

nation on the part of the northern fanatics to risk every thing to destroy the peace of these States, and to plunge us into difficulties. The fourth number of a periodical called the Anti Slavery Reporter, published in New York by John G. Whittier, no doubt under the auspices of Tappan & Co. was handed to us a few days ago by a gentleman to whom it was addressed, with a request that we would publicly express his disapprobation of the introduction of such writings into a society where their effects cannot be other than injurious. This we do with pleasure; and we will add what may tend to dampen the unholy ardor of those blood-thirsty hypocrites, that their pamphlets will meet with a similar reception from every sensible and influential person in the South.—Spec.

Sleepy Jurors.—During a trial before our Superior Court last week, two of the Jurors yielded to the allurements of Morpheus and fell fast asleep. Their happy insensibility to passing events was not observed till the other ten had retired from the box, when they were recalled to their senses, or perhaps more properly, were compelled to open their eyes, and follow. On their return, the Judge rebuked them in such terms as ought to banish sleep for a twelvemonth, and fined each of them ten dollars.—ib.

The patent work basket again.—A worthy neighbor called on us last week and gave us some additional information concerning "the affair of the foot-stove." It turns out that the honest vender was not a yankee, as we had been led to believe, but a genuine Carolinian, and what is worse still, of our own county! While we thus make the amende honorable to the "yankee" whom we unwittingly traduced, we congratulate those whom it concerns that our State is not entirely destitute of talent for honorable enterprise.—ib.

Distressing.—Mr. Richard N. Jacocks of this county was drowned in Cashie river on Thursday the 17th instant. We understand that on that day he started down the river in a small canoe, with the intention of going to his sister's, a few miles distant. On the Saturday after, the canoe was discovered, having in it his coat and hat, which had no doubt been taken off to avoid too great heat in paddling. Suspicion immediately arose that he had accidentally fallen overboard and was drowned, and instant search for his body was commenced, which was found on Monday morning last. Mr. Jacocks was a temperate, moral, unassuming, and highly respected gentleman, in the prime of life, and there are many who sincerely sympathise with his aged mother and other relatives in their unfortunate bereavement.—Windsor Herald.

David Owens was tried and convicted at the Superior Court for Davidson county, for an assault with an intent to commit a rape on his own daughter. We have witnessed many degrading and debasing things in human nature; but such loathed and damning sins as this, lives far below any thing we were ever able to imagine! We understand, however, that there is a case in this county, where a man—if God will pardon us for degrading the workmanship of his hands by calling him a man—who is raising up a family of children by his own daughter! Why the officers of the law have so long overlooked him—or why the wrath of heaven yet sleeps, is a mystery to us! We shall recur to this subject again. We wish to collect more proof, before we hand the name of the debased creature to the world.—Greensboro' Patriot.

A man named Norman Gillis was arrested at Elizabeth, in Bladen county, on Friday last, on suspicion of being the individual who robbed and burnt the dwelling house of Mr. McKinnon, in Moore county, and murdered the negro girl, as mentioned in this paper of the 15th inst. $195 in cash was found upon him, and he accounted for 30 or $40 more which he had expended. He was, after examination, committed. Mr. McKinnon was here on Saturday last, in pursuit of the same man, before it was known that he had been arrested.

Serious Accident.—On Wednesday a gentleman by the name of Booth, a merchant from Edenton, N. C. was in the act of jumping from the car on the rail road near Newcastle, (Del.) he fell into the track on which they were running the baggage car—one of the persons employed in removing the baggage, attempted to draw him out, but unfortunately not in time. The first wheel passed over both his legs near the body, the second a little lower down, and the third over one leg below the knee. He was not expected to live when the steamboat left Newcastle.

The Philadelphia Commercial Herald of Friday last, states that Mr. Booth had submitted to the amputation of one of his legs; that he was then at the City Hotel, doing well.—Norfolk Beacon.

Indian Treaty.—We learn from the Globe of Monday: "That a treaty has been negotiated with the Indians west of Lake Michigan, for the cession of all their lands between that Lake and the Mississippi, and of their reservations in the peninsula of Michigan. The Commissioners, Gov. Porter, Col. Owen, and Col. Weatherford, have procured the relinquishment of the Indian title to this valuable region upon favorable terms, and deserve much credit for the successful result of the negotiation. This cession extinguishes the whole Indian title to land north of the Ohio, and east of the Mississippi, with the exception of the Miami reservation on the Wabash, and the district north of Grand River, in Michigan."

Joseph Lancaster, the zealous and untiring friend of popular education, is now living in poverty, in Canada; in the evening of a long life of vicissitude, reduced to entire dependence. Subscriptions have been opened to aid him, simultaneously in Canada, England and the city of New York. It is proposed in Britain, to raise an annuity that shall embrace his wants, and exempt him, during the remainder of his life, from the multiplied miseries of an old age of poverty.

Prolific.—Within the month of August, a young lady of the city of Schenectady, N. Y. was delivered of five children at one birth!!! The mother and children are all alive, healthy and likely to live. A thousand dollars were raised in the city and given to the mother as a premium. The young lady has since been married to the father of the infants.

Mammoth Hog.—We have seen a handbill respecting a mammoth hog, which we are informed, is now exhibiting on board a canal boat at Albany. According to the handbill, the hog was raised in Warren county, Ohio, is upwards of three years old; it weighs fourteen hundred pounds! measures nine feet in length, eight feet four inches in circumference, and three feet eleven inches in height. It is the largest that we ever heard of.—New York Paper.

DIED,

In Raleigh, on Saturday morning last, at an advanced age, of a chronic affection of the liver, Peter Browne, Esq. late President of the State Bank, and a gentleman of great legal attainments. Mr. B. came to this country from Scotland, at an early age, destitute of friends and fortune; but such were the rare endowments of his mind, and the method which entered into all his arrangements, that he speedily rose to eminence in his profession, and accumulated great wealth. He has left no relatives in the United States to inherit his large fortune.—Ral. Reg.
