Took the town by Storm

Mr. T. B. Gaskins took Williamston by storm last week—acting in the capacity of advance agent for Kathleen Mavourneen. He donned a silk beaver and a black Prince Albert and did the thing up right. On entering town, however, he was mistaken for the commencement orator for the "Williamston Female College" or some celebrity of high political aspiration.—Windsor Ledger.

A Hearsie for Williamston

Mr. S. R. Biggs received yesterday a hearsie. This is something the town needs and has been without for some years. Since the writer has been here it has been necessary to carry the dead to the place of burial in a cart or wagon. The town had the appearance, whenever there was a funeral, of being about fifty years behind time.

Not that the writer wishes Mr. Biggs any ill-luck, but it is hoped that it will be a long time ere the hearsie will be needed.

Capt. Tillery Promoted

Capt. T. W. Tillery, who has been running on the Roanoke river for fifteen years, on Tillery's Roanoke River Line, has been worthily promoted.

His steamboat line has been run in connection with the Norfolk and Southern railroad, and now has absorbed the Petersburg, Norfolk and Weldon Steamboat Company. The two lines are run under one management in connection with the Norfolk and Southern railroad, all using the same wharves at Edenton, and Capt. Tillery has been made manager at a good salary.

The contract went into effect the first of May, and Capt. Tillery no longer runs regularly on the boat from Edenton up the Roanoke river, but will have his office as general manager at Edenton.

His many friends in this community will congratulate Capt. Tillery upon the promotion which he so worthily deserves.—Soo land Neck Commonwealth.
