FRIDAY, AUGUST 2 1901.

Robersonville tobacco market opened its second season yesterday under very favorable conditions. There are buyers on this mar ket, representing the very largest tobacco concerns in the world.

This is very different from what we heard that the Greenville representives having been telling our farmers. The Greenville representives would have our farmers believe that Robersonville would have no buyers, and consequently, would not be able to get good prices any where, "except" Greenville.

Farmers we would like to state right here that the Green ville representatives are after what they can get, for Greenville market. They know that the market at Robersonville will cripple this market, and are, therefore, like a drowning man, grabbing at a straw.

The prices paid at Roberson ville yesterday were very good indeed. Every farmer that sold his tobacco there seemed to be perfectly satisfied.

Owing to the extremly hot weather for the past week or ten days, the grading of tobacco has been very much hindered, and consequently, there was not that women of sense and feelas large break as was expected, ing might be contented without but there will be some very shocking the sensibilities of the week or two.

We wish to state that the gentlemen running the ware- life to adorn their heads. house are, in every way compe There was much sense in the tent to run them, and are very retort of the little boy who, much in earnest when they say when reproved by his pretty that they are going to hold up Sunday-school teacher for rob-

Society and of various other organizations for the protection of birds, is that the time may come when a hat trimmed does take a decided turn in this direction it is unlikely that the Peel & Co. old barbarous custom will ever come back. It is so essentially ugly and unpleasant in its suggestiveness that it need only go out of style for a few years to be abhored in its true light. But there are people who, if gloves and belts made of tanned human skin from the dissecting room happened to be the fashion, would wear them without more compunction than an lroquois warrior felt in putting on his necklace of cut-off human fingers. The custom of decorating of birds is probably as old as ly free. headgear itself, and may have arisen in part from the notion The Enterprise, The Paragon common to many savage tribes that the qualities of an animal slain become the property of the slaver Moreover, before the invention of velvets, gauze and lace, the feathers of birds were amoung the most beautiful things available for the adornment of the human head Tradition is partly responsible for the persistence of the custom in these later days. But there is nothing pretty in its later developments, however appropriate the wings or body of a bird might have seem ed to the head of the hunter's wife. The modern hat is constructed to fit the modern face, and there is no beauty in the juxtaposition of a fair, intellibird with its neck in a suggestive twist. It hints at ugly possibilities existing underthe wearer. As for the face which is not charming, or intel ligent or kind, the bodies of two or three humming-birds or the head of an owl, speared
