MARKET

June 25, 1901 Wishing to speak to the friends nd patrons of the Robersonville to baco market, we know of no better way than through the columns of The Enterprise, which, of course, the farmers will read that they may keep

We are sure that the tobacco farers of Martin and adjoining countie will be pleased to learn that they will again have a good market for their tobacco at Robersonville, where they sold their tobacco satisfactorily las season. Since we competed successfully with the other markets the first year, the farmers will not heatate to ng us their tobacco this yes We will give them the bea ed advantage The market at Roberscaville is not hampered by any trust or combine and will not limit its prices paid for mers except by highest market prices that can be paid, it will be a gre gaving to the farmers, of time and trouble, to bring their totates to our markets. We do not ask the farmen to support the home market at a Much to our delight Mr. T. H escritios to themselves, but to bring the their tobacco and give us a fair in working order by Friday. trial.
