

effect, that though they will not violently obstruct the operation of the Ordinance, yet they will not submit to a violent ejection from the offices, whether civil or military, of which they may now be seized.

The following federal officers have been removed by the President, in consequence of their being in favor of the doctrine of Nullification: Major Laval, Collector of Charleston; Messrs. Hayne and Holmes, officers of the Customs; and Morton A. Waring, U. S. Marshal for the District of South Carolina.

Congress.—The Committee of Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, have, we learn from the National Intelligencer, obtained leave to sit during the sitting of the House. "It is understood that the Committee have under consideration the subject of the Tariff, and are preparing a bill for the reduction of the duties on imports." It is the prevailing opinion that nothing but an immediate repeal of the present Tariff acts, and a gradual reduction of the duties on the protected articles, can preserve the Union. We are glad, therefore, to see this important matter agitated so early in the session. It augurs favorably—and leads us to hope, that a speedy modification of the Tariff, will be effected, and South Carolina pacified. If our hopes in this respect should not be realized—if the friends of the American System should fail to act with that magnanimity and spirit of concession called for by the emergencies of the times, and considerations of patriotism, the worst consequences are to be apprehended—for much as the people of the other States, deprecate the ill-devised step which South Carolina has adopted—yet there are few, very few, among them who would be willing to participate in bringing her to subjection by force of arms. It should be the object of every well wisher of the Union to prevent the shedding of blood! Blood can never cement our Union—and the first drop that crimson the soil of South Carolina, in a contest with the General Government, may be regarded as the signal of dissolution.—Raleigh Constitutionalist.

We learn from Raleigh, that on Monday last, Thomas Settle, of Rockingham, was elected Judge of the Superior Courts of this State, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the election of Judge Swain as Governor. On the first balloting Gavin Hogg received 77 votes, Settle 66, R. M. Saunders 36, scattering 3—Saunders being withdrawn, on the second balloting Settle received 104 votes, Hogg 77, scattering 12.

On Wednesday, an unsuccessful balloting for a Judge of the Supreme Court, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Hall, took place; when the vote stood thus: for John D. Toomer 68, Henry Seawell, 46, Joseph J. Daniel 44, Frederick Nash 9, Robert Strange 3, scattering and blank 12.

The Board of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, truly regret that they are under the necessity of informing the public, that they will not have it in their power to commence the Exercises of the Wake Forest Institute so soon as was contemplated. They have found it impracticable to procure the services of such Instructors, et cetera, as the character of the Institution and the expectation of the public demanded, at so early a period as was at first intended. As they are unwilling to be precipitate in arrangements of this kind, and as they could not conveniently commence the operations of a School of the description proposed at any other season of the year, it was deemed most expedient that the postponement should extend to February, 1834. This is the period, therefore, now fixed by the Board for the commencement of operations in this Seminary. On this arrangement the public may confidently rely, unless the wishes and plans of the Board should be defeated by circumstances utterly beyond their control. When suitable arrangements shall have been made for commencing the School, seasonable information will be given to the public, and an individual designated to whom applications for admission may be made. It is earnestly requested that those brethren and friends who have given pledges for the purchase of the Farm will forward their several sums to A. J. BATTLE, at Tarborough, and that continued efforts be made to collect other funds for the purpose of making necessary improvements and furnishing the Farm with the proper implements for cultivating it.

By order of the Board,
A. J. BATTLE, Rec. Sec.
