of their friends, and to give satisfaction in every department of their establishment.

Board, per day, $1; Children and servants 50 cents; Horse 75 cents per day.

FRANCIS CAMPBELL.

Tarboro', 26th July, 1827. 50

Notice.

ON Thursday, the 17th inst. an affray took place in Iredell county, between Thomas Harvey and Isaac W. Lawrence, during which Harvey inflicted a wound on Lawrence which soon caused his death. Several persons were present, but Harvey was suffered to escape. He is upwards of 40 years of age, 6 feet high, slender made, black hair, dark eyes, is given to intoxication, when drinking is talkative and quarrelsome; but when sober, his appearance is decent and gentlemanly: can neither read nor write; had on a blue cloth coat, much worn and patched; white vest, pantaloons and hat; has a scar, made by a knife, leading back from one eye towards his ear. The good people of this, and any of the adjoining States, would do well to apprehend the said Thomas Harvey, that he may be bro't to justice.

ANN JOHNSON.

June 21, 1827. 47-5

$20 Reward.

RANAWAY, from our mills at Wilmington, four or five weeks since, a dark mulatto man named CHARLES, 26 or 27 years of age, about 5 feet 7 inches in height, and stoutly built. We purchased Charles in January 1826; he has wrought with our carpenters most of the time since. He was formerly owned by Mr. Louis Readie, of Melville's Creek, Beaufort county, 15 miles below North Washington, on Pamlico.

We have some cause to suspect that he may have joined some runaways belonging either to Sampson or Wake county.

We will give $20 for his apprehension and delivery to us, or $10 on his being safely lodged in any Jail in the State.

Domestic.

Fruits of Intemperance.—An unfortunate occurrence took place on the evening of Thursday, 26th ult. near Brown's mill in this county, (says the Hillsborough Recorder.) A tax-gathering had been held there, and in the evening two neighbors, John Cheek and David Hobbs, much intoxicated, in company with several others set out on their return home. They had not proceeded far, however, before a quarrel arose between Cheek and Hobbs, in which the former received a stab which almost instantly deprived him of life. Hobbs has been committed to jail to answer for the offence.

A good beginning.—In Batavia, New-York, a loving couple were linked together in the bands of matrimony last week, who had no more than made a clear way from the 'Squire's, than they fell too, and had a real box. They, however, parted very lovingly, with no other injury than that of having their faces tolerably scratched.

The tables turned.—A Mobile paper contains the cautionary notice of Joseph Ramsay, which commences thus:

Notice to the Public.—Whereas my lawful wife, Mary Ann Ramsay, has turned me out of doors without any just cause of provocation, I hereby caution the public, &c.

Forcible Arguments.—An affair took place at a Justice Court, in Rochester, N. Y. a few days since, equally singular, ludicrous and disgraceful. Two limbs of the law, who had vainly endeavored to convince each other of the justice of their cause by words, undertook to enforce their argument by blows; and a splendid specimen of pugilism was exhibited to the astonished gaze of the Justice. He recovered speedily, however, and soon brought them back to their briefs, if not to their senses, by threatening to commit them to prison for contempt of Court.
