RALEIGH LETTER.

Special Correspondence.

Raleigh, March 23.—Wake county Superior Court, for the trial of criminal cases only, meets to-day—and for several days to come a large portion of the people, in all portions of the State, will be looking for developments in the Haywood-Skinner trial.

But at this writing it cannot be even stated, definitely, that the case will be tried at this term, and it may be near the end of the week before this will be determined. The grand jury will probably take it up on Wednesday, and it is possible that it may be called on Thursday.

But whether both sides will be ready for trial at that time (and willing, it may be added) cannot be foretold to-day—the lawyers on both sides being entirely noncommittal and very guarded in their replies along this line.

There are two arguments advanced—one suggesting a continuance until July term of court, at the request of the defense, in order that the great healer and leveler, Time, may do its work in removing or diminishing passion and prejudice against the defendant Haywood; the other that the accused will risk a speedy trial rather than spend three of the hottest months of the year confined in the county jail here, especially as his lawyer's claim that he has a "good defense."

The prosecution, on the other hand, claims a strong case of murder will be made out and express entire confidence in their ability to convict Haywood, whenever he is tried. Yet there are few whom you can hear express the belief that he will be hung or that he will be acquitted.

Judge "Mike" Justice is presiding at this term of court, (having exchanged with Judge Bryan, because of the latter's kinship to the deceased's family), and about a dozen of the ablest and most eloquent lawyers in the State will confront each other at the trial—a trial that promises to become one of the most famous in the history of North Carolina courts.

The negro John Broadnax who killed an aged white man and his niece near Reidsville last Thursday night, was brought to Raleigh Saturday from Greensboro (where he was first taken) to prevent lynching, and lodged in the penitentiary until he can be tried.

It was feared that a hundred people from Rockingham county in Greensboro Friday night might succeed in getting the prisoner out of jail there, and the local military was called out just before he was put on the train and sent to Raleigh.

The NEWS AND OBSERVER appeared yesterday in a big "legislative addition" number—a credit to the staff of that paper.

The Executive Committee of the State Press Association has selected Wrightsville as the next place of meeting of the Press Association. The date will be set later.

The killing of Dr. Baker for killing Dr. Bass of Tarboro indicates that his punishment, if convicted at all, will be light.

The county distilleries are beginning to move into the towns. Under the new Watts law they have two months yet in which to make the transfer.

The extra session of the U. S. Senate having ended, Senator Simmons is again at home in this city, and Senator Overman at Salisbury. Our brand-new junior Senator "showed up" in great shape at Washington.

The State Board of Pharmacy meets here to-morrow in the Senate Chamber, where the examination of applicants begin.

The possible appointment of ex-Senator Pritchard to the position of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia at Washington, upon the retirement of Chief Justice Bingham in the very near future, will compel him to resign as State Chairman of his party and as the North Carolina member of the Republican National Committee. Consequently there is already much activity among the Republican politicians who wish to step into one or the other of the discarded pair of official shoes. It is generally conceded that it will take two of them to fill them—the inference being that Senator Pritchard is twice as large and important and able as any other Republican in this State, which is probably correct.

Raleigh is in the midst of the hottest municipal election contest of many years. The Democratic primary will be held Friday, 27, and the fight will be settled by the party inside of party lines. I trust you will excuse a short letter this week, because one of the candidates for alderman who is standing for reelection is LLEWEXAM.

THE CAUSE OF MANY Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickly by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

ago, and which appeared to day in the daily papers. It is a letter expressing his regret at his inability to be present at their annual banquet to do reverence to the memory of Andrew Jackson, and in it he breathes forth the very spirit and essence of true democracy. It is a message of optimism and hope to the true democrats of the whole country, and in every way is such an able paper that it has caught the attention of the leaders of the party here, who mention it in the most complimentary way. There are a few persons who, not knowing Mr. Hearst, actually think that because he has money he does not work himself, and that the articles signed by himself, are written by some of the bright men in his employ. There never was a greater mistake made by them. The writer knows Mr. Hearst personally, and the right to also pass upon it before it became operative, because it was legislation that affected the revenues of the government, and that all such legislation must have the concurrent sanction of the House of Representatives, or else it would not be constitutional legislation. It would be practically eliminating the House as one of the legislative branches of the government and leaving it to the Senate exclusively. It will be remembered that the House at the first session of the 57th Congress passed a law giving Cuba the reduction in the rates of the Dingley law that is asked for, but it also tacked on to it a clause that eliminated the differential on refined sugar, which would save the consumers of this country millions of dollars annually that now go into the pockets of the sugar trust. For that very reason the Senate refused to consider the measure and let it die. It now comes to the front with the treaty, giving the same reduction in the Dingley rates, but it does not move the differential on refined sugar which gives the consumer in this country a chance, and clearly is an attempt to play into the hands of the sugar trust. The Republicans have been forced to agree to the amendment to allow the House to pass on the treaty when it meets next winter. If they had not agreed to it they would not have got away from here all summer, or else would have been forced to abandon the treaty altogether. The net result of this democratic victory will be that the House next winter will either add the amendment again, eliminating the differential on refined sugar, or if it passes the House as sent to it by the Senate then the democrats in the Senate will open up the tariff debate in its entirety and consume the whole session in speeches that will be made in open session, and will go to the country as democratic campaign documents. In either event the trusts will get it in the neck and the people will be benefited. Score one for the democrats.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

March 23-1903.

