WHITE & BLUME.
Petersburg, Oct. 16. 5-3

Lawrence & Lemay's
NORTH CAROLINA
ALMANACK,
FOR 1834.

For Sale at this Office, by wholesale or retail, at the Raleigh prices: Oct. 1, 1833.

See Here. At least 10 per cent. Cheaper THAN EVER FOR CASH OR BARTER.

IN order to save the trouble of moving my Goods near the Bridge on the 1st of January next, to my own lot and store which Mr. Benja-M. Jackson at present occupies, I will sell the remaining part of my goods at least 10 per cent. cheaper than I have hitherto sold them, which I know will compare both in quality and price with that of any other foreign or domestic competition. I cannot with any degree of truth announce to the public of my having

A Stock of 15 or $20,000

On hand, and could I even do so in truth, I would by no means show so much pomposity—and much less so if it was not the truth. So I must console myself by saying, that I have a tolerably well selected though small stock of Goods, all of which were purchased new and fresh this fall.
And if a person can get any article he may want from among a stock of 3 or $4,000, at the same price or cheaper than he can from a stock of 15 or 20,000 dollars, I cannot see why it is not just as good. Although my stock is small and will remain so until early in the spring when it will be much enlarged, nevertheless I have just received from New York

An additional Supply of Goods, —CONSISTING OF—

Ladies Cloaks, latest style of winter prints, Gentlemen's Cloaks and Over Coats—Vests, Ladies three threaded cotton Hose—Cambrics, Wide bobbinet Lace, fine—Superior white Flannels, Negro Blankets—do. Hats and Shoes—Cheese, &c.

Which together with the stock on hand, render it very good and complete. All of which is offered to the public not only as cheap as can be had in this little place, but in any neighboring villages. I would say cheaper than at any other place, but really the word cheap has of late been so much abused and has become so common, that I am ashamed to rehearse it—together with the recent appearance of a most frightful mammoth bugbear in the Free Press, has completely deterred me from ever publishing much more about cheap goods, &c. &c. I know a great deal might be said on the subject, but I will content myself by requesting those wishing to purchase any article that I can supply, to be so good as to favor me with a call and look for themselves, and there will no doubt be a trade. I will not promise much, for those that promise most perform least.

N. H. ROUNTREE.
Tarboro', Nov. 12, 1833.

Daily Expected,
AT COTTEN'S,

(Two doors above Mrs. Gregory's Hotel.)

A VERY EXTENSIVE SUPPLY OF Fancy and staple American, French,

English, German, Swiss & Irish

DRY GOODS,

GROCERIES,

Hardware, Cutlery, &c. &c.

Which with his present Stock will be by far the most extensive in Tarborough,

Being upwards of $35,000,

And as the above Goods were bought for Cash and by a first rate judge, I think it more than probable they were purchased as cheap as any Goods in this market; but whether they were or not, they shall be sold as cheap, or to punctual customers a little cheaper, for Cash than they can be bought at any other store in this place, (I mean goods of the same quality.) I have no fear or hesitation in saying this, because I am determined to do what I say I will—not tell one tale here and when a person comes into my store tell another. But do not take my word for it, call and examine for yourselves, I do not charge any thing for looking. All kinds of produce taken at the market prices.

J. W. COTTEN.
Tarboro', 8th Nov. 1833.
