With sentiments of esteem,
I remain yours respectfully,

The Oxford Examiner contains the following letter addressed to the Editor of the Carolina (Salisbury) Watchman:—

Oxford, Oct. 15th, 1832.

Hamilton Jones, Esq.

Sir:—In your paper of the 6th inst. it is stated that Judge Barbour is no longer a candidate for the Vice Presidency, and that I had received a letter from him authorising such an inference. I know not who your informant may be, but he has certainly mistaken the mark widely, for I have received no letter from Mr. Barbour, in which he either declines or intimates any intention of doing so, but on the contrary expressly states that he has never felt any solicitude on the subject, and that he is only desirous to do, what in the posture in which he is placed he ought to do, for he had never in any way presented himself to the people for the appointment—that it is a voluntary movement on their part without consulting him, and a matter belonging exclusively to them, with which he positively declined all interference. Now if this amounts to withdrawal, then has he withdrawn. Justice to Judge Barbour and his friends requires that you make this statement public with as little delay as possible.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully,
Your obed't. serv't.

JOS. H. BRYAN.

Raleigh, Nov. 2.—It becomes our duty to notice another diabolical attempt to fire our city. At about 4 o'clock, on Saturday morning last, a shed room attached to the smoke house of Charles Manly, Esq. was discovered to be on fire. The citizens promptly assembled, and, with considerable exertions, stopped the further progress of the flames. No fire had been used near the place for some time; and, from the circumstance of a tin cup, with coals in it, and some remnants of light wood, being found under the floor of the shed, at the spot where the fire originated, no doubt exists as to its being the work of an incendiary.—Star.

The Cholera still continues to exist in our town—but by the following statement it will be seen that it has very considerably abated since last week. The fact that no new case has occurred for the last three or four days, furnishes ground for the hope, that this disease has nearly completed its work in Edenton, and that it will soon cease to be seen among us.

Deaths for the week ending Oct. 31, 5; of which 3 were by Cholera.

Edenton Miscellany.

South Carolina.—The extra session of the Legislature of this State was expected to close on the 26th ult. On the 24th, "A bill to provide for the calling of a Convention," to assemble at Columbia on the third Monday of November, "then and there to take into consideration the several acts of the Congress of the U. S. imposing duties on foreign imports for the protection of domestic manufactures, or for other unauthorised objects," &c. passed to a third reading in both Houses. The vote in the Senate was 31 to 13—and in the House, 96 to 24. A letter from Columbia says: "The disposition of the Union party here, is to stand by the State, go into Convention, and abide by the decision."

DIED,

In this place, on Saturday evening last, aged 8 months and 7 days, Thomas Hall, son of Mr. Thomas D. Gatlin.

Warrenton Academy.

THE Trustees of this Institution, and many of the citizens of the Town and vicinity, sensible of the importance of again placing it on the high eminence it maintained so many years; have by subscription and voluntary donation been enabled to raise a large salary, and the Committee appointed to procure a Teacher for the ensuing year, now inform the public, and all those who may be disposed to patronise this School, that they have engaged the services of Doctor THOMAS J. VAIDEN, as Principal. He has been educated mainly at the University of Virginia, is a Virginian by birth, and comes highly recommended, not only as a scholar himself, but as having a happy and peculiar talent of imparting instruction to his scholars, and of exercising a mild yet efficient government.

All the branches of Education taught in other popular institutions, will be taught here, and on the same terms. Board can readily be procured in respectable families, and on terms as moderate as elsewhere.

The first session will commence on the 1st Monday in January next.
