

of General Merchandise. 13

they will purchase their Fall stock tives in Robersonville. Miss Mittie Coffield left Monday Dra, were in our place Sunday.

in Dardens Sunday. Mrs. C. James is visiting rela-

T. H. Gurkin and daughter, Miss

Miss Ada Moore attended church

any from any parts of the voria, but tertain regulately; though it is true only in spite of all that I could say the Index are invited to the entertainwill go home with a firm conviction ments. and nothing will ever change it. The American giri may be selfish in her was of gigantic porpotions as large of steel knuckles. round, it is said, as an average size ward the beach with great rapidity and when within probably a mile and a half of the shore the top ser-She erated from the clouds and the large had been stuffed down the little felocean. The waterspouts are de was partly stripped of clothing. scribed by those who calmly ob The abdomen was slashed open and tapering funnels and were dark at Both thighs also had long deep cuts centre. The Century encyclopedia says that a waterspout is a cloud brought down to the earthts surface by the rapid gyratory motion of a vertical wind and it consists simply that line alone. of fine mist surrounding a central axis of rarefaction. It touches the water's surface and draws up the vater for a distance into its vortex and imparts its whirling motion .-Wilmington Messenger.

at Colurado Springs by enting ice

Va., Sunday evening, while a party aire sash and door manufacturer, of Oshkosh, Wis., was shot to death Tuesday by Frederich Hampel a discharged employe. Hampel was Alphonso Wilmes, a four-year, residence, and was first noticed old boy, was found murdered in a about five miles off. It moved to lot at the rear of the Michigan Stove Works, Detroit, Mtch., Tu

Work on the new building of Dr. Hargrove brogrossing rapid-ly. He has decided to run it two ly. He has declared upper part stories high, and the upper part will be used for a town hall 42 3 opera house.

as panal. selling their cross, About fit-thousand founds of tobacco, is the low prices, teen the being sold here daily. There seems to be some incontrollable influence at work which gives the farings fever, at least, he is not con be out again. is crop. While this, is true, they are are holding their best grades for better mices all is the full ored that some of the markets are elling the farmers that it is best for them to sell, that if they do not, npany will take the men off the Con the markets and they will not be to sell it at any price solt int oped that there is not a farme in this section with little a enough to even cousid proposition. There will Novation N

1 West

11

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, or despindency invariably from the start tiably precedes suicide, and thing has been found that will ont that condition which make icide likely. At the first though of self destruction take Electric rs. It being a great tonic and servine will strengthe the nerves ild up the system. It's als Stomach, Liver and Kidne 1998年1月

Kittrell on a vi Mr. D. P. Everett, of 'Florence. S. C., is visiting relatives here this illness. week.

Carl Lane, Clayton Keel and R W. Everett spent Sunday in town improving.

Mrs. L. B: Wynn and Mrs. D. P. Everett spent Thursday in Robnville,

Mrs. D. B. Lanier is quite ill a

Mrs. W. S. Barphill spent a few days in Robersonville last week with ralatives. unt, Mrs. S. M. Darden.

Misses Ella Moore and Lossi Moore spent a few days in Rober sonville last week.

Miss Mamie Taylor has returne yom Williamston, where she ha een visiting relativ

Miss Debbie Parker, who bean . spending some time with her sister here, has returned home.

Mrs. Gainer and children, wh have been spending sometime with Mrs. E. O. Burroughs, are visiting afternoon in Robersonville.

For cuts, harns, open sores, sore feet, dandruff, falling off of the hair, or any skin disease, use Hancock's Li-quid Sulphur. Sold by C. D. Carstar-phen. Anderson Hassell & Co.. Keith & Godwin.

HOBGOOD.

August 18th, 1903 t the Methodist

We are glad to see master Hubert Jones out again after several days ares 1

Miss Johnnie Berry, who has been, quite sick for several days, is

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gurkin were in Dardens Sunday, the guest of Joseph Swinsqua Lat

Misses Hettie Harrison and Mary teman left last Friday for Nor olk. Va., to visit relatives, Miss Mae Williams, of near Wil-nston, is here, the guest of her Miss Mattie Waters, of Willia m, is in our midst, the guest of er cousin. Miss Minnie Smith. Miss, Courtney Coburn was in Dardens Sunday afternoon, the uest of Miss Marguerite Darden. Miss Hilda Darden, who has been visiting in our midst for quite while, returned home last week. Crawford Spruill and John Daradies near the post office Sunday

Joseph Chesson was in our plac to-day with a very nice load of atermelons, which he is sure to her en have every Summer.

