The Rail Road is again revived, and we are informed that active steps are taking to procure a survey of the route from Weldon to some point near Oxford, or higher up. As we have before said the interest of the people demands such step to be taken. It ought to be done—and it can be done, if the people interested will only awake from their slumber and do their duty.—Oxford Eham.

Newbern, March 1.—The sailors who are in prison for the murder of Mr. Worthington, had joined the Dallas only a few weeks before, and were ashore on liberty at the time of the occurrence. We make this explanation in justice to the very orderly crew that has been attached to that vessel while on this station...Spec.

In Trenton, Jones county, a few days ago, a quarrel took place between James Conner and James Hazard, which terminated fatally. The former wounded Hazard so severely with a knife, that he died on the following day. Conner is held to bail for his appearance at Court.ib.

Another Warning.—Nancy Hines, an unfortunate woman of this place, who sacrificed oftener to Bacchus than to the Graces, fell a victim to the bottle on Monday last. While in a state of intoxication, she incautiously approached the fire, which communicated with her clothes, and before assistance arrived she was so badly burned that she expired a few hours after.—ib.

Remarkable Suicide.—A Boston paper of the 13th ult. says: Yesterday morning, about 8 o'clock, soon after the lad opened the store of Messrs. Bradlee & Son, No. 142, Washington-street, he found in the first chamber, the bodies of Mr. John B. Carter, aged 23, and Miss Mary Bradlee, aged about 19, suspended by a silk handkerchief, from a rope which formerly suspended a scale beam. The bodies were cold, their hands clasped, and their faces and lips in contact. They had stood facing each other—one upon two shopsteps, the other upon a box, placed in a chair.

Mr. Carter and Miss Bradlee were engaged to be married to each other, with the approbation and consent of their several parents. During the autumn of 1831, Mr. Carter, who had long kept in the store of Mr. Bradlee, went to New Orleans to do business there and Mr. B. having the misfortune to lose his son, his junior partner wrote to Mr. C. as his future son-in-law, that if his prospects were not very good he would like him to return to Boston and assist him in his business. Mr. C. returned last autumn, and entered the store of Mr. B. accordingly. During the present winter, Mr. Bradlee proposed to sell out his stock to Mr. Carter; but no definite arrangement was concluded between them, owing to their not precisely agreeing upon the terms, although no unkind words or feelings resulted from the transaction.

Mr. Carter remarked to Mr. Bradlee about this time, that if he did not purchase the stock, he should be married and go to New Orleans to commence business. Mr. B. remonstrated against his doing so, in consequence of the feeble health of his daughter, and expressed the same aversion that any father would, at having his daughter to reside so far from home and in an unhealthy climate. But no interruption of the kindest feelings towards each other were excited. At this time, also, Miss Bradlee expressed to the father of Mr. Carter, that they proposed being married, and going to New Orleans, when the latter expressed his disapprobation of so doing, until his son should be established in business there.

Four letters were left by them, but they contained nothing which could throw any light upon the transaction, except that the act was voluntarily with both, and deliberately resolved upon.

Indian Barbarity.—The Tusculum Alabamian gives the particulars of a barbarous murder recently committed in the Chickasaw country, about 25 miles from that place, on the person of a young man named James Kerby. Three Indians have been arrested and committed to the jail of Lauderdale county, there to await their trial before the next Circuit Court of Franklin county.

Dreadful Accident at Rocketts.—The Richmond Whig of the 23d ult. says:—On yesterday forenoon, while engaged in firing a feu de joie in honor of the day, Captain Tyler, of the Valiant, had his bowels in a great measure torn out by the unexpected discharge of the cannon, which he was loading at the time. The rammer passed into his body, doing great injury to the liver and other viscera. Every medical aid that the case admitted of was promptly furnished, but to no purpose.—He expired this morning, at 8 o'clock, much regretted by all who knew him.

FOREIGN.

Latest from Europe.—The ship New York, from Liverpool, brings papers from London to the 15th January. The demand for Cotton in the Liverpool market, for the week preceding the 12th, had been unusually extensive, and holders of all kinds realized some little advance. The following is a brief abstract of the political intelligence.

The answer of the King of Holland to the proposition submitted by the Allied Powers, had been received and was understood to be conciliatory. The army of Marshal Gerard was returning to France—and the Prince of Orange had left the Dutch head quarters.

A Congress of European powers was expected shortly to assemble at Frankfort. The King of the French, on his progress to review the army of the North, was every where received with the greatest enthusiasm.

The King of Spain, since his partial recovery, has formally protested against and annulled, the decree issued during his illness relative to the succession.

The recent Parliamentary elections in Great Britain resulted, according to the official returns, in the choice of 513 Reformers, and 144 Conservatives—a proportion of nearly five to one in favor of liberal principles.

Ireland was represented to be in a frightful state indeed—the whole country is in commotion, and clergymen and other obnoxious individuals flying into the towns for the preservation of their lives. O'Connell had called a Convention to assemble in Dublin, with the determination to nullify certain acts of the British Government—and the London Editors declare there is a "striking resemblance" between the position in which Ireland at this time stands to England, and that of South Carolina to the Federal authorities of the United States.

The prospects of Don Pedro in Portugal, are daily becoming more gloomy. The Rival, which sailed from Greenock for Oporto, on the 22d of November, with a crew of 37 men and 428 passengers for the services of Don Pedro, was totally lost on the 4th of December, near Galway, and every soul on board perished.