The chances are that when this is read, both the treaties will have been ratified, for which purpose the Senate was convened in extra session. There never was much opposition to the ratification of the Panama Canal treaty on the part of the democrats, provided they could get certain amendments added to it that would give this government absolute control of the canal. The democrats have not got all they want in the treaty but it has been modified somewhat and as both parties are committed to a canal of some kind and somewhat, it probably will go through. There is doubt expressed here, however, that the canal ever will be built. There has been no denying the strenuous opposition to any canal by the transcontinental railroads of the country, and it is the freely expressed belief here that these roads will find some way to circumvent the building of the canal. It will be interesting to watch the work of the railroads after the ratification of the canal treaty.

So far as the Cuban reciprocity treaty is concerned, the democrats have won a signal victory over the republicans. As I said in a former letter, it was the intention of the democrats to talk the treaty to death unless they could get all they contended for, and when the republicans saw them line up as one man under the able leadership of the Hon. Arthur Pue Gorman, they capitulated and came down like Scott's coon. It is the first time in years that the democrats in the Senate have presented an unbroken front to the republicans. When they have done so in the past they invariably have won a victory. The trouble has been that in the recent past they have had no leadership in the Senate worthy the name. They have it now, and the results are apparent to the most casual observer. The democrats said to the republicans that they must add an amendment to the Cuban reciprocity treaty that would give the House of Representatives

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. R. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered, some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases, DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous, worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. S. R. Biggs.

democratic party who still are in Washington are to-day discussing the letter of Mr. William Randolph Hearst to the Iroquois Club of Chicago.

It would seem as though the trusts, rather than the government of the United States, were shaping our policy in the Philippine Islands. Despite all appeals made by the President and Governor Taft, Congress did nothing towards relieving the economic distress prevailing in those islands. It passed neither currency nor tariff legislation of the kind asked for by the commercial classes of the islands. It has preferred to obey the wishes of the tobacco and sugar trusts rather than comply with those of the suffering millions of people. This republican Congress has been guilty of gross negligence of duty by not passing legislation in the interest of the people of those islands. They are compelled to rely on our good will and charity, and have the right to demand help of some kind from us. By thus refusing to do anything for the Filipinos this republican Congress has put a premium on disorder and insurrection, and it would not be at all surprising if the American army in the Philippines finds itself, before long, busier than it has been for some time. The policy of imperialism is bringing its own reward.

It is believed here, by the people who ought to know, that the recent visit to this capital by J. Piermont Morgan and his call on the President means an extra session of the 58th Congress, and that it will be called sometime early in the month of September. It is believed that Mr. Morgan said to the President that he and the money kings of Wall street could not save off a panic longer than September unless there was legislation that would relieve them. In other words, they want the Aldrich bill passed, so that the money now in the Treasury can be placed in the banks of Wall street and relieve the pressure on them. Thus, is this restriction not only run by the Wall street gang, but it also is a policy that takes the money out of the pockets of the country, so that they can loan it back to the people and make a profit out of them.

The remedy is in the hands of the people.

CHAS. A. EDWARDS.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boschee's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectation and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular price 75 cents. At all druggists. S. R. BIGGS.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W. Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth. I at times kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a spoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a most agreeable surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of the bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." Can't Stand the Trolley.

P. A. B. Widener, the Philadelphia traction magnate, controls thousands of miles of street railroads in America, but he cannot ride in a trolley car without suffering from an exact imitation of seasickness. Once he made a desperate effort to overcome this weakness. Accompanied by W. L. Elkins, his partner, he went for a twelve mile ride and stuck at it until the trip was ended. By that time he was in a state of complete collapse. He came back on the steam railroad and has not ventured on a trolley car since.

Carnegie and Size.

Mr. Carnegie likes to talk to tall men. Pittsburgh friends say that they have known him to deliberately scrape up acquaintance with representatives of the six-foot and over class for no other reason in the world than to ask them how they managed to grow tall. Mr. Carnegie has never got over his boyhood ambition to be a big man physically. He once said to a friend apropos of this disappointment: "People tell me that I'm a big man. But I'm not as big as I'd like to be. Look at me."

Four Marvelous Bullocks.

Monday and Tuesday evenings the "The Four Marvelous Bullocks" were seen at the Opera House. It was one of the best plays ever seen here. While the crowd was large at both performances the play deserved a crowded house and would have had it but for the Lenten season.

Mr. Bullock is to be congratulated for having such wonderfully talented children. They have been carefully trained and conduct themselves upon the stage like veterans. Their signals can't be found, baby Lucille's especially.

The Comedy Quartette is the finest that has ever been here. The singing captivated the people, "Under the Bamboo Tree" can be heard at any hour.
