

army generally espoused the cause of the young Queen, and there seemed little reason to doubt, at the latest dates, that the Regent would, by her own strength and forces, be able to subject the whole kingdom to the rule of the Infanta.

The cause of Donna Maria, in Portugal, was beginning to assume a more favorable appearance. It appears from the details that in the sortie which was made from Lisbon on the 10th October, her troops were completely victorious, having succeeded in driving the Miguelites from their position. The loss of the Queen's troops was about 400 men, that of Miguel is stated to have been more than 1,000.

The Arctic expedition, under Capt. Ross, had returned to England after an absence of three years and a half. The party were not more reduced by their sufferings than might have been expected. Only three men died during the voyage, two of whom were men whose constitutions were unfit for the climate. The result has been to establish, that there is no new north-west passage south of 74 degrees. The country discovered, which is larger than Great Britain, has been named Boothia, after Felix Booth, Esq. Sheriff of London in 1829, who much assisted Captain Ross in fitting out the expedition. The true position of the magnetic needle has been discovered, and much valuable information obtained for the improvement of geographical and philosophical knowledge.

MARRIED,

In this county, on Tuesday evening last, by Benj. Sharpe, Esq. Mr. William Burnes to Miss Jane Wilkins, daughter of Willis Wilkins, Esq.

DIED,

In Halifax county, on Thursday, the 21st ult. in the 65th year of her age, Mrs. Mary Simmons, leaving a numerous off-spring of children and grand children, and a large circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn their loss. But they mourn not as those without hope, for Mrs. Simmons had long been a pious and an exemplary member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and endeavored to adorn her profession by an upright and a godly walk; and though she had been deprived for a number of years, by severe afflictions, from attending upon the ordinances of the Church of which she was a member, yet she looked forward with pleasing anticipation to the time when her afflictions and troubles would end, and trusting in the goodness and mercy of God, that when she left this poor and unfriendly world, that he would take her to himself, to enjoy his smiles and the company of saints and angels in undisturbed happiness forevermore. The writer of this imperfect obituary notice has frequently heard Mrs. S. shout the praises of God while confined to her bed, and express a lively hope that when she should be called from time to eternity that her afflictions would end, and that her happy soul would fly away to sing God's praise in endless day. Mrs. S. had been confined to her room for the last six years, and most of the time to her bed, but bore her afflictions with Christian meekness and resignation; she has now escaped the sorrows of time, and gone to reap the reward that is promised the pious and faithful Christian.
