

outs had not been properly placed, and, before the error could be corrected, the Engine and Tender, under a heavy press of steam, were precipitated off the rails. The Engineer and attendants were thrown out, but escaped with no other injury than a few trifling bruises. The engine does not appear, from a hasty examination, to have been materially injured. The tender had her supply pipe broken and the reservoir much shattered. The passenger coaches escaped without the least injury. It is a remarkable circumstance that the only personal injury, of any consequence, caused by this accident, was that sustained by the black man who was endeavoring to arrange the turn out, but not being able to get out of the way in time, the Engine knocked him down, and the wheels passed over the ends of the fingers of one hand.

The transportation of produce and passengers will suffer no interruption from this accident, the Company having immediately placed on the line a sufficient number of horses, by which means the communication will be kept up until the Locomotive is repaired, or the arrival of others; two of which are daily expected from Liverpool.—Petersburg Times.

The Boston Suicide.—The Boston papers contain a few additional particulars respecting the melancholy suicide of which an account was published in our last paper. It appears that in the letter which Carter left directed to Mr. Bradlee, "he stated that he had been unfortunate, that he was tired of the world, and took this mode of leaving it: that he wished his friends would forgive him and her, and that it was her request that both might be buried together in Mr. B.'s tomb under Trinity Church. In Miss Bradlee's trunk at home, was also found a letter in her own hand writing, in which she thanked her parents for all their kindness; and asked forgiveness of them for this last act of leaving them in this manner."

The Boston Centinel adds that "within a few weeks Carter had received 3500 dollars on some real estate which he owned, and he immediately lost it, as he said, in Boston in some speculation, which he had declined giving any account of to Mr. Bradlee or to any of his friends, although he acknowledged that he had lost it, and was requested to state in what manner."

We have some additional verbal rumors—one of which is, that Carter had squandered money not his own at New Orleans. Of Miss Bradlee, the best account is given. Her reputation was unblemished, and her mind was any thing but romantic. No doubt she was persuaded to the horrible act by him in whose guilty arms she perished.

The bodies of Mr. Carter and Miss Bradlee were buried in the same tomb.

Mr. Bradlee is truly a bereaved and heart-broken man. But a short time since, his son and partner died of consumption; and last summer he lost another child, by the parting of a wheel tire, as she was looking out of a carriage window in which they were returning from the country.

FOREIGN.

Free Trade.—It is stated in a late English paper, upon what is considered semi-official authority, that the British government have determined to throw open the East India trade, with the exception only of the article of Tea, and that even that is under consideration.

Central America.—Letters and papers from Central America have been received by the Department of State, which represent that country as recovering from the effects of the late dissensions. The Constitutional Party appear to have triumphed completely, and what is most encouraging, rather by the general consent of the people than by force of arms.

Mexico.—Peace has been restored to Mexico, and Gen. Pedraza placed at the head of the new government.

The Rev. Burwell Temple has made the following appointments to preach, viz: At Toisnot, on the 17th March; Upper Town Creek, on the 18th; Falls of Tar River, on the 19th; Wil-

DEAFNESS.

REMEDY therefore is to be had of Dr. GREEN, Reading and Bethlehem, State of Pennsylvania. 'Tis to be taken inwardly. 'Tis innocent and cures by strengthening the nerves. As many, many cases of deafness are caused by nervous weakness, consequently, people of this class soon get their hearing again. Persons can live as usual; can eat and drink what tastes best, moderately, therefore it will be more of a pleasure than a task to use the remedy.

For Five Dollars a sufficiency is sent for two persons, per mail free of postage, and is so sent on, from time to time, if necessary, until a cure is performed without any additional charge. The five dollars are merely considered as a friendly reward for the Doctor's time and mental labor that he devotes to his applicants; and out of which the postage of all letters are also paid.

No charge is made for the cure. No; when people get their hearing again it can't be paid with money. Let such people offer up prayers to God, and not to the physician; for it is to him that praise is due, not to man. The farmer giveth seed to the earth, but a kind Providence giveth harvest. So, on similar principles, the physician giveth remedy to the sick, but that same kind Providence giveth health. Let us be thankful.

HEARING RESTORED.

Mr. Printer: "Whatever has a tendency to lessen the sum of human misery ought to be published, and made known to the distressed, and to the sick."—Extract from Dr. Franklin's works. York County, State of Pennsylvania, September 23, 1831.

Dear Sir: I have been informed of your helping those that were troubled with Deafness, and as I have, for fifteen years past, been more or less troubled with this affliction; and by the information I have of your honor and good sense, I put complete confidence in sending money to you, and expecting not only an answer, but help also. I have heretofore heard much about such a man as you, but never saw the person who had received any benefit from your medical skill, until Mr. John Chandler, one of our neighbors, after using your remedy, has got his hearing again as good as ever, and by him learning where you live, I make bold in addressing you in hopes that I may receive the same help, and get my hearing again also, as my neighbor Chandler did.

I send a bank note, and wish you would do as well to me as you have done to others. Do, try your best, and make me hear again as I and all our neighbors have such great faith in what we've heard and seen. Your friend and well wisher,
A. H. TISSANY.

To Doctor GREEN, Reading, Pa.

N. B. Some folks in our parts, have had their eye-sight restored, through the strengthening virtue of the same remedy that restored the hearing of John Chandler. This gives to us additional hopes of help.
A. TISSANY.

Editors who publish the above will be entitled to the Remedy, for their kindness, as, at times, some of their neighbors may be in distress and want some.

Opposite E. P. Guion's Eagle Hotel.

THE Subscriber, desirous of extending his business, and ever willing to comply with the solicitations of his friends and patrons, has opened the above establishment under the superintendance of a foreman, recently from Philadelphia, where he has conducted one of the first stores in our line, and stands unrivalled in the abilities of the trade. The Subscriber has also engaged several workmen from the North, who are not to be excelled by any. He further begs leave to state that he has become a regular correspondent with E. MINISTER, of London, from whom he will receive the latest London and Paris fashions by the first arrivals. He also intends furnishing the above establishment with a general assortment of Superfine Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, together with a great variety of Shirts, Bosoms, Cravats, Collars, Stocks, Gloves and Suspenders, all of the first quality; which being purchased for cash in New York, he will be enabled to furnish to order on the most reasonable terms. With the above advantages and the superiority of his goods, his unremitting attention to business, and the punctuality of his word, he hopes to obtain a sufficient share of public favor to warrant his long continuance; and, if prejudice has not gone beyond the reach of abilities, to supercede the necessity of his fashionable fellow-citizens sending to the North for clothing, which is attended with many disadvantages—the uncertainty of transportation, cutting by imagination, and the liability of imposition. Gentlemen furnishing their own goods, will have every attention paid them. Ladies' habits and military and fancy work of every description executed in the neatest style and according to order. Travellers and others may be furnished with a suit complete in twelve hours notice. Early in the fall will be found on hand a general assortment of ready made clothing, suitable for the season.
