LAWN PARTY AT "OAKHURST."

Last Monday evening at "Oakhurst," the elegant country home of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Whitley, the young people of the city were treated to one of the most enjoyable social functions of the season, a "Lawn Party," from 8 to 12 o'clock. It was an ideal night. Lovely winged Nox was extremely generous in her gifts. The white stars shed their lustre upon earth and sky seeming like a reunion of the constellations and the serenity was lovely. Fair "Luna" with the sanction of "Diana" added her effulgence to the glistening radiance, peeping through the wavy boughs of the majestic oaks and making the scene appear like fairy-land with the sylvan nymphs skimming to and fro on the lawn.

It is always the delight of the young people to visit this lovely spot for they are treated so lavishly to that old time Southern hospitality.

In the quiet shady nooks on the lawn would be Romeo and Juliet whiling the hours swiftly away.

The most delicious refreshments were served. The "we small hours" came on apace. Angels unseen by mortal eyes began to shift the scenery of the heavens and it proved that the pleasant company had departed.

It will always be cherished by those present as one of the most enjoyable occasions in which they had ever participated.

Those in the receiving party were: Mrs. George L. Whitley and her beautiful and accomplished daughters and Miss Fannie Biggs. Those present were: Misses Julia Haughton, of Washington, N. C., Ida. B. and Emma E. Hassell, Mayo, Eliza and Annie Lamb, Nora Fowden and Victoria Martin.

Messrs. Will Hyman, of Richmond, Va., John C. and W. G. Lamb, Jr., Chas. H. Godwin, W. H. Biggs, John L. Hassell, Jas. S. Rhodes, Jno. E. Pope, Simon C. Sitterson, Harry Biggs and Pelland Knox.

BRINKLEY & HOOKER

RUN

The Southern Warehouse, Robersonville, N. C.

This is the place, and we are the people to sell your

TOBACCO.

Farmers, why do we say this?

FIRST. We admit we are not one of the large markets; but, ask judges where is the best prices, and competent judges will tell you on Small Markets. Again our competitors are telling you that we will have no buyers, and that they will soon shut us up, that we can't sell tobacco. Who are these people? Are they friends of you farmers?

No! without contradiction, we say no. They are straining every nerve to close up the market at your door. Does this look to you like combination? Stop and think, we say it does. Close this market and where is your competition? It seems ridiculous to us to see such statements made to farmers, as are being made by our competitors, but they are wise, and their wisdom is only being exercised for their own benefit and not for you farmers. We stand out boldly, and are determined to fight anything that tends towards combination.

We will stand By you, if you will stand By us. They remind us of the old story of the Coon. They have nice things to say now, but we warn you it is the same old Coon, except, instead of one one more stripe, they have rubbed off one.

Farmers, you want competition for your tobacco.

You can only get it by standing by our market.

We assure you we are in earnest; we will fight this thing to a finish; if we don't succeed, farmers you contribute to our defeat.

Yours to serve, Brinkley & Hooker.
