

Mr. Rush (late Secretary of the Treasury) has just given to Press a volume, entitled, 'memoranda of a residence at the Court of London, by Richard Rush, Envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States of America, from 1817 to 1825.'—Columbia Tel.

John Randolph's property, we learn, left by him to his heirs, is immense, probably amounting nearly to a million of dollars, in tobacco plantations on the Roanoke, negroes, race hofses, bank stock, &c. &c. It is all left to his half sister and two half brothers, whose names are Tucker. His plantation on the Roanoke is one of the finest in that country.

It is generally believed that his recent opinions about the United States Bank, have been grossly exaggerated. He was, in his lucid intervals, as he ever had been, opposed to banks—all were unconstitutional.

John Randolph was born on the 2nd June, 1773—he was, therefore, at the time of his death, 59 years 11 months and 21 days old. His coffin bore the date of his birth day.—Pennsylvanian.

Rhode Island—It appears from the proceedings of the legislature of Rhode Island that the Attorney General of that State has instituted a process in the Supreme Court of the United States, against the State of Massachusetts, in relation to the boundary line between the States.

Washington, May 31.—We notice with high gratification the increasing prosperity of our town—the spirit of improvement is abroad & pervades all classes of our citizens—several commodious stores are going up and others repairing—all the dwelling houses with perhaps a solitary exception are occupied—the Steam Mill of Messrs. Tannahill & Lavender is now in successful operation, and promises to reward its enterprising owners even beyond their most sanguine expectations—our wharves present the busy and cheerful bustle attendant on the arrival & departure of numerous vessels, and our merchants with their stores well supplied with various articles of necessity, and luxury, seem in no want of customers, while they vie with each other in reducing their goods to the lowest rates. We invite our country friends to come and see.

Since writing the above we have been informed that Mr. S. L. Thomas is erecting a Marine Railway on an improved plan.—Union.

Newbern, May 31.—On Sunday last our river and harbour were enlivened by the arrival of thirteen sail of vessels. A majority of them were from ports beyond the State.

The Norfolk Herald states, on the authority of a gentleman from Newbern, that there are now between twenty and thirty vessels building in this place and its immediate neighbourhood, calculated for and intended to trade through the Dismal Swamp Canal.—This is news to us.—Spectator.

Rise of The Water Courses.—The remarkable spell of wet weather which has visited us for nearly the whole of the month of May, has had the effect of raising the Water courses in all quarters of the Union. The Freshet has been very high and destructive in the Hudson, the Susquehanna, the Connecticut, and other rivers of the North. And in our own State, the rains, particularly those which fell on Thursday and Friday week have swollen our rivers, so as to impede their navigation—delay the communication of our roads—drown the corn fields in our low lands, and do great damage to the wheat on the low grounds of the James, Appomattox, Pamunkey, and Mattaponi. The two last particularly have risen to a height unequalled since 1814.

The corn may partially recover in the bottoms, from the effects of the inundation—but the wheat in many fields is irremediably destroyed. The prospects of the harvest, which were so fine some weeks since, have been seriously blighted not only by the fresh on the margins of our rivers, but some of it has been injured by the excessive wet on the high grounds—the joints, and straw in some cases, having rotted. The wheat was partially injured also by the fly—and in some fields by the smut, viz: the cells of the head being prevented from filling on account of the farina being washed away by the ruin. We have heard some farmers estimate the loss to Virginia in the wheat crop at scarcely less than a million of dollars!—Richmond Eng.

James Reed recovered, before the Supreme Court of Greenfield, Mass. 900 dollars damages and $250 costs of the town of Northfield, for an injury sustained by the state of bad roads in that town. This is a salutary admonition to other towns to take heed to their ways.

A Diplomatic Defaulter.—T. Grothe, Charge d'Affaires of Holland to Mexico, it is said after getting in debt 30,000 dollars, has decamped and arrived at New Orleans. The Secretary of State of Mexico has given notice to his creditors to present the evidence of their claims, which he intends to present to and demand payment of, the government of Holland.

Stop the Murderer.—Governor Hayne (of South Carolina) has offered a reward of two hundred dollars for the apprehension and delivery of Robert F. Stephens, (charged with the murder of his wife,) to any Sheriff or Jailer of said State. The said Stephens is represented to be between thirty and thirty five years of age, about six feet high, of a fair complexion, with sandy hair, bald headed and draws the hair from the back part of his head over the bald part to hide it; talks quick and low, smiles while talking, and with something of a down look.

A Singular Family.—It is stated in the Montreal Vindicator, that there are now living in the same house in Upper Canada, one grandfather, one father, one great grand uncle, two grand uncles, two uncles, two nephews, one grand nephew, two brothers-in-law, two daughters, one mother, one grand aunt, one sister-in-law, two grand neices, one widower, one widow, one bachelor, and one young woman; and yet this family consists of only four persons.

Murder.—On the 11th inst. Mr. Samuel Sayre, his wife, and a colored female servant, who resided near Morristown, N. J. were murdered, by a Swiss whom he had employed at New York about 3 weeks previously. The house was robbed of money and clothing, and he also took a horse: He was pursued, taken near New York, brought back and imprisoned to await his trial. The bodies of Mr. Sayre and his wife were found buried under a dung heap at the stable, the colored woman was murdered in the house. When arrested the prisoner was on foot: Another Swiss has since been apprehended in the Bergen woods with Mr. S.'s horse in his possession.

A borrowed Horse.—An action was lately decided in the supreme court of Rhode Island, before Judge Wild, in which William Newhall obtained a verdict against John Webster for the value of a horse which had been drowned about two years since. Webster had borrowed the horse from the plaintiff to go from the town of Fall River to Providence; on his return, and after he had crossed the river the horse became restive, backed into the river and was drowned. The Jury awarded the plaintiff damages to the amount of 125 dollars.
