FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1904.

The force pump on Main street, in front of Hassell & Co.'s, is a decided improvement over our old method of fire-fighting. If the town will put in a number of these pumps, and a supply of hose, it will be quite an advance towards a fire department.

The Wilmington Messenger has the following to say on the subject of legalized primaries: "We hope the democratic state convention, which meets two weeks from today, will endorse the legalized primary and that the next legislature will pass an act putting it in force. It is the fairest way of nominating candidates. It gives every man a showing."

The sentiment in this county is growing rapidly in favor of the primary, and we hope that the day is not far distant when every man will have a voice in the nomination of candidates for all offices.

May the young people who are going forth from our schools and colleges be great in service. It matters not much how much money they may acquire. It is not of first importance that they be ranked by men among earth's highest and greatest. It is a matter of vital concern that they possess a high and holy enthusiasm to help men and glorify God; that they be cooperants with God in the betterment and salvation of mankind. May they hold their knowledge, their talents, their time, their money, a sacred trust to be used for God's glory. The more their power, the greater their responsibility. It is true that "Endowment of power is equipment for service."—Orphan's Friend.

Suffers by the Comparison.
President Roosevelt has come to the conclusion that all North Carolinians are born orators. When he spoke at the Charleston Exposition he was a second to the eloquent Charles Brantley Aycock, Governor of North Carolina, and there was no comparison between the two speeches. Last week, Maj. William McKendree Robbins spoke with the President at Gettysburg. The North Carolinian, whose eloquence moves and stirs the hearts of men, made a speech that thrilled the people, and the second time he had to play second fiddle to a North Carolinian.

Hereafter when the President is invited to speak from the same platform he will plead "official business." He is not an orator or suffers in comparison.—News and Observer.

For a Hundred Years
For a hundred years or more Witch Hazel Salve has been recognized as a superior remedy, but it remained for E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, to discover how to combine the virtues of Witch Hazel with other antiseptics, in the form of a salve. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best salve in the world for sores, cuts, burns, bruises and piles. The high standing of this salve has given rise to counterfeits, and the public is advised to look for the name "DeWitt" on the package and accept no other. Sold by Anderson, Crawford & Co.

Judge Pritchard last week retired from the bench of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and went to Richmond Wednesday to take the oath of office as circuit judge. The District bar adopted a resolution expressing regret in losing Judge Pritchard and presented him with a handsome silver punch bowl, inlaid with gold. E. J. Best, of Raleigh, has been appointed Judge Pritchard's secretary and stenographer. The judge will go to Asheville next week and take up his residence there.—Ex.

Trip to Hamilton.
The Editor and Mr. L. C. Robertson drove over to Hamilton Tuesday. They stopped on the way at the hospitable home of Mr. M. W. Ballard, where they were entertained at dinner and remained till the cool of the evening, when they left to complete the trip. Arriving in Hamilton about seven o'clock, the Conoho House was visited where they were bountifully fed and comfortably entertained for the night.

The business men were visited Wednesday, and while business is a little dull at this time, the merchants are in excellent spirits, and are looking forward to a very good season. The Hamilton Pants Mfg. Co. is hustling to fill orders. Just at this time there is about $10,000 worth of manufactured goods on hand ready for shipment. We were told that this company is making itself felt by its competitors in so-much that the workmanship is of a better class than that of the northern made articles. The management of this property is to be congratulated on the success that is being made. The carpenters, Messrs. Ward and Baker, are rushing to completion the handsome church for the Methodist of that town. It is expected that they will be through within a month.

While our trip was not as remunerative as was wished for we cannot complain about what we did. It is always a pleasure to meet any of the subscribers to THE ENTERPRISE, and we hope that we will be able to make our trips more frequent.

A Continual Strain
Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and dependency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottles of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At S. R. Biggs.

Triumph of Modern Surgery
Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering which such injuries entail. For sale by S. R. Biggs.

The Methodist Orphanage.
Rev. J. W. Jenkins, of the Methodist Orphanage, at Raleigh was here Sunday, and preached to a large congregation. His sermon was greatly enjoyed and the collection for the Orphanage was the third largest that has yet been taken. There was something over $120.00 given. Mr. N. S. Peel gave $100.

Rev. Mr. Jenkins sermons have already done a great deal toward making friends for the institution of which he is the father. It was only after years of continual labor that he succeeded in getting an Orphanage. Today one of the handsomest buildings in the South is being completed for the Orphans.

THE CHRISTIAN churches at Constantinople, Turkey and Yokohama Japan, have long used the Longman & Matinez Paints for painting their churches.

Liberal contributions of L. & M. Paint will be given for such purpose wherever a church is located.

F. M. Scofield, Harris Springs, S. C. writes, "I painted our old homestead with L. & M. twenty-six years ago. Not painted since; looks better than houses painted in the last four years."

W. B. Barr Charleston, W. Va., writes "Painted Frankenburg Block with L. & M. shows better than any building here ever done; stands out as the varnished and actual cost of paint was less than $1.20 per gallon. Wears and covers like gold."

These Celebrated Paints are sold by S. R. Biggs.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of extending to our friends our most sincere thanks for their kindness to us in our recent bereavement, and especially do we thank those who furnished teams for the funeral of our little one.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Nicholson.

Worst of all Experiences

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by S. R. Biggs and all druggists.

A Southern Compliment.

Chief Justice Chase of the supreme court had a grand time on one occasion when he visited New Orleans. Accompanied by his accomplished daughter, the justice partook of the generous hospitality of the south. He entered heartily into the pleasures of the hour, not once presuming to impress the dignity of his exalted position upon his host. One evening the justice caught sight of his daughter, surrounded by many of the gallants of the south. Addressing himself to a fine old gentleman, the justice, with warranted pride, asked: "Sir, what do you think of my daughter?" "If you will permit me to judge by present appearance," replied the gentleman, bowing graciously, "I assert positively that she is the supreme court of the south."—Detroit Free Press.

"HE IS THE SUPREME COURT OF THE SOUTH."

Signal With the Cross.

Steering with the cross was first practiced by Christians to distinguish themselves from the pagans. In ancient times kings and nobles used the sign of the cross, whether they could write or not, as a symbol that the person making it pledged himself by his Christian faith to the truth of the matter to which he affixed it.

The New York Evening Telegram tells of a man who saw "Camille" played and so overcome with sadness that he went home and swallowed furniture polish. Knew a man once who saw "Ten Nights in a Barroom" played and went out between acts and surprised his stomach with water straight. Roanoke News.
