Thursday night of last week two prisoners in jail for petty larceny escaped by breaking through the top of the cell and then cutting a hole in the wall. Bloodhounds were put on their trail but the cold and high winds had destroyed all trace of it. One of the prisoners went to Parmice boarded a train that took him to Kingsboro. He returned accompanied by his father who gave bond for his appearance at court. The other was caught at Palmyra and brought back to jail.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS A BOX is the value H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C., places on DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He says, "I had the piles for 20 years. I tried many doctors and medicines, but all failed except DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cured me." It is a combination of the healing properties of Witch Hazel with antiseptics and emollients; relieves and permanently cures blind, bleeding itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, lacerations, eczema, salt rheum and all skin diseases. S. R. Biggs.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 8, 1903 Editor Enterprise, Williamston, N. C., Dear sir,—I will thank you to advise the people of the First District, who have private ponds, that I may be able to secure a small supply of young fish from the U. S. Department of Fish and Fisheries for stocking same. It might also be advisable to stock the upper tributaries of our rivers and creeks in many sections. I shall be glad to furnish blanks upon which formal application may be made for same. Yours very truly, JOHN H. SMALL.

DEATH OF A LOVELY CHILD.

Entered into rest on Tuesday, January 13th, 1903, Elizabeth, little daughter of Dr. William Henry and Elizabeth Moore Harrell, aged two years, one month and six days. "Angels but lent her from Angel's carcases— To show us the loveliness Heaven doth know."

The funeral services were conducted on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the parents on Simmons' Ave., by Elder S. Hassell, of the Primitive Baptist Church. Many friends were present and there were lovely floral remembrances. Deep sympathy is felt for the parents in the loss of their lovely child.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup, is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do no waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by N. S. Peel & Co.

OBITUARY.

Died at the N. C. Soldier's Home on Tuesday, Jan. 6th., 1903, Comrade John G. Swain, in the 61st. year of his age.

After an impressive sermon by the Rev. G. T. Adams of the M-E Church on Wednesday afternoon, the remains were taken in charge by W. G. Hill Lodge no. 218, A.F. and A. M. and buried in Oakdale Cemetery with the beautiful ceremony of the Order. Comrade Swain passed through a long and painful illness, conscious the end was near, and doubtless felt that death would be a relief, his trust being in God.

The pallbearers were: C. B. Edwards, T. H. Hunicutt, F. A. Hunicutt, J. E. Birdsong, Jack Wier and Chas. Lumsden.

O Death!— "The great, the wealthy, fear thy blow, From pomp and pleasure torn; But oh, a best relief to those That weary-laden mourn!"

The crowned heads of every nation, The rich men, poor men and misers, All join in paying tribute to DeWitt's Little Early-Riser. H. UNCONSCIOUS FROM CROUP.

During a sudden and terrible attack of croup one little girl was unconscious from strangulation, says A. L. Lufford, postmaster, Chester, Mich., and a dose of One Minute Cough Cure was administered and repeated often. It relieved the swelling and inflammation, cut the mucus and shortly the child was resting easy and speedily recovered. It cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, and all Throat and Lung Troubles. One Minute Cough Cure lingers in the throat and chest and enables the lungs to contribute pure, health-giving oxygen to the blood.—S. R. Biggs.

RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Raleigh, Jan. 13, 1903. Speaker Gattis is a good, great big big-hearted, fat, jolly fellow, and is very popular. He makes a good presiding officer.

An old Senator who has seen many legislatures says this is a remarkably intelligent body and a big work may be expected of it.

J. S. Cunningham, O. L. Joyner, J. O. W. Gravley and others met here Friday in the interest of the Tobacco Growers' Association and made preliminary arrangements for thorough organization.

Temperance legislation has started early. Two bills are already in. They are the Watts (House) and the London (Senate) bills. The London bill seems strongest.

Many old members are here looking on (2) the Senatorial fight. We have heard of no dark horses.

That this legislature will be economical is assured. No extravagance has yet appeared. The members are already showing economy. One was recently heard trying to drive a bargain with a boot-black for shins at cut rates during the session, negotiations were still in progress at last accounts.

Lots of members are full of colds; its a fine body of men, and that's all they take.

"Handsome Harry" Stubbs, Martin's able representative, is really one of the best and ablest men in the House. He has had experience and has ability. He called the first Democratic caucus to order and quickly brought order out of chaos. He is taking much interest in legislation and is doing good work for his constituency.

Messrs. Spruill and Mann, the Second District's able Senators have gone down to work. They are good men and faithful representatives.

ROBERSONVILLE.

Special.

The second, and one of the most unique marriages of the season was solemnized last Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. A. S. Roberson, the contracting parties being Miss Lucy Estella Roberson and Mr. Cornelius F. Page.

Long before the hour appointed, a large crowd of friends and relatives of the bride and groom, had assembled to witness the solemn rites which were to make the happy pair a unity.

Marching to the strains of the famous wedding march, the bridal party entered the handsome parlor, in the following order:

Mr. S. C. Page, brother of the groom and best man, with Miss Cora Roberson, cousin of the bride and maid of honor; Mr. Geo. Roberson with Miss Fannie Whichard; Mr. Eli Rogers with Miss Laffie Whichard; Mr. Will Overton with Miss Lizzie Roberson. Following these came the bride, leaning upon the arm of the groom. They were greeted at the altar by Elder S. R. Ross who performed the ceremony in an easy and most gracious manner. The ceremony being over, there were salutations and congratulations both for the bride and groom.

In every way the marriage was unique and most cleverly managed. The groom is the son of J. W. Page, one of the Commissioners of Pitt county, and is a prosperous young farmer and one of the most highly esteemed citizens of his county.

The bride is the daughter of Jas. L. Roberson, and a most charming and attractive young lady and deservedly popular.

The presents were handsome and numerous, showing the high esteem in which the couple are held by their many friends.

The bride was tastily and becomingly dressed in a handsome creation of green broad cloth, trimmed with point lace, chiffon, velvet and applique and carried brides roses. The groom was dressed in conventional black.

The bridal party, together with a large crowd of friends and relatives, left immediately after the ceremony for Oakley, where the parents of the groom tendered an elegant reception in honor of the occasion.
