None are allowed to progress in any study more rapidly than a perfect comprehension of its principles will admit. The discipline is precisely that of a well ordered family. Corporeal punishment will never be resorted to; but whenever a scholar shall manifest, by his refractory conduct, that he is beyond the influence of affectionate reproof, his expulsion will immediately ensue.

It can hardly be necessary to state that every attention will be paid to the morals of those committed to our charge. That we will endeavor to impress, permanently upon the minds of our pupils, a love of religious truth, and to induce them, by faithful culture, to "grow up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."