Work is progressing rapidly on the Jones-Fagan & Company's big tore here. They intend putting in a very nice stock this Fall. Miss Maggie Darden, who has bee isiting her aunt, Mrs. Will Ellion, in Williamston, returned hom aturday to the delight of h as the little cub was sellish, not cause he was especially hungry, but because he loved power and the sen sation of being first and foremost. In regard to work, and especially domestic work, a gradual change has

In regard, to work, and especially domestic work, a gradual change has been going en. The intricacies of the domeatic service problem, and the building of convehient flats has led mahy women to prefer to do, their own work, and, in fact, the modern housekeeper has, not received the credit she deserves. Her readmonth redit she deserves. Her grandn ers are held up to her coatinually, and yet, to my mind, she far exceeds her in many ways. The modern housewife takes life easier, she lets her ingeni-ous brain save her physical strength Not long ago a fair comparison was given between the old school and the The latter was exem by I young matron brought up in a ho with two servants and a houseke or anything else of a like nature, un til she went to housekeeping in i York on a limited income. She Torm on a minite income. See and invited four people to dinner. Two had promptly accepted and two had accepted provisionally. She had pro-vided a simple menu that would not cause her to get flurried at the last moment, and everything about the dinner was done that could be preen were the guests of the young pared the day before or in the

Every inch of the six-room and ment shone as it always does; The bostess herself in a pretty gown with albow sleeves that would not easily found the two guests originally exected gradually increase to sever pected gradually increase to seven, the one bringing up the rear being a bachelor friend of her husband's who has a penchant for turning up at just mail time. It meant resolving the prottily set round table twice, once to put in an extra leaf. When dinner was finally announced and the guests took their places at the table covered with dailut linen.

the table, covered with dainty linea, glass and eliver and lit by the soft glow from the candles, they had not the slightest suspicion of what had

This is the tin woman should breathe in all the pure air that her system will hold. should be careful, however, he does it for correct breathing is the first lesson to be learned by those in search of beauty. Breathe upward and outward and take slow, deep respirations. Keep the chest up and forward, not

Breath Pure Air.

by muscular action, but by the breath. The mouth should be kept ed and the breath taken noscrils in order to be b

No More Stiff Collars. Solid comfort will be found in the dainty summer waists, for, to be strictly in line, the Dutch round neck is the proper thing. No more high, stiff collars; they st give way to the narrow ruf of lace, or what is still prettier, the wide turn-over collar, which fails away from the neck in a shallow V. These collars are particularly effec-tive on mull, organdie and wash China silk gowns.

Roasted Venetable

pes roasted in the pan with beef or mutton are known to be palatable, but not very many Ameri-can cooks know that onions, carrots, and even cucumbers are equally as cooked in this mann bers are pared and sal ed cucun and roasted with yeal for half an hou ts and onions are especi with mutton.

Ginger Ice.

A correspondent asks for a recipe for ginger water ice. Prepare a plain lemon ice and flavor it strongly with the syrup of preserved ginger, pre-ably the imported variety. When ice is half frozen stir in chopped gor in the desired quantity. the use of Corns.

A noted and very succ podist says that corns on the feet are often caused by badly darned hose and in many instances by a too great neglect of the foot bath. A dread tatement to make, but a true

Taken With Cramps

day. The hands were tied behind with wire and a red handkerchief volume of water fell back into the low's throat for a gag. The body served them as being shaped like the left wrist was nearly severed. both ends but light of color in the in them. All the wounds had apparently been made with some very sharp instrument. The police are satisfied the crime was committed by a maniac, and are working along

End of Bitter Fight

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abcess on the right lung,"writes J.F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. .

Wm. Kirmse, a member of th King's New Discovery for Conump-. bridge gang working near Little tion. The benefit I received was port, was taken suddenly ill Thurs striking and I was on my feet in a day night with cramps and a kind few days. Now I've entirely reof cholera. His case was so severe gained my health." It conquers that he had to have the members all Coughs, Colds and Throat and of the crew wait upon him and Mr lung troubles. Guaranteed by all Gifford was called and consulted druggists. Price 50c. and $1.00. He-told them he had a medicine in the form of Cholic, Cholera and Trial bottles free.

Diarrhoea Remedy that he though would help him out and according ly several doses were administered with the result that the fellow was able to be around next day. This incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicines. - Elkado Godwin. (Iowa) Argus.

This remedy never fails. in your home, it may save life

Hancock's Liquid Sulphur cures skin troubles of every nature. No home should be without it. Ask your merchants for a book on Liquid Sulphur. Sold by C. D. Carstarphen Co. Anderson Ha sell & Co.

Your County paper, THE ENTER