United Confederate Veterans.

As a fitting climax to the reunion of United Confederate Veterans, Nashville and her thousands of guests last Thursday gave the veterans, as they proudly marched through the densely crowded streets an ovation which will live long in memory of its recipients as well as those who paid the honor.

The day was warm, but the old men marched unflinchingly, alby the poor policing along the route, but the start was made at the hour set and the last passed the review stand two hours later. The Seventh Cavalry Band, U. S. A., led the parade, and this organization, as well as the many other bands in the long line, played only four pieces, but gave them over and over:

"Maryland, My Maryland," "My Old Kentucky Home," "The Girl I Left Behind Me," and "Dixie."

closing session of the North Carolina Retail Merchant's Association was held in Winston-Salem last Thursday afternoon. It was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Asheville, Officers were elected as follows: President, Clarence Sawyer, of Asheville; Vice President, I. E. Peterson, of Goldsboro; Secretary, A. Nichols, of Asheville; Treasurer, J. W. Carter, of Winston-Salem: Attorney-Genereral, Norman H. Johnson, of Burlidgton.

Attorney General Johnson was authorized to take steps at once leading to the establishment of a North Carolina Trade Journal, The paper will probably be published at Raleigh The association passed resolutions advocating quite a number of changes in laws affecting retail merchants.

The most important of such changes requested are as follows: The passing of laws making hus band and wife jointly responsible for debts contracted for necessaries of life; the passage of a law to prevent the fraudulent haudling of goods in bulk; the enactment of measures necessary to drive the trad ng stamp concerns out of the State, and the repeal by the Legislature of the present revenue law, taxed as other lines of legitimate business.

Resolutions were passed putting the association on record as opposing parcel post bill and other kindred measures.

Triumphs of Modern Surgery

Wonderful things are done for the human body by surgery. Organs are taken out and scraped and polished and put back, or they may be removed entirely; bones are spliced; pipes take the place of diseased sections of veins; antiseptic dressings are applied to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, which causes them to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. Chamberlain Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to hear very quickly so that retail merchants may be It also allays the pain and soreness Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the incon venience and suffering which such injuries entail.
