S. L. HART, Shff.

Oct. 10, 1828.

Tarborough,

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1828.

Any number of Electoral Tickets, either for Gen. Jackson or Mr. Adams, can be procured at this office at twenty-five cents per hundred, or two dollars per thousand.

Presidential Election.—This day the great the all-important contest commences, which is to decide whether the will of the people shall be paramount in the selection of our Chief Magistrate, or whether that officer shall henceforth be appointed agreeably to 'safe precedents.' Pennsylvania and Ohio are the pioneers of the election—this day they unequivocally sanction or disapprove the manner in which Mr. Adams came into office, and the means resorted to, to sustain him in power. The recent elections in Pennsylvania have removed all doubts respecting her vote; but six of her present Congressional delegation are friendly to the Administration, and all these have received permission to stay at home. Ohio has been generally conceded to the Administration; the recent elections in that State, however, have encouraged the friends of Gen. Jackson to entertain some hopes of obtaining her vote.

On Monday next, the election will be held in Virginia, New-York and several other States. A few days will only intervene, before this distracting question will be put at rest.

(COMMUNICATED.)

At a Quarterly Meeting recently held at Horeb Meeting-house, in the Roanoke Circuit, seven local preachers were expelled the Methodist Episcopal Church, in so far as that Quarterly Meeting had power to do so, without the sanction of any law of God, or known rule of the Discipline of said Church—not, however, for immoral conduct; but for certain efforts on their part to obtain, with the consent of the Church, an extension of representation in the law-making department thereof. One or more appeals to the Annual Conference were taken.

Washington, Oct. 13.

Launch.—A schooner, of about 95 tons, built for Mr. Washington Dixon, for Messrs. John Y. Bonner and Capt. Richard Wilson, was launched at the ship yard in this place on Saturday last. She glided into her element in fine style—is named the Tarborough of Washington.—Echo.

Florida.—We have received the first number of a new paper, printed at Tallahassee, called "The Floridian." The Floridian states, that the crops in Middle Florida have fully realized the expectations of the planters. Cotton partially failed; but the editor thinks it will ultimately prove beneficial to the planters, as it will direct their attention to a more lucrative and certain source of profit, the culture of sugar—the present crop of which will be sufficient for their home consumption—so large quantities for exportation may safely be calculated on the ensuing year.—*Alex. New Market Races commenced on Tuesday, 14th inst. Second day, the Proprietor's purse, $300, two mile heats, was taken at two heats by W. R. Johnson's Star, beating five others. Third day, the Jockey Club purse, $650, four mile heats, was taken at four heats, by Dr. Bolling's Ariel, beating Trumpeter, Red Murdoch and Hippona.

Tree Hill Races commenced on Tuesday, 21st inst. The Sweepstake was taken at two heats by J. M. Selden's Kate Kearney, beating three others, Second day, the Proprietor's purse, $300, two mile heats, was taken at two heats by W. R. Johnson's Slender, beating five others. Third day, Jockey Club purse, $1000, was taken at two heats by J. M. Selden's Kate Kearney, beating Dr. Bolling's Ariel, and W. R. Johnson's Star.

Raleigh, Oct. 17.—At Franklin Superior Court, held last week, Judge Norwood presiding, Wm. Blankenship was found guilty of the murder of a free man of color, by the name of Pendergrass, and sentenced to be hung on the 1st day of November.—Reg.

Raleigh, Oct. 24.

Casualty.—A coroner's inquest was held on Saturday last in this county, on the body of a white man (name unknown) who was found dead on the road leading from Chapel Hill to Northington's Ferry on the Cape-Fear. From the evidence before the Jury, and the situation in which his remains were found, there is no doubt but the deceased came to his death from his clothes taking fire, which he was unable to extinguish. He stated at the house where he obtained fire the preceding evening, that he resided near the Hawfields in Orange. He was middle aged, with a red complexion.—Reg.

Swash.—We have been favored by a friend, with the perusal of a letter from Lieut. Eliason, of Fort Macon, the intelligent engineer appointed to superintend the works at the Swash. He says, 'that a Dredging Machine, with a double set of scoops, possessing from 2½ to 3 times the power of the one recommended by Capt. Bache, in his report to Congress, is to be delivered at Beaufort on the 1st March next, and that it is probable, by the 1st May, the work will be commenced and vigorously prosecuted.' We understand it is the opinion of Mr. Eliason, that the enterprize is not only practicable, but within the compass of small means compared with its magnitude and importance. With the Swash deepened and a central Railway constructed, the effect on the prosperity of the State, and particularly of this town, will be incalculable.—Newbern Spec.

Fly Shuttle Loom.—We went yesterday morning with several gentlemen, to visit Mr. David Reid's weaving establishment in Craven street. He has erected, in company with a Mr. Person, recently arrived from Scotland, a fly shuttle loom, and intends extending the concern. Mr. P. we learn, has been many years engaged as a weaver in extensive English factories, and is a first-rate artist—we found him intelligent and civil, and returned highly gratified with our visit. The machine appears simple, of but little cost, and easy of repair. There were warped on it 260 yards of thread, and we are informed that a day's work was from 20 to 30 yards of cloth twilled, to go 6 or 8 yards to the pound. The weaving was beautifully done, and with astonishing facility. We call the attention of our Jackson friends to it, as the most effectual, as well as constitutional remedy against the operation of the Tariff; indeed we recommend it to the patronage of the public as likely to prove a very convenient establishment; and in particular to our female friends, from whose decision there is no appeal.—ibid.

Lusus Natura.—About three weeks since, the wife of Mr. Nathan Allman, living in this county, about ten miles east of this town, was delivered of a male child, with neither hands nor feet. The arms are perfect as far as the wrist joints, which terminate in a blunt cloven end, not unlike a goat's foot: the legs are wanting below where the knee-joints should be; near the end of the right leg are two knots, on opposite sides of the limb, resembling deformed toes. The child is healthy, and bids fair to grow up.

At the fall term of the Superior Court for Rowan county, Judge Ruffin presiding, Solomon Pickle was tried and convicted for passing counterfeit money, (dollars, and Virginia five dollar bills.) George Ring was also convicted as an accomplice of Pickle's. They were sentenced to receive 39 lashes on the bare back, and pay all costs.—ib.

An extraordinary woman.—There now resides in Montgomery county, (Tenn.) a lady in the 55th year of her age, who weighs 510 pounds. Her stature is rather low; she is the mother of ten children, nine of whom are living, and she says none of her relations are above the ordinary size. At 20 years of age she weighed 135 pounds, commenced becoming corpulent at the age of about 30; her general health is good, but from her unwieldy size she can walk but a few steps.

MARRIED,

At the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Long, near Halifax, on Wednesday evening, 29th inst. Mr. Reading S. Blount, of Greenville, to Miss Louisa Long.

"Oh! if to finite state be given
Some emanation from above,
Some foretaste of a brighter heaven,
'Tis woman with her smiles of love."
