ADVERSITY.

Speak not of joys forever past,
Tell not of comforts never known;
Of each of these I've seen the last,
To sorrow now my heart is prone.
Ah! tell me not of friends sincere,
Who lend their aid in time of need;
In troubled hours they're never near,
They love to own (not do) the deed.
Ah! tell me not of hearts so true,
That seas of wealth cannot decoy;
There may be some, (a precious few,)
Who do not future hopes destroy.
But tell me what I know is sure,
Our pain in friends doth have its spring;
From that same source we look'd for cure,
There troubles rise—to us they wing.
Then let me flee to stranger lands,
Where I've no friends to raise my hopes;
There I will break my iron bands,
Stern trouble—there, joy's eyes I'll ope.

STANZAS.

We have been friends together,
In sunshine and in shade,
Since first beneath the chestnut tree
In infancy we played:
But coldness dwells within thy heart,
A cloud is on thy brow;
We have been friends together—
Shall a light word part us now?
We have been sad together,
We have wept with bitter tears,
O'er the grass grown graves where slumber'd,
The hopes of early years.
The voices which are silent there,
Would bid thee clear thy brow;
We have been sad together—
Oh! what shall part us now?

I HATE AND LOVE.

I hate the man who bows beneath
The rude oppressor's frown;
I hate him if misfortune's breath
Could melt his spirit down.
I hate the man who malice bears,
Whose heart with envy glows;
I hate him who, when danger glares,
Would stoop to ruthless foes.
I love the man who firm can stand
When storms are raging round;
I love him for an ocean strand
His greatness will resound.
I love the man whose noble soul
Defies the tyrant's rod,
I love him—for he scorns control
By any but his God.

LINES

Written by Princess Amelia, previous to her death

Unthinking, idle, wild, and young,
I laugh'd and dance'd, and talk'd, and sung;
And proud of health, of freedom vain,
Dream'd not of sorrow, care, or pain;
Concluding in those hours of glee,
That all the world was made for me.
But when the hour of trial came,
When sickness shook this trembling frame,
When Folly's gay pursuits were o'er,
And I could dance and sing no more,
Were this the only world for me.

THE EXECUTOR.

Tarboro', Feb. 11, 1834.

Land for Sale.

BEING anxious to move to the West, I offer for sale the Tract of Land whereon I now live, containing About One Thousand Acres

It is a healthy situation, in Nash county, on Stony Creek, about three miles above the great Falls of Tar River, with a commodious two story dwelling house (new,) and other out houses; apple and peach orchards sufficient to make 15 or 20 barrels brandy, besides other fruit trees. The land is of tolerable good quality and well watered. On the said Stony Creek (a constant stream) there is an excellent grist and saw mill, cotton machine, &c. (on solid rock foundation,) all in good order. Long credit can be given if it best suits the purchaser, or negroes will be taken in part payment.

JUST RECEIVED, and for sale by
J. W. COTTEN
21st February, 1834.

Notice.

ON the 18th January last, or thereabouts, I put into the post office of Mount Prospect, in this county, two letters. (to be mailed on different days,) each enclosing two halves of two $100 United States Bank Notes, and addressed to John A. Cotten, at Philadelphia. The left hand halves which were enclosed in the first sent letter arrived safely—the right hand halves have never arrived. The Notes are of the following description: the one No. 515, dated 30 May, 1828, payable at the office of discount and deposit at Washington—the other, No. 918, dated 7 May, 1828, and payable at Nashville. The halves which have not arrived have been either purloined, or lost by accident; and the object of this advertisement is to give notice that I shall apply at the mother Bank of the United States for the entire payment of the same.

CREAM,

THIS well known and able formed horse, formerly the property of Mr. James Simmons, Sen. of this county, will stand the ensuing season at Mr. Jesse H. Mooring's, in Pitt county, one mile from Greenville, and will render service on the following terms: THREE DOLLARS for a single leap. FIVE Dollars the season, and EIGHT Dollars to insure a mare to be in foal—with 25 cents to the Groom. Persons putting mares and parting with them before it is ascertained they are in foal, will be held responsible for the price of the season. The season to commence the 15th of March and end the 15th of July.

MARION,

WILL STAND the ensuing season at the New Hope Race Course, Halifax, North Carolina; and will render service at FIFTY DOLLARS the season, payable at its expiration, which may be discharged by Forty Dollars cash; SEVENTY-FIVE Dollars insurance; One Dollar cash, to the Groom in every instance. The season will commence the 10th February and end 1st August. Major West will furnish good and extensive pasturage gratis, and mares grazed at 25 cents per day. Every attendance will be given to prevent accidents or escapes, but no responsibility for either.

MARION

IS of fine size, great muscular power, and commanding appearance, his blood and performance place him in the foremost rank of our racing stock; he is the very type of his sire and grand-sire, old Archy and Citizen, from whose loins he sprung, and whose unrivalled fame he is sustaining, as will be seen by his own performances and those of his get:—Francis Marion bore off at two heats, the great sweepstakes of One Thousand Dollars entrance at Tallahassee, Florida, 3 mile heats, for 3 years old. 5 entries, 2 paid for; beating Veto of South Carolina, and Mary Smith of Tennessee, in handsome style, two distinguished nags; but the old Roanoke, (as D. would say) produced Francis, which caused his owner to fob Three thousand five hundred Dollars in rate chink, [in the language of Major Downing,] and refused Two thousand five hundred Dollars for him immediately after the race—Maria West, Clar de Kitchen, Z. A. Patsy Burton, Zuleika, Mr. Corprew's colt, and Mr. Whitaker's filly have all been winners.

To my knowledge, not more than 15 of his colts have as yet been on the turf—and several of them out of common mares.

Gig and Gin Manufactory.

THE Subscriber takes this method to inform his customers and the public in general, that he still carries on the

Gig and Gin Making

Business at ROBERT SOREY'S. His work shall be done well and in a neat manner, and shall be dispatched at short notice warranted.

JOSEPH JOHN GOOD.

COTTON GINS.

THE Subscriber, who for several years past, has been engaged in the

Gin Making business,
In Kinston, has established himself
IN GREENVILLE,

Where he carries on the above business in all its various branches. All those who wish to supply themselves with Gins of the best quality, are respectfully solicited to apply to the Subscriber personally, or by letter. All orders for Gins will be promptly executed. From the Subscriber's long experience in his business; and from the approbation which his work has hitherto met with, he hesitates not to promise entire satisfaction to all who may see fit to extend to him their patronage. Gins out of order will be expeditiously repaired. The Subscriber takes the liberty of calling the attention of those who wish to procure new Gins, or to have old Gins repaired, to the expediency of applying to him in time. When all wait as is usually the case, until the work is wanted, it causes such a pressure of business, that many are obliged of necessity to submit to a longer delay than they wish.

ALLEN TISON,

In connexion with this establishment, carries on

The Lock and Gunsmith business,

He also makes Saw Mill Boxes, and Mill Inks, and Gudgeons, of a composition invented by Daniel Peck, of Raleigh—Grist Mill Spindles, with Steel Collars, (turned.) These articles equal to any manufactured in the United States.

All letters and orders must be directed to the Subscriber, at Greenville.

HENRY CHAMBERLAIN.
