aring of a necktie almost a neces, and dainty scarfs and laces are at acceptable gifts. The rainbow kite, which is something new, is inensive and simple to make, and a most artistic touch of color to otherwise plain costume.

The materials required are two yards ight green chiffon, and five pieces of eta binding ribbon, which is only ut twelve cents apiece. This may milke a large quantity of material, this will make four neckties. It necessary to have the five pieces of necessary to have the five pieces of bon, as each must be of a differ-t color, green, blue, yellow, violet d pink, and all of the most delicate hades possible. By buying two yards f chiffon, it saves piecing, for the te must be of that length. Divide the chiffon into four strips, rawing a thread to cut it by. Make narrow hem all around each strip, sing the finest of silk, or better, a eling from the chiffon. Gather h piece of ribbon through the cen-for about three times the width of chiffon, and sew across the ends the tie, leaving a small space ben each color. The ribbon on the bottom should be put on the wrong as well as on the right side, that the hein's may be covered and also to give a weight to the tie.—The Ladles' World.

Europe's Greatest Catch.
The young Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, who is now in his 24th year, is the best royal match in Europe, and, idering the precarious state of the succession to his throne, it might be regarded as certain that he will marry before the year is out. The Grand Duke William Ernest has immense wealth and a great position, without any of the responsibilities and anxieties which a throne usually in-volves. He has inherited very large and very valuable estates in various parts of northern Germany, in Aus-tria and in Holland, besides a fortune of at least 100,000,000 francs. The grand duke is at present the next heir to the throne of the Netherlands, his grandmother, the late Grand Duchess Sophia, having been the aunt of Queen Wilhelmina. The grand duke has practically a choice of seven brides—the Grand Duchess Helena Vladimirovna of Russia, Princess Beatrice of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, Princess Alice of Albany, Princess Thyra of Denmark (daughter of the crown prince), Duchess Cecilia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin (sister of the reigning grand duke) and the two daughters of the Duke of Connaught .- London Truth.

7. Topic: Christ our Pessover. Place: Jerusalem. It was Thursday; Jesus sent Peter and John to Jerusalem to prepare the passover supper; they found a large upper room where they made ready; in the evening Jesus sat at the table with His disciples; He told them that one of them should betray Him; they were sorrowful and every one asked, "Lord, is it 1?" Jesus said it would have been better for that man never to have been better for that man never to have been better that man never to have been better for the remaining eleven.

8. Topic: The sufferings of Christ. Place: Gethsemane. Jesus and eleven disciples enter the garden; eight are left near the entrance; Peter, James and John go with Him into the garden. Jesus agonizes in prayer; His sweat is like blood; He prays for strength; an angel is sent; three times He asks. His disciples to watch with

9. Topic: The arrest of Christ. Place: Gethsemane. It was in the middle of the night; Judas and a band of Roman soldiers came to arrest Jesus; they have torches and weapons. What a picture is Judas of a fallen human being! For years he had listened to the teachings of his Divine Master. He had seen the multitudes fed, sea calmed, and the dead raised. He could not help but know that Jesus was the Son of God; and yet, for a few paltry pieces of silver he enters the quiet rotreat of the Saviour and covera-His face with kisses as a sign to the officers that He is the one they are seeking. 10. Topic: The accusations against Christ. Place: The palace of Caiaphas. Jesus is sent from Annas to Caiaphas the high priest; Peter follows afar off and thrice denies the Saviour; the Sanhedrin is hastily summoned; false witnesses are sought and are found with difficulty; at last two testify that He said He could destroy the temple and build it in three days; Jesus is silent; Caiaphas asks Him if He is the Christ; Jesus replies that He is; Caiaphas rent his clothes; Jesus is condemned to death.

11. Topic: Pilate seeking to release Jesus. Place: Pilate's judgment hall. Jesus is taken to Pilate, the governor, who investigates the charges and finds them false; Jesus is sent of Herod, who finds no fault; with Christ. Pilate calls the people together and desires to release Christ; they demand that Hé be crucified; three times Pilate urges His release; they demand the release of Barabbas, a murderer; Pilate yields; washes his hands.

12. Topic: Closing scenes in Christ's earthly life. Place: Mount Calvary. Christ on the cross; mocked by the soldiers; vinegar offered; the superscription; the two threes crucified with Christ'; one railed on Jesus, the other confessed his sins and asked to be remembered in Christ's kingdom; the prayer answered; darkness from 12 till 3 o'clock; Jesus cried with a loud voice and died; the centurion's testimony; Joseph begged the body of Jesus; wrapped It is linen and laid It is a new sepulchre.

It is known all over the country as the best package coffee, and its quality will be strictly maintained.

HAVE YOU TRIED IT YET?

LION COFFEE is not a glazed coffee. We do not need to resort to egg mixtures or chemicals which are used to hide imperfections and to make the coffee look shiny. LION COFFEE is absolutely pure, and that is the reason why it is now used in millions of homes.

In every package of LION COFFEE you will find a fully illustrated and descriptive list. No housekeeper, in fact, no woman, man, boy or girl will fall to find in the list some article which will contribute to their happiness, comfort and convenience, and which they may have by simply cutting out a certain number of Lion Heads from the wrappers of our one pound sealed packages (which is the only form in which this excellent coffee is sold).
