

red the legs of the culprit, and arranged the rope, the handkerchief was drawn over his eyes. The Sheriff and his deputy descended from the scaffold—the Sheriff said stand up Washington; 'Yes, Sir,' he replied firmly—his voice quailed not—not a muscle moved nor joint trembled. The drop fell and he was launched into eternity. After some slight movements of the shoulders, he was still—locked in the cold embraces of death. Be he innocent or guilty, he met death with a firmness which we deemed almost impossible.

The crowd dispersed—no disorder was committed, and the day passed off without accident of any kind.—Oxford Ex.

Melancholy Shipwreck.—The schooner Elizabeth, of Bordentown, N. J. Douglass, master, from Plymouth, N. C. with a cargo of staves and shingles, bound to Kingston, Jamaica, sailed from the former place on the 7th March, and from Ocracoke on the 13th, and on the 16th following, sprung aleak and immediately filled with water. On the next day her foremast was carried away. The crew, with the exception of Thomas Bozman, mate, who was drowned; Nathan Phelps and Samuel McCarty, seamen, who perished for want of water, were taken off the wreck ten days after, (during which time they had nothing to subsist on but a few potatoes) by Capt. Harding, of schr. Banner, from Plymouth, bound to Kingston, who transferred them, on the 31st, to the schr. Jason, Duncan, of and for Folly Landing, from St. Thomas, which put into Hampton Roads yesterday, for the purpose of landing them. The surviving crew lost every thing but the clothes which they had on. Mr. Bozman and Phelps, belonged to Plymouth, N. C. and McCarty to Baltimore.

Norfolk Herald.

Another melancholy Shipwreck.—The schooner which was sunk below the light boat, in the heavy gale on Sunday night last, was the Friends, Capt. Anderson, from Newport's News, with a cargo of sand for the Dry Dock. All on board, four in number, went down with the vessel. She lies in about 11 fathoms' water. The schooner belonged to Capt. Freeman, of Portsmouth.—ib.

The Collector of the port of New Orleans has received an anonymous letter enclosing $500, being the amount of certain duties of which the writer had defrauded the government.

Singular Occurrence.—A short time since, near Brownsville, Pa. a Mr. Daniels and his wife left home leaving three or four small children; soon after a large dog of Mr. D.'s made an attack upon one of them; she endeavored to escape by running, but without effect; he then dragged her about fifteen yards from the house; becoming wearied, he laid down a few moments, and again renewed the attack: he then became thirsty, ran to a spring, when the other children ran and dragged her into the house, but before the door was closed he renewed the attack; the rest eventually succeeded in getting him out. She was literally chewed to pieces, and but little hopes of her recovery were entertained.—Ohio Rep.

A vessel lately arrived at New York from Europe, with 3,820 bushels of wheat, to feed the Americans. Another from Constantinople with 9,000 bushels of Barley, to make beer of!! We opine that our farmers will ere long find that protection to their interests, as well as those of American manufactures, is necessary for their welfare, as well as that of the country.—ib.

Emancipation.—Rev. Richard Bibb, an old and respectable inhabitant of Russellville, Ky. has liberated thirty-two slaves, and sent them to Liberia, by the expedition, which will sail shortly from New Orleans. He furnished $444 in all to these unfortunate beings, and a sufficiency of clothing.

The Montreal Spectator mentions that the wife of a Mr. Trotter, aged 40, died suddenly at St. Laurent a few days since, being near her confinement. Dr. Moreau was called twenty minutes after her death, and effected upon her the Cæsarian operation. The result was, three living infants, two boys and a girl; two of these died immediately, the third lived four days by artificial respiration.

Printers' Rights.—A case has been decided in New York in favor of the New York Daily Sentinel, against Lee, Powell & Co. wherein the principle was confirmed that persons receiving a newspaper, without ordering it discontinued, are liable in all cases for the payment of the same.

Cotton Gin for Sea Islands.—We learn by a letter from the Messrs. Whittemore, (the great land mechanists of West Cambridge, near Boston) that one of them may soon be expected in this city with a Patent Machine for separating the seed from the cotton without injuring the staple. Those who have seen it in operation, speak with the utmost confidence of its certain and complete success.—Charleston Mer.

North-western Indians.—An association has been formed in Detroit, "for encouraging Missionary efforts in evangelizing the north-western tribes, and promoting education, agriculture, industry, peace, and temperance among them." It is called the "Algie Society." Henry R. Schoolcraft, Esq. author of several valuable works relating more or less to the Indians, is President of the Association.

WILLIS HAMMONDS,

Aged about 16 years, tolerably stout built, bright complexion and bushy head.
