It may be int. resting not only to newspaper men throughout the country, but to the people general ly to know that the World's Press Parliament, which wil be in session at St. Louis from May 16 to as, will be the greatest gathering of newspaper men ever brought to gether. It is estimated that be tween three and four thousand representative newspaper men from every state in the Federal Union and every country in the world, will be present. In the number will be some of the most distinguished foreign journalists from the various capitals of Europe. Secretary of State Hay will open the Parliament with a thirty minutes talk.

Other speakers already on the programme will be Charles Emory Smith, Col. Henry Watterson and Edward Bok. During the session receptions will be given by the Kansas, Missouri, Indiana, Wisconsin, Arizona, Georgia, Texas, Ok lahoma, Iowa, West Virginia and of Sam Randali and Charlie Crisp, account of the disaffection of the Idaho commissions, the Federation ition itself. The entertainment will conclude with a trip down the Mississippi river on a palatial steamer. For once the newspaper men will be strictly in it.

"THE TAIL PIECE."

the End of All Things

Hogarth, the famous satirist, pro duced a picture that for its choice of subjects has never been equaled. Not long before the death of this genius he set about excenting what he facetiously termed "The Tail Piece." While sitting at his own table in company with a number of boon companions he was asked by one of them what would be the subject of his next drawing. He gloom-

Beecher Atways Has a Crowd. "Empty seats and how to fill them," was the subject discussed at a ministerial meeting which Henry Ward Beecher and his manager. James B. Pond, attended while on a lecturing tour. Beecher was asked to say a few words. Unhesitatingly the famous orator gave the assem-blage some of his experiences and was listened to attentively. Major Pond was then called upon for a few words. His few words evoked great and spontaneous laughter. "If yon wish to fill your empty seats," said he, "I would advise you to consult with Mr. Beecher here and have then delivered to him at Plymouth church." her Always Had a Cro
