Melancholy Event.—Died, on Tuesday evening last, in this town, James Boyd, aged 17 years and 6 months. The deceased, in returning from the race course in company with a party of gentlemen, was thrown by his horse against a tree, and received a severe wound upon the head, which he only survived 5 hours. To a numerous train of relations which the deceased left, we offer our heart-felt condolence.

Warrenton Rep.

Casualty.—Mr. James Newby, of Perquimans county, returning home from a meeting in the neighborhood, on Sunday the 6th inst. his horse ran away and threw him, which, in two hours, occasioned his death. We learn that he was a young man in the prime of life, and has left a number of friends to lament his untimely death.

Convention in Virginia.—It appears by a proclamation of the Governor of Virginia, that returns have been received from all the counties, of the votes taken relative to the call of a Convention, Harrison county excepted. They exhibit the following result: For a Convention, 20,825—No Convention, 16,595—majority for it, 4,230. The Whig states, that the vote in the county of Harrison was 1050 for, and 50 against a Convention. The majority is therefore 5230.

Philadelphia, Sept. 12.—Yesterday afternoon, Alberti, one of the county constables, went up into the northern liberties, to a house in Paschal's alley, in quest of two colored persons, man and wife, who were declared to be fugitive slaves. Alberti was accompanied by several persons, and among others by a Southern gentleman, said to be the owner of the colored man and woman. Some resistance was made to the officer, and the woman suffered much from violent proceedings, before she was taken and bound. The man, we understand, escaped. While these things were in process, the colored persons in the neighborhood called together their brethren to the number of four or five hundred, and threatened vengeance upon the whites who had aided in securing the woman. Affairs became so much in earnest that the whites were compelled to seek security in the neighboring houses; and it was not until some gentlemen arrived from the city, that they ventured to leave their places of refuge. We did not learn that the man was subsequently taken.—Gaz.
